

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Gilbert Daley (Classic Studios)

Daley-Neff Wedding Held Here

The wedding December 31 of Miss Donna Jean Neff and Duane Gilbert Daley was announced last week. The ceremony was read by Dr. Thomas Dixon at First Methodist church at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Neff, 763 Posse lane, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Daley, Jacksonville.

Mrs. Robert Johnson, Ashland, was matron of honor and Mr. Johnson was best man.

Harold Johnson, Jacksonville, seated the guests.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of nylon net and lace was designed with scoop neckline and pushup sleeves. A headdress of pearlized orange blossoms held her veil and her flowers were pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Johnson wore a pale blue net ballerina length gown with net jacket. Her bouquet was a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

White chrysanthemums in baskets and candelabra decorated the church. Miss Arleta Knowles, Grants Pass, was soloist and Mrs. Ralph Schuchard played the organ.

The reception was held in the church rooms and the serving was done by candlelight. Mrs. Quintin Jordan poured the punch and Mrs. Frank Myers served coffee.

The couple traveled to the Oregon coast for their honeymoon. They are living at 763 1/2 Posse lane.

The bride is attending Southern Oregon college and is a Medford senior high school graduate. The bridegroom, who also is attending SOC, is employed at Fluhrer's bakeries. He was graduated from Klamath Union high school.

Medford Woman Observes Birthday

Mrs. Rosa Frohreich observed her 87th birthday January 12 with an open house at her home at 1012 Reddy avenue, where she lives with a daughter, Miss Mary Frohreich.

Mrs. Frohreich came to this country from Germany when she was 12 years old and lived in Yankton county, South Dakota, from the age of 14 until she came to Medford in August, 1927.

She has been a widow for the past 33 years.

Eight of her children are living and six of them are residing in this state. The other two make their homes in Yankton, S. D. She has 31 grand children and 23 great-grandchildren.

British Daughters To Hold Ceremony

Elections and installation ceremonies will be conducted by members of Bow Bells chapter, Daughters of the British Empire Wednesday, January 25 at 8 p.m. in Girls Community club.

All women of British, Canadian and Australian birth or ancestry are invited. Mrs. Darroll Davis, telephone 2-5672, will furnish further information to anyone interested in the group.

Medford Couples On Winter Trips; Nyes Leave Today

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Winetroutr sailed Thursday on the liner Queen Mary and will dock at Cherbourg, France, from where they will leave for a six or seven month tour of foreign countries. They will visit 14 countries, making the tour by car.

Their itinerary includes France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Spain, Denmark, Holland, Portugal, Norway, Sweden, Luxembourg, Finland, England and Scotland.

Several Medford couples have planned winter trips to Europe, Mexico, or southern sections of the United States.

Two local couples will depart Thursday for an extended trip into southwestern states and Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Beck, Forest creek, will be accompanied in the Beck's car by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burk of Medford. The four will stop first at San Francisco and then continue on to Los Angeles. From there they will drive to Yuma, Ariz., and on January 30 they will leave Phoenix, Ariz., on an 18-day trip to Mexico.

In addition to visiting several cities in that country they will be in Mexico City for several days and spend some time at Acapulco, a side-trip from the Mexico capital.

They will return to Phoenix and the Beck's will remain there for several days before continuing home. Mr. and Mrs. Burk in the meantime will travel on to Hollywood, Calif., to visit a sister of Mr. Burk, to Compton where they will be with his brother and family and Laguna Beach, where Mrs. Burk has an apt.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen G. Nye are leaving today for New Orleans, La., from where they will sail on an ocean cruise. They will make stops in Havana, Cuba, and in Guatemala. The couple will return in mid-February.

Artists' Exhibit To Open Monday In Medford Store

An exhibit of paintings by valley artists will open Monday, January 23 at Barker's Men's store. The display will include seven pieces of work by as many different artists, and includes two paintings by Grants Pass artists. All of the pictures are oils.

Robert Miller, private art teacher, will exhibit a painting which recently was included in an exhibition at Southern Oregon college.

Benoy S. Bayless Jr., Junior high school art instructor, and a member of the Portland Art Museum group, will have on display a painting which he included in a recent one-man show at Eastern Oregon college, La Grande.

Warren Wolf, Medford Senior High school art instructor, has chosen to exhibit one of his paintings that recently was shown at Sieberts for Modern at Beaverton, Ore.

Clifford Platz, who has been invited for the third year by the store management to arrange such a display, will show one of his works which is a blue ribbon winner. Mr. Platz also has exhibited in numerous valley and outside shows.

Mrs. Lue Wilson, Central Point, new to the colony of painters, and a member of Southern Oregon Society of Artists, will be one of the exhibitors.

Nicholas and Dorothy Milbank, a husband and wife team of painters from Grants Pass, will show blue ribbon winners also. Mrs. Milbank won the sweepstakes prize for the 1955 American Association of University Women annual art show at Grants Pass. She will enter a painting which was accepted in the Northwest Annual art show at San Francisco last year and which was given a blue ribbon.

Mr. Milbank will show the entry which was accepted at a 1955 Seattle annual art exhibit and which was awarded a blue ribbon there.

Mrs. and Mrs. Tom Dwyer Sr., 70 Janney lane, arrived here Thursday evening from a week's stay in Los Angeles.

Mrs. R. I. Stuart, who has lived in Medford since 1911, was honored at a tea January 15 which observed her 90th birthday anniversary. The tea was at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Fuson, 2005 East Main street, and another daughter, Miss Isobel Stuart, assisted. Mrs. Miles Stuart, a daughter-in-law, and Mrs. A. Orin Schenck poured. Mrs. Stuart is active, and gardening is her hobby. (BRAINERD PHOTO.)
