

ROGUE RIVER Association Seats Officers

By MRS. MYRTLE WHIPPLE
Rogue River—The Woman's association met at the Hope Presbyterian church last Thursday evening to install new officers. The meeting was opened by the singing of the song, "Christ is the Way."
Mrs. Neal Mesman of Grants Pass was the installing officer. Those obligated were Mrs. Lee Miller, president; Mrs. Robert Worrall, vice-president and program chairman; Mrs. W. F. Spears Jr., recording secretary, and Edna Fulton, treasurer.
Mrs. Jeff Irwin was installed as spiritual life chairman; Mrs. Lewis Robinson, sunshine and hospitality chairman; Mrs. Everett Bowers, sewing; Mrs. Ernest Sandeen, ways and means. At a business meeting conducted by Mrs. Miller the group decided to cancel the annual dinner. Committee reports for the year past were presented. Mrs. A. E. Miller spoke briefly on mission activities. Refreshments were served by Mrs. A. E. Miller and Mrs. Everett Bowers.
The members of the Seafarers club met Wednesday night at the Fellowship hall. The meeting opened with a covered dish dinner at 6:30 p.m. Carl Christenson, president, had charge of the meeting. After a short business meeting a program was enjoyed. Miss Jean Stechl gave two Hawaiian dances. Mrs. Gertrude Freiden gave a 45-minute talk on Hawaii. She showed some pictures of her home and the different trees, and places there.

A birthday dinner was given Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Miller in honor of their son-in-law, Jim Rhoten. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rhoten and Mrs. Jim Rhoten of Wimer, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Owen of Grants Pass and Mr. and Mrs. Don Haynes of Medford and Russell Miller.
News has been received of the death of Mr. John X. Dunlap at Fallon, Nev. Mr. Dunlap was a former resident of Rogue River and was the brother-in-law of Mrs. Claude Hilger.

SAVAGE CREEK-ROGUE RIVER Nelsons Visiting Hawaii

By CHRISTINA H. MARSHALL
Savage Creek-Rogue River—Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of South Pacific Highway 99 are vacationing in Hawaii. According to a card received from them by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smiley of Smiley's Superette, they are having a wonderful time. The Nelsons expect to be away for several weeks.

Roy Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Larson, will celebrate his eighth birth on Tuesday, Jan. 31. He is being honored with a birthday party.

Ronnie Babb of Savage Creek is home ill with the mumps.

Jim Horn of Savage Creek, who has business interests in Tulalake and Crescent City, Calif., left last week for an African Safari. He and Mabry Ogle, associated with the Chipboard plant in Grants Pass and who has lumber interests in northern California, will be accompanied by Walt Fisher of Eureka and Richard Buffington of Gold Beach.

The party left by air from Medford. They will first fly to San Francisco, New York and thence to London, England. From London they go to Cairo, Egypt, and expect to tour the Nile area before flying to Uganda to begin an auto tour of the Belgian Congo.

The group will then fly to Nariobi to outfit for a four week Safari in search of big game, which they hope to capture with both gun and camera. They expect to return home in early March.

Bob Wedlock of Bob's Texaco at the 99 highway and Rogue River Junction has been down with the flu for a couple of days. Bob Williamson has been running the station for Wedlock during his illness.
Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Gruber who operate the Tiny Spot Cafe at the 99 highway and Rogue River Junction, will leave the first of next month for Long Beach, Calif. Gruber's father recently died there. They are going there to take care of his mother, who is an invalid.
Cassie Golding will run the Cafe for the Grubers while they are away.
Gail's Market at the 99 Highway and Rogue River Junction re-opened for business last week. The store has been remodeled and re-stocked. Gail's suffered extended damage and loss from the December flood.
