

Nevada Police in Intensive Hunt For Vicious Suspect in Killings

Las Vegas, Nev. — (U.P.) — Police, sheriff's deputies and the FBI staged an intensive man-hunt today for a vicious gunman suspected of murdering a motorist in New Mexico and possibly killing another motorist who is missing.

Authorities threw up road-blocks for the unidentified gunman who was almost captured last night when he was stopped by a traffic officer for speeding. The gunman wrecked a car in escaping and also held a man at gunpoint to steal a change of clothes.

Possibly Indiana Escapee

Officers feared the gunman might be an Indiana jail escapee who had been sentenced to death for the murder of a gas station attendant and for killing five other persons in a "Chinese execution" by forcing them to kneel so he could shoot them in the back of the head.

The gunman's description, officers said, fitted that of Leslie Irvin, who escaped from a Princeton, Ind., jail Jan. 19.

Missing and feared dead was Kenneth Short, North Hollywood, Calif., who bought a car in Flint, Mich., recently and presumably was driving it home when he disappeared. The car wrecked last night belonged to Short, officers said.

Motorist Killed

Deputies said the possible slayer of Short was believed to also be the murderer of motorist Ralph Henderson Rainey, Santa Monica, Calif., at Albuquerque, N.M., Jan. 9. Officers said a man passed through a New Mexico roadblock after the Rainey shooting and headed toward Las Vegas.

The gunman, when stopped here by a traffic officer for speeding, showed identification papers of Donald Gildway, whose Las Vegas home was burglarized recently. When the officer noted the identification did not tally with the driver's appearance, he ordered the suspect to drive to the police station. Instead, the suspect out ran the officer and wrecked Short's car.

The gunman then broke into the home of Loren Tracy, who was alone, and held him at gunpoint. He changed into one of Tracy's shirts. The shirt he discarded was later identified as Short's. It was stained with blood from injuries the gunman suffered in the crackup of Short's car.

The suspect also gave one of Short's business cards to Tracy. He apparently took a liking to Tracy because he gave him a watch which also turned out to be Short's.

Elizabeth To Decide On Polio Vaccine Use

London — (U.P.) — Queen Elizabeth II alone will decide "like any other mother" whether Prince Charles and Princess Anne will be inoculated with Britain's newly-developed anti-polio serum, palace sources said Monday.

A London newspaper had suggested that vaccination of the royal children would do more to sell British parents on the vaccine than "any amount of ministry of health propaganda."

Senate Starts Work On Farm Measures

Washington — (U.P.) — The Senate Agriculture committee today began drafting a bill to put more money into the pockets of the nation's financially-squeezed farmers.

The Democratic-controlled committee had two immediate problems to solve:

Decide on how to finance the soil bank program proposed by President Eisenhower.

Decide on what to do about the demand for a "compromise" price support plan made by Committee Chairman Allen J. Ellender (D-La.).

Ellender wants to support some top quality crops at 90 per cent of parity. The problem is finding a yardstick to define quality.

The administration wants to keep the support program flexible. Payments now range from 75 to 90 per cent of parity.

Progress Reported in Westinghouse Strike

Pittsburgh — (U.P.) — Negotiations in the marathon Westinghouse Electric Corp. strike, now in its 100th day, resumed today with an announcement by the company president that "some progress" has been made.

The violence-marked Westinghouse dispute is the nation's longest major strike since the 112-day Chrysler Corp. walkout in 1950.

The progress report by Westinghouse President Gwilyn A. Price was one of the few optimistic notes sounded since the first of two unions walked out last Oct. 17. It came in reply to a letter from John M. Carmody, chairman of the 17-member Nation Citizen's committee formed Sunday in Washington.

"I feel that true collective bargaining now is underway with the International Union of Electrical Workers on the basis for negotiations and that some progress has been made," Price said.
