

Miss Mortimer Edson Rawson Wed in Kansas

From Liberal, Kan., comes news of the wedding of Miss Jessie Mae Mortimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mortimer, Liberal, and Edson L. Rawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Rawson, 2217 Kings highway, Medford. The ceremony took place at First Methodist church in that city Sunday afternoon, January 15. The pastor, Dr. L. R. Templin, read the double-ring service. The bridegroom's parents were married in the parish of the same church 35 years ago.

Mrs. Clifford Pedigo, organist, accompanied Mrs. Don Clark who sang. Mrs. Pedigo also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride wore a beige suit dress of Irish linen with print accessories. Her corsage was of dark pink sweetheart roses, and she carried a white Eastern Star Bible.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. William Taber, who wore a pink linen suit with beige accessories. White carnations and light pink sweetheart roses fashioned her corsage.

Since the bridegroom's parents were unable to attend the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnston of Turpin, Okla., close friends, served in their stead.

Eugene Shanklin was best man and ushers were William E. Taber and Maurice Hardy of Skellytown, Tex., brothers-in-law of the bride.

The reception was held at the Warred hotel immediately following the ceremony.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Kenneth Recknor, Mrs. James W. Keating, Mrs. Sidney Roberts, Mrs. Don Bevan and Miss Joan Taylor. Mrs. Maurice Hardy, Skellytown, sister of the bride had charge of the guest book, assisted by her daughter Sharon Kay Hardy.

Mrs. Rawson resigned her position in the People's National Bank of Liberal just prior to her wedding. The couple will reside at 622 North El Paso, Tulsa, Tex., where Mr. Rawson is engaged in aerial spraying.

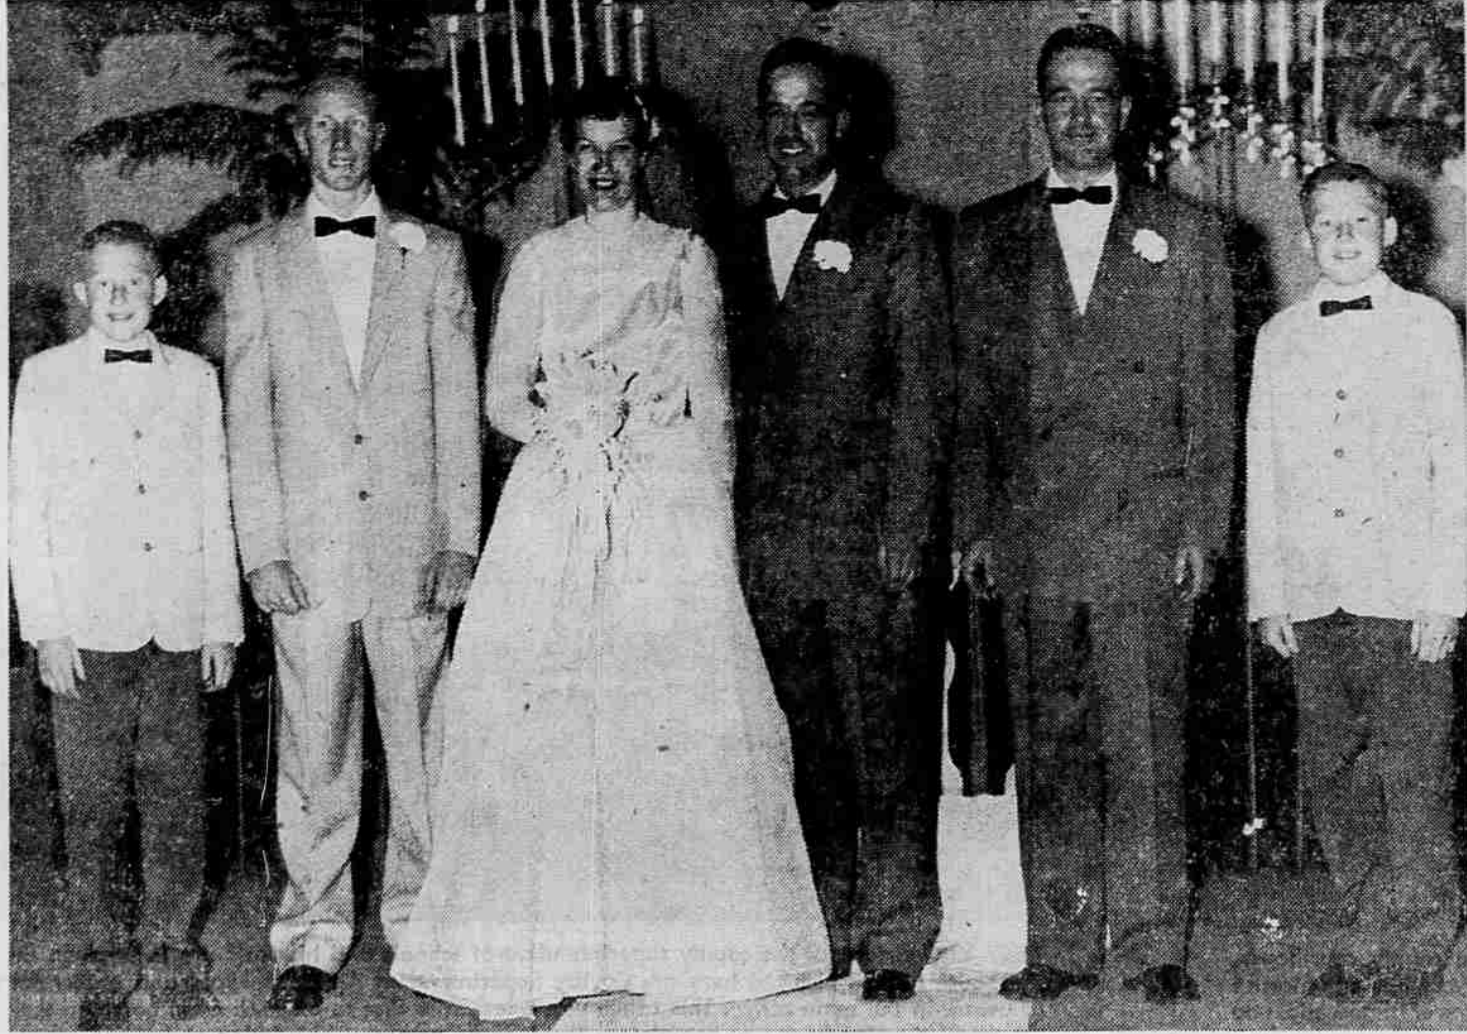

Women Travelers Take Plane Trip

Mrs. Fred Korschot, Dodge Bridge road, and Mrs. George McCollum, Gold Hill, left Saturday by plane for Guatemala City. They plan to stay there for about 10 days and will make side trips into the mountain areas.

Though they have no planned itinerary from there they expect to visit in Yucatan and may continue on to Haiti and Jamaica. The women expect to be away for about six weeks.

Give Dinner

Eagle Point—Mr. and Mrs. Nat Edsall were hosts Saturday evening for a small dinner at their home.

When Miss Helon Louise Tonn and Richard Phillip Dunn were married Jan. 21 in First Presbyterian church, Medford, three sets of twins were in the wedding party. The bride's twin brother, Harvey Tonn, was an usher, the bridegroom's twin brother, Robert Dunn, was his best man and the candle-lighters were Lan and Jan Dusenberry, twin cousins of the bride from Trail. Pictured here after the wedding ceremony are Jan (or Lan) Dusenberry, Harvey Tonn, the bride and bridegroom, Robert Dunn and Lan (or Jan) Dusenberry. The bride and bridegroom have both lived in Central Point their entire lives.

Ceremony Weds Central Point Couple

Central Point—Miss Helon Louise Tonn and Richard Phillip Dunn were married January 21 in a two o'clock afternoon ceremony at First Presbyterian church, Medford. Dr. Norman K. Tully, pastor of Central Point Presbyterian church, officiated for the double-ring rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Tonn, 130 Cedar street, Central Point and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunn, Route 1, Box 61, Central Point.

About 250 guests attended the ceremony and the reception which followed in the Central Point Grange hall.

Of particular interest is the fact that three sets of twins were in the wedding party, these being the bride and her twin brother, Harvey Tonn, the bridegroom and his twin, Robert Dunn, and Lan and Jan Dusenberry, Trail, twin cousins of the bride.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown of white satin was fashioned with yoke and long sleeves of embroidered nylon lace with scalloped edges and pearl trim and an overskirt of this material. Her bouquet was a white orchid encircled with lily-of-the-valley which she carried on a white prayer book. Her short veil matched the embroidered nylon of the dress.

Miss Dixie Walker, Gold Hill, was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Snook, Central Point, Miss Donna Eskew, Gold Hill, Miss Sally Elden, Central Point, and Miss Alice Wilson, Eagle Point, cousin of the bride. Elaine Wilson, Central Point, another cousin of the bride, was a junior attendant and Debby Wilson, Shady Cove, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Miss Walker's gown was of dark blue taffeta worn with matching head band of taffeta and net, and matching shoes. Her flowers were white carnations.

The bridesmaids wore frocks of light blue taffeta and they carried dark blue taffeta muffs with bouquets of shattered carnations pinned to them. Their head bands were of dark blue. The junior bridesmaid and flower girl were dressed in dark blue frocks; the former carried a muff of light blue taffeta and the latter a white basket of blue and white flowers.

Robert Dunn, twin brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Don and Marvin Bohmert, cousins of the bridegroom; Joe Vierra, San Francisco, and Harvey Tonn, twin brother of the bride. Jan and Lan Dusenberry, twin cousins of the bride from Trail, lighted the candles.

Mrs. Stanley Lacy, Medford, was soloist and Mrs. H. E. Marsh was at the organ.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise lace gown with pink accessories and rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in gown of rose-colored lace with pink accessories and rosebud corsage.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Arnold Bohmert and Mrs. Steve Wilson, who cut the wedding cake, Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry, who served the punch. Miss Joan Von der Hellen took charge of the guest book, and Mrs. Don Wiley the gifts.

The newlyweds are returning today from a wedding trip to San Francisco and will live at 123 Third street in Central Point. Both have lived here all their lives. The bride was graduated from Crater High school and is now employed by Cheney Lumber company. The bridegroom, who was graduated from Central Point High school, later attended Oregon State college and then served in the Army. The bridegroom is associated with his father in farming.

Mrs. Boyd Budge New President of Kiwanian Dames

Mrs. Boyd Budge was installed president of Kiwanian Dames at a meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Dwight Houghton. Those who will serve with her are Mrs. John Pletsch, vice-president; Mrs. Vernon Thorpe, treasurer; and Mrs. Merle Foland, secretary.

Committee chairmen named were Mrs. Milo Kubalek and Mrs. Thomas C. Anderson, hospitality; Mrs. Eldon Burgess, consolation; and Mrs. Frank Benesh, publicity.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Ward Samuelson, retiring president of Kiwanian Dames.

Valentine Dance Planned by Club

A valentine dance has been planned by The Lively Rogues. It will be held at the Ashland Elks' club Thursday, February 2 at 7:30 o'clock.

Host couples will be Mr. and Mrs. Austin King and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McGinty. Reservations are to be made by telephoning Mrs. Ralph Matthews, Medford 2-8767, afternoons or evenings.

To keep macaroni or spaghetti from boiling over, add a teaspoon of butter to the cooking water.

Orchestra, Paulena Carter To Present Concert Today

The orchestra of the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon will present its second concert of the season this afternoon at Medford Senior High school auditorium. The well-known west coast pianist, Paulena Carter of Hollywood, will be piano soloist for the concert, set for 3 p.m.

Richard D. Werner of Medford will conduct. Miss Carter and the orchestra will play Mendelssohn's "Concerto in G Minor" and the soloist will also play a group of numbers, including Debussy's "Clair de Lune" and "Valse Brillante" by Chopin.

The orchestra will play Beethoven's "Symphony No. 1", the Mendelssohn overture, "Fingal's Cave" and "The Blue Danube" by Johann Strauss.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained at the box office.

Miss Carter arrived from the south yesterday and is visiting her mother, Mrs. F. M. Carter and other relatives in Ashland.

Hostesses Give Shower Party For Miss Furry

Phoenix—Miss Nannette Furry, bride-elect of Michael Wrede, was honored at a bridal shower given recently at the home of Mrs. Thomas Cardona, 224 Saginaw drive, Medford. Hostesses were Mrs. Cardona and Mrs. H. M. Hall.

Those at the shower were Mrs. Inez Hayse, Mrs. Fred Hallgren, Mrs. Alton Anderson, Mrs. John Cook, Mrs. Jewel Parr, Mrs. Marjorie Green, Mrs. Stuart Pennington, Mrs. Vivienne Cecot, Mrs. Richard Mole, Mrs. E. E. Faytinger, Mrs. Ellen Wrede, mother of the bridegroom-elect; Mrs. Michael Popow, Miss Marilyn Popow, Mrs. Raymond Furry, mother of the bride-elect; Miss Jean Cardona, Miss Rita Cardona, and the guest of honor and hostesses.

The couple is to be married February 11 at Sacred Heart church. Mr. Wrede is stationed at Yuma County Air Force base, Arizona. His mother is visiting her from North Hollywood, Calif.

Buffet refreshments were served. Mrs. Parr arranged the table decorations.

In Reno

Mrs. Percy Bearden, Lozier lane, left Friday for Reno, Nev., to visit briefly with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Skyrman. She will return Tuesday.

Dollarhides Here As New Residents

Newcomers to this vicinity are Mr. and Mrs. J. Al Dollarhide who recently moved to 531 Hawthorn street, from Berkeley, Calif. Though new to Medford, Mr. Dollarhide is from a pioneer Jackson county family.

His father, O. B. Dollarhide, was born in 1884 on a farm between Medford and Jacksonville, and his grandfather, John Wesley Dollarhide, built the old Dollarhide bridge in the Siskiyou for Southern Pacific railway. His great uncle operated the well-known Dollarhide Toll road through the Siskiyou in the early days.

Mr. and Mrs. Dollarhide have lived in the east bay area for 10 years. He attended University of California, Berkeley, after returning from World War II and was employed as a public housing administrator before moving here. He attended Klamath Falls schools and was employed there for 12 years with the lumber industry before going into the service.

He is Medford branch manager for Southern Oregon Health association.

Garden Club

Central Point—A program on sweet peas will be given at the next meeting of Central Point Garden club. It is planned for Wednesday, February 1, at the home of Mrs. Donald E. Faber at 1:30 p.m.
