

Local and Personal

Boys Arrested—Two Gold Hill boys, aged 15 and 16 years, were remanded to juvenile authorities yesterday following their arrest by city police in connection with prowling around a car parked on a West Sixth street lot.

Car Meeting—The Jackson County Disaster Car organization will hold its regular meeting at 8 p.m. today at the main fire hall. The meeting is open to the public.

Son Visiting—Bill Caldwell, freshman student at Pacific university, Forest Grove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Caldwell, Route 1, Eagle Point, is visiting with his parents at the close of first semester. He is accompanied by a classmate, Wendell Neilbahr, Baker, Ore. They arrived Tuesday and will return Friday.

Square Dance—The Swinging Bees Square Dance club will hold a dance between 8:30 p.m. and midnight Saturday at 40 North Riverside ave. Minnie Robertson will call dances. Refreshments will be potluck.

Move—Several families moved recently from the valley to other cities in the west and southwest. The John Guernseys moved from Talent to Portland; the Ken Williams left Central Point for Palmdale, Calif.; Mrs. Alice Gardner, formerly of 240 South Riverside ave., left for Los Angeles, and the Bud Wiggins, Victory apartments, moved to Yreka, Calif. Mrs. Thomas White, Winchester ave., will leave for Fresno, Calif., Saturday. Mrs. Williams is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rupp, former Central Point and Little Apple residents.

Business Names—The assumed business name Haggard Lumber company has been retired by Warren R. and Ethel E. Haggard and assumed by David W. and Ann L. Haggard. The name Plaza Cafe and Confectionery was retired by Hoyt H. and Beatrice A. Varbel and the name Plaza Cafe was assumed by Dolores C. Guise, Ashland. The business name F.K.G. Logging company has been assumed by Wayne H. Kemmerer, Wesley M. Fry and Glenn L. Gingery, according to records in the county recorder's office.

Inspections Made—City Fire Marshal Truman Nelson inspected six business occupancies and one hotel yesterday and issued three orders for correction of hazards.

Investigate Smoke—Firemen called to the Willard Mattson residence, 1612 East Jackson st., to check the cause of smoke in the house about 9:30 p.m. yesterday, found the fuse in the electric dryer burned out.

Seeks Monroes—Relatives in Oakville, Wash., have written Medford police requesting the address of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Monroe, Medford. Anyone having information concerning their whereabouts is asked to call police headquarters or write Mrs. H. L. Jhanson, Oakville.

Transferred—Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hayden, route 1, box 492A, Central Point, will move this week end to Coos Bay, where Hayden has been transferred by the Oregon state highway commission, after receiving a promotion. He is a highway engineer.

Joins Firm—Dom Provost Jr., formerly of Ashland and now of Portland, is now associated with the Oregon agency of the Northwest Mutual Life Insurance company. Provost, whose home course was Rogue Valley Country club before moving to Portland, is well-known in Pacific northwest amateur golfing circles. He won the Southern Oregon championship here in 1954.

Accident—Cars operated by Mrs. Louisa Laura Jahnke, 40, of 824 Bennett ave., Medford, and Vernon Ray Stickle, 28, of 2840 Duell ave., Medford, were involved in a minor accident on Highway 99 near the Big Y early last night, according to state police. Mrs. Jahnke was cited for making an improper left turn, according to police. Both vehicles were traveling south. There were no injuries, police said.

Return—J. A. McDougall and son, Leon, 315 Perrydale ave., have returned home after a stay in Rochester, Minn., where the latter underwent examination from Mayo clinic heart specialists. The two will leave Medford again Feb. 13 for the clinic and the young man is scheduled to undergo heart surgery Feb. 16. The surgery technique involves use of the so-called "mechanical heart" which supplants the patient's heart during the operation.

Dismissed—Mrs. John Mansfield, 1615 Crater Lake highway, was dismissed this morning from Community hospital, where she had been for several days for minor surgery.

Home Sold—The H. D. McClure home, 200 Sunrise ave., has been sold to Ralph Furrer, Portland, former Medford resident, and the McClures have moved to 1407 East Main st. It was announced today from Fidler-McKenzie agency. Bill Kerr was the agency salesman.
