

Washington Fires Coach Cherberg

Seattle (U.P.)—Johnny Cherberg, who couldn't win friends and influence his players, was fired Friday night as University of Washington football coach.

Athletic Director Harvey Cassill lowered the boom on Cherberg after 70 per cent of his squad turned against him. The ouster was effective immediately.

No Surprise

Though he was an alumni of the school, Cherberg's removal was not a surprise. The controversy over him has raged openly since last November when 35 players, many of them first-stringers, asked Cassill to fire their coach because of his "tyrannical coaching methods."

University Vice-President H. P. Everest denied published reports that Coach Raymond Taylor of Compton, Calif., junior college has already been hired to replace Cherberg.

There is absolutely no consideration being given to the hiring of Brown or anyone else at this time," Everest said.

Cassill acted under the authority of the University's board of regents, which stepped into the boiling controversy after Cherberg fired Jim Sutherland, his backfield coach. Cherberg implied at the time that Sutherland was responsible for the dissolution.

Cherberg told the regents he could quell the controversy. They consented to keep him, but on the condition that he either get his house in order or face the consequences.

Paul O'Shea Named US Sports Car Champion

New York (U.P.)—Paul O'Shea of Rye, N.Y., has been named 1955 sports car champion of America by the Sports Car Club of America.

O'Shea, driving a Mercedes-Benz 300 SL production model, received 11,750 points during the year in 17 races in which he participated. Charles Wallace, Bethesda, Md., was second with 10,750 points, while Phil Hill, Santa Monica, was third with 9,500.

Sports Bulletins

Dayton, O. (U.P.)—The University of Louisville last night upset the University of Dayton Flyers, the nation's second ranked team with 14 straight wins, and a 66-64 overtime victory.

Paced by high-point man Charlie Tyra, with 30 points, the Cardinals won on a driving lay-up shot by Jerry Foreman with two seconds remaining in the extra period.

Chicago (U.P.)—Illinois, the nation's third-ranked cage team, spurred in the last half last night to trip DePaul, 80-66, for its 10th straight victory and its 11th win in 12 games.

Tennis stars Billy Talbert and Ham Richardson are inspirations for all diabetic victims—both became champions in spite of the affliction.

A "good little man" often beats a "godd big man" in tennis despite the old adage. Bitzy Grant, Bobby Riggs, Little Bill Johnston, Pancho Segura and Ken Rosewell rose to championship heights although they all were of medium stature or smaller.

Ashland Cage Club Defeats Crater High Comets 64-53

Central Point—Ashland high broke the home floor charm of its more recent basketball rivalry with Crater by whipping the Comets 64 to 53 in a non-league engagement here Friday night.

It was the first tussle of a two-game week end series between the two schools. Ashland broke onto the scoreboard on a Stuart Baker jump shot in the second minute of play and kept the lead throughout the skirmish. Period standings were 20 to 15, 35 to 24 and 51 to 33.

The Grizzlies capitalized on the ability to get free for good shots and make them. They utilized some snappy passing to work the ball in close and shake off Comet defenders and they scored from long range too. And particularly in the early stages of the game, Ashland defense held Crater to few good shot chances and also busted up the Comet attack.

Crater, nevertheless, managed to stay close to the Grizzlies through the first quarter. By Melbourne, Australia (U.P.)—John Landy of Australia ran the second fastest mile in track history Saturday when he clocked 3:58.6 in the Victoria Championships at Olympic park.

This marked the third time Landy ever had run the distance in less than four minutes. His feat today was six-tenths of a second slower than the world record of 3:58.0 which he set at Turku, Finland, on June 21, 1954.

Saturday's feat, witnessed by a crowd of 12,000, was regarded as the clincher in Landy's decision whether to compete in the Olympics. During the summer of 1954, Landy announced that he "was through chasing fast times" in distance races. He since has wavered in that decision and recently resumed racing seriously.

Can Do Better

"I can do much better than that," were his first words when timers advised him of his time. "I was sluggish at the start. And I haven't done any laps against the clock in my recent training and I think that worked against me today.

"But I never finished better. My last 150 yards were very pleasing to me. I felt I really wound up strong. That's why I think I can do much better overall, because I was just too sluggish at the start today."

This was the fastest mile run anywhere in the world this year and it marked the eighth time that a runner had done it in less than four minutes since Roger Bannister of England startled the world with his 3:59.4 mile at Oxford, England on May 6, 1954.

Landy has done it three times, once in a race with Bannister in the British Empire Games at Vancouver, B.C., on Aug. 7, 1954. In that historic duel Bannister ran a 3:58.8 mile and Landy a 3:59.6 clocking.

Vikes Thump EOCE 112-65

By UNITED PRESS

Jack Parker poured in 45 points to lead Portland State to a 112-65 victory over Eastern Oregon College of Education in Portland Friday night in an Oregon Collegiate Conference basketball game. In the only other OCC action, Oregon College of Education defeated Oregon Tech, 62-49.

Parker's sparkling performance broke the conference scoring record of 42 points set in 1954 by Don Porter, an ex-Portland State star now at Linfield. The 6-foot-6-inch junior forward hit on 19 of his 23 field goal attempts and made seven out of 10 tries from the foul line.

Others Hot Too

The other Vikings were just about as hot with the team firing a 484 from the floor. The 112 total points equals the unofficial conference record set ironically, by Eastern Oregon last year against Oregon College.

Portland State threw up a zone defense to shackle the league-leading Mountaineers, although the Portlanders didn't have much effect on Ted Schadewitz who managed to pile up 31 points.

At Monmouth, Oregon College won its first game of the season in downing the Oregon Tech Owls. The victory ended a 13-game losing streak for the Wolves, and boosted them out of the conference cellar with a 1-5 record. Oregon Tech was pushed into last place with a 1-7 record.

Babe Released From Hospital, Said Recovered

Galveston, Tex. (U.P.)—Babe Didrikson Zaharias, apparently conquering cancer with the same will to win that made her one of the world's great women athletes, was dismissed from the hospital yesterday as "recovered" from her third bout with malignancy.

The Babe, who has been an athletic figure for two decades in basketball, olympic track and field and golf, held a quiet visit with her brothers and sisters and planned to fly to her Tampa, Fla., home Monday morning.

There, she will take it easy while trying to rebuild her strength for a return to competitive golf, a lucrative career that has now been interrupted by three visits in less than two years to John Sealy hospital for treatment of malignant growths.

Corvallis (U.P.)—University of Washington dumped Oregon State, 66-58, here Friday night in a tightly-fought Pacific Coast conference game that saw the lead change hands a dozen times.

Oregon State dominated the backboards and had the help of 20 points by Bob Allord and 15 points by Dave Gambee but failed to protect its margins in the clinches. Washington's Bruno Boin, with 17 points, led the Husky attack.

OSC grabbed an early lead when Allord recorded the first score of the game but Washington went ahead for an 11-5 margin and was not headed again until near the end of the first half when Oregon State edged ahead 28-27. Halftime score was 31-30 for Washington.

Immediately after the half, a jump shot by Allord, put the Beavers into a one-point lead. Beaver center Wayne Moss fouled out of the game with 17:25 still showing on the clock. From then on, Washington began to dominate the game and moved ahead on two successful free throws by Ron Olson.

The Beavers staged a brief comeback on a long shot by Ken Nansen and held its lead until Dave Perkins sunk a jump shot to tie the game at 54 all. A tip-in by Gambee put the score at 56-54. Then Boin sank a hook shot and made three more free shots to give Washington its winning lead. With 2:19 minutes to play, Washington stalled the ball and picked up one more lay-in and
