Farm Prices To Be Above Average

Washington — (U.P.) — The Agriculture Department said today farm prices in the early months of 1956 will average somewhat above the low levels reached in December.

Prices of most farm products have "firmed slightly" in recent weeks with the passing of the seasonal marketing peak, the department said in its publication, "The Demand and Price Situation."

Cash receipts from farm marketings in December were tentatively estimated at $2,700,000,000 15 per cent from November but only about 2 per cent below December, 1954.

Receipts from livestock and products were about $1,300,000,000, and crop receipts were estimated tentatively at $1,400,000,000. Both estimates show the usual seasonal decline from November.

December's tentative estimate plus the previous 11-month total of $29,200,000,000 for 1955 cash receipts, down 3 per cent from 1954. The department said this figure may be revised in March when more information of marketings becomes available.

Prices received by farmers declined each month during the last half of 1955 and in mid-December both crops and livestock products averaged 7 per cent below a year earlier.

Hawaii's normal annual production of sugar is about 1,000,000 short tons.

Saudi Arabian Bribe Of Jordanians Denied

Jedda, Saudi Arabia — (U.P.) — A government spokesman has denied British charges that Saudi Arabia "bribed" Jordanians to stage anti-Baghdad Pact riots.

The pact "was no obviously prejudicial to Arab interests that it requires no financial incentive for the Arabs to fight it," the spokesman said Monday night.

Princess Margaret May Visit US in Fall

London — (U.P.) — The Daily Sketch said today there is a "very good chance" that Princess Margaret will visit the United States this fall.

However, a Buckingham Palace spokesman said the royal family is not planning any such trip for the princess.

Do you work over 14 hours a day? Are you an OVERWORKED YOUNG MOTHER?

Ladies' Home Journal tells what can be done

Are you up to your ears in work every minute of the day? Have you no time to relax? Are you exhausted when your husband gets home? Are you lonesome for talk with other adults. If so, you're not alone!

In spite of labor-saving devices, young mothers today put in as much as 115 hours a week when few workers in business and industry are expected to work more than forty.

Because Journal editors recognize the importance of this problem, they called together four young mothers, whose problems are typical, to meet with experts in child care and family relations and discuss what can be done to help today's overworked young mothers.

In this revealing discussion, you'll read how these young mothers spend their busiest hours, their favorite hours; you'll learn how they shop and keep house. You'll sympathize with them as they tell about their most acute crises, reveal what in their lives they most want to see changed and modified.

You'll read how husbands help around the house... what part they play in taking care of the children. But still more help is needed! Where will it come from? What part can your community play?

With millions of young marrieds having millions of babies, be sure you read "The Flight of the Young Mother." Show it to your husband, discuss it with your friends.
