Newlyweds at Home Here; Rites at Nazarene Church

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Kornstad, whose wedding was an event of December 25, are living at 121 Crater Lake avenue, after making a wedding trip to Portland and other northern points.

The bride is the former Miss Arlene Rasmussen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rasmussen, 1918 Stewart avenue. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kornstad, live at 1624 Thomas road.

The ceremony was read at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the Church of the Nazarene, by the Rev. Raymond Hurn. About 350 guests attended. The couple chose Christmas day for the wedding as it also is the wedding anniversary of an uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

Lighted Christmas trees, with poinsettias and green boughs and pedestal candle arrangements decorated the church. A turquoise blue and white theme was used for members of the wedding group.

Organ music was played by Mrs. Bill Brewster, and songs were furnished by George Mc-Una with the church choir.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of taffeta with lace-covered bodice and sleeves and the overskirt of net was trimmed with lace inserts. Her flowers were red rosebuds which she carried on a Bible. She wore the traditional blue, borrowed and something new, the latter a petticoat 55 years old, loaned by Mrs. Roland W. Kruggel, and which has been worn by numerous brides.

Mrs. Wayne Giles, a sister of the bride, was the honor attendant, and bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Caldwell, a student at Pasadena, Calif., and Miss Leone Massey. The bride's attendants wore gowns of varying shades of turquoise blue made to match the bride's gown. They carried white chrysanthemums in white baskets and wore white flowers in their hair.

Cheryl Ann Giles, the bride's niece, was flower girl. She wore a white floor length gown to match those of the attendants, which was trimmed in turquoise blue. She carried red petals in a basket.

Gary Rasmussen, a brother of the bride, carried the rings on

Girl Scout Luncheon Set Tuesday

The annual district recognition of the Girl Scout organization will be held Tuesday, January 31, at 12 o'clock at St. Mark's Guild hall, Fifth and South Oakdale avenue. This annual event brings together Girl Scouts, leaders, committee members and chairmen in a "get acquainted" atmosphere.

A total of 197 adult volunteers are registered for Girl Scouting in the Medford area. Many of these will receive award pins for years of service to scouting, and others will be given special recognition. It is the hope of the committee that every leader, assistant and co-worker will be present.

Mrs. Richard Finch is in charge of arrangements, and also will be installed as the new district chairman. The district includes Washington, St. Mary's, Lincoln, Jackson, Roosevelt, Prospect, Central Point, Lone Pine, Phoenix, McLaughlin Junior High, Hedrick Junior High, Gold Hill, Shady Cove, Oakgrove, Howard, Griffin Creek and Jefferson schools.

Mrs. Finch has served for several years in adult scouting. She was a troop leader for four years, Medford district secretary for four years, and public relations chairman for one year. First vice-chairman will be Mrs. Frank Benesh, second vice-chairman Mrs. J. E. Moir, and secretary, Mrs. Paul Haviland. Miss Mary Vandenberg, of the Child Guidance clinic, will speak and a skit on Girl Scouting will be presented. Mrs. Al Carrara will be in charge of the flag presentation.

Retiring officers are Mrs. George Lee, president, and Mrs. Alan Jewett, troop organizer.

Those attending are asked to take their own service and either a salad or a hot dish.

Dr. George Hedley will present an address on "The Church Looks at Industrial Relations." Dr. Hedley, a Methodist minister, is professor of economics and sociology at Mills college, as well as chaplain.

Dr. Cameron Hall, director of the department of church and economic-life of the National Council of Churches, will conduct a workshop on methods, programs and materials for a local study on the subject.

Talk on Printing Given for Zontians

Printing shop procedures were described with illustrations by Mrs. Ireen Grigsby of Klocker Printery for Medford Zonta club at the Thursday noon lunch at the Jackson hotel. Mrs. Grigsby

The speaker said that some branches of printing are an art and that there are some shops which specialize exclusively in printing books that require artistic training in preparing them for publication.

Lithography, Mrs. Grigsby said, requires art work. First pictures are taken of individual colors; the pictures are then combined when the engraver makes the plate which is used for the final printing.

Brochures for the Oregon Shakespearean Festival were shown to illustrate what is done in lithography. An interesting

County Extension Groups To Study Fabrics, Pressing

Five county home extension units will meet this week. "Identification and Care of New Fabrics," and the "Art of Pressing," are titles of the projects to be studied.

Butte Falls — The group at Butte Falls will meet at the home of Mrs. Albert Hofman Friday, February 3 at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Joanne Weatherford, county extension agent, will demonstrate the subject concerning new fabrics.

Table service will be required and all women in the vicinity interested are invited. Mrs. Ted Riddell is in charge of child care for which a nominal fee will be charged.

West Side—Luncheon will be served at noon for West Side unit members who will meet Thursday, February 2 at 10:45 a.m., in the home of Mrs. Ernest Niedermeyer, Aspen drive.

Those who attend should take luncheon table service.

The afternoon session will be conducted by Mrs. Weatherford, also on new fabrics.

Anyone in the West Side area not now a member and who wants to attend unit meetings may telephone Mrs. Eston Humphrey, 3-2662, for further information.

Those desiring child care for the meeting should telephone Mrs. Charles Taylor, Normandy 4-2928 for particulars.

Because this is the first meeting of the unit with the new extension agent in attendance, officers anticipate a large attendance.

Griffin Creek — Mrs. George Large, 1000 Shafer lane, will be hostess Friday, February 3, to Griffin Creek unit when they will study the art of pressing. Mrs. Wesley Christlieb and Mrs. James W. Davidson will present the subject.

Lake Creek—Lake Creek Extension unit meets at the home of Mrs. Ed Meyer, Salt Creek road, Wednesday, February 1.

The lesson for the meeting is "Identification and Care of New Fabrics." The new agent, Mrs. Joanne Weatherford, will be the leader. This will be the agent's one meeting of the year in this community.

Members are reminded to take their silver coupons to the meeting.

An invitation is extended to all women in the community to attend the extension meetings. The meeting starts at 10:30 a.m.

Upper Applegate — Mrs. Bill Ziegler and Mrs. Loren Cooper will be leaders for the Upper Applegate unit Wednesday, February 1, 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Robert Sorber.

The lesson will concern pressing.

The serving committee will be made up of Mrs. Loyal Hard, chairman, Mrs. Ben Twist, Mrs. B. Goldman, Mrs. Harry Davis and Mrs. Joe Farrand.

All women of the vicinity interested are invited. Table service will be required and trays usable.
