

NO POLITICS, PLEASE — Secy. of State John Foster Dulles makes an urgent new appeal to both parties not to play politics with the nation's foreign policy. Dulles said that the political wrangling over foreign policy will increase the risk of war if it raises doubts abroad about America's intentions to live up to its international commitments.

Milk Sold by Yard In Siberian City

Moscow — (U.P.) — No milk bottles to wash in Yakutsk, a Siberian city 3,000 miles east northeast of Moscow.

The temperature is so low they're selling milk by the yard.

In fact, according to the weekly magazine Ogonysk, frozen milk is on sale at the Yakutsk collective farm market in two shapes—loaf or bowl.

The farm wraps the milk in paper and the customer carries it home. And no danger of it melting. The temperature is 58 below zero.

Bids For Gas, Diesel Oil Awarded By Court

Shell Oil company was awarded the contract to provide gasoline for county vehicles yesterday by the county court. Tidewater-Associated Oil company was awarded contracts for diesel, furnace, and stove oil.

Shell's successful bid for gasoline was 21.14 cents per gallon for regular gas delivered in large amounts by truck-trailer and 21.69 cents per gallon delivered by tank wagon of not less than 400 gallons at a time.

Tidewater - Associated's successful bids were 13.7 cents per gallon for regular diesel; 16.28 cents per gallon for auto diesel; 13.7 cents, furnace oil; and 15.31 cents, stove oil.

The county uses about 220,000 gallons of gasoline per year; 35,000 gallons of regular diesel; 15,000 other diesel; 5,000 furnace oil; and 5,000 stove oil.

County Residents Named To Committee

Two Southwest Agents Transferred From Here

Two Southwest Airways company officials were transferred this month from Medford to Bakersfield, Calif. They are Malcolm Dickerman, former station manager, and Duane Siggins, senior agent. Families of the men also moved. The Dickermans lived at 802 Newtown st., and the Siggins formerly were at 619 North Fir st.

The airways recently opened a new route through Bakersfield, Palmdale and Lancaster, Calif. Also recently inaugurated are two daily non-stop flights from Eureka and Arcata, Calif., to San Francisco.

Salt Lake City Hotel Receives Bomb Scare

Salt Lake City — (U.P.) — The Newhouse hotel, second largest here, was evacuated for an hour by 600 guests yesterday after a "deep voiced" caller warned "It's going to blow up at noon." Reoccupation was permitted by authorities shortly before 1 p.m. (MST).
