

OSC, Oregon Prepare for PCC Games

Portland — (U.P.) — Both Oregon and Oregon State, riddled by a pair of Pacific Coast Conference setbacks over the weekend, returned to the home courts today for a week of drills before they go out again next weekend, both against California foes.

In Friday and Saturday action ahead the Ducks entertain Southern California on their home premise while the Beavers of Slat Gill hit the road to the home lair of the Golden Bears of California.

In their last outing the Beavers played on even terms with Washington at Gill Coliseum Saturday night but completely faded in the face of a Husky scoring attack in the second half that netted the Seattle five an 83-63 win.

Bruno Boin Shines
Big shopmore center Bruno Boin lived up to his Seattle rave notices as he stuffed 24 points through the hoop.

The Ducks of Oregon fared little better in their Saturday schedule with Stanford at Palo Alto before the Saturday afternoon TV cameras, losing 73-60.

In this one too the Oregon entry made things hot for the first half of play, knotting up the count 11 times before the half-time buzzer and trailing by only four at 32 to 28 at the midway point.

Lewis Wins, Puscas Loses On Card at Klamath Falls

Jackie Puscas, Medford, lost a split decision to Dale Nicely, Multnomah Athletic club, Portland, Saturday night on a boxing card at Klamath Falls while his Police Athletic league stablemate, Larry Lewis, recorded a first round technical knockout over Dale McQuarry, another MAC performer.

A rematch of the PAL and MAC rivals is slated here on February 11.

Four other Medford PAL mittmen scored victories on the Klamath card. Bob Little, 105, got a second round knockout over Cho Cho Equido, Chiloquin. Larry Little, 105, won by second round technical knockout over Gene Nelson, Klamath Falls. Don Wolfe, 130, knocked out Eddie Smith, Chiloquin, in the third round, and Larry Nord, 128, unanimously decided Bruce Chalmers, Klamath Falls.

Loren Christie, Medford and Mose Martinez, Chiloquin, who will meet here also on February 11, boxed two rounds of exhibition. Their scheduled regular bout had been called off because of the previous illness of both but they agreed to the exhibition to fill out the card.

PATTY TAKES TITLE

Stockholm, Sweden — (U.P.) — Budge Patty of Los Angeles and Paris won the men's singles title of the Scandinavian Indoor Tennis championship Sunday by defeating Sven Davidson of Sweden, 6-4, 13-11, 6-2. Angela Mortimer of England gained the women's singles title by defeating favored Althea Gibson of New York, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3.

which had been shortened by KOs and TKOs.

Nicely Dropped

Decision in the Puscas fight surprised a good number of fans. The National AAU champ had been staggered by Nicely in the opening round but Puscas had comeback to send the MAC boy down for a mandatory eight count. Nicely, Tennessee champ, was hanging on at the finish of the panel. Second round was a swinging match and in the third chukker Puscas staggered and dazed his foe but couldn't put him down.

The Lewis-McQuarry mix halted when McQuarry got a small cut over his eye. It was a close contest until the last part of the round. The injury is expected to heal before the card here.

Bob Little dominated the first round and then gave Equido a right hand and a left hook in the second round to end the panel in 20 seconds. Gene Nelson gave Larry Little a close tussle and the bout was halted because of Nelson's bloody nose. Smith gave Wolfe a good battle before succumbing to a right thrown by the Medfordite.

Nord fought on about even terms with Chalmers in the first round and had a wider edge in the second. The PAL boxer turned on the steam in the third session and had Chalmers hanging on at the bell.

Home run slugger Ralph Kiner is a good tennis player—but not good enough to beat his wife, former tournament star Nancy Chaffee.

Pistons Bolster West Pro Lead

By UNITED PRESS

It took the Fort Wayne Pistons a long time to get rolling, but they're really in high gear now and moving quickly away from the field in the Western Division of the National Basketball association.

The Pistons racked up their seventh straight victory Sunday night by downing the Philadelphia Warriors, 99-85, in Fort Wayne. And now the Pistons boast a much bigger lead in the West—6½ games—than the Warriors do in the East—3½ games.

In other Sunday games, New York nipped Syracuse in overtime, 99-95; Boston downed Rochester, 112-103; and St. Louis beat Minneapolis, 114-107.

SACRIFICE FLY CHAMP

Cincinnati — (U.P.) — Gil Hodges, Brooklyn Dodgers first baseman, is the National League's "sacrifice fly champion." The likeable Indiana strongboy has led the N.L. in that department since the sacrifice fly was returned to official major league statistics in 1954. He had 19 in 1954 and 10 in 1955.

Officials State Dogs

Airport officials requested recently that residents living near the airport prevent dogs from running loose on the runways. If a plane landing or taking off should hit a dog it might cause a very serious accident, they pointed out. Unlicensed dogs are liable to be picked up and taken to the dog pond.

2 Russian Speed Skaters Tops in 1,500 Meter Race

By CHARLES RIDLEY
Cortina, Italy — (U.P.) — Russia, beaten in the 15-kilometer cross-country ski race by Norway's Halgeir Brenden, came back to score its third straight Olympic speed skating triumph today when two of its ice phantoms lowered the world 1500-meter record.

Evgeny Grishin and Yuriy Mikahilov each skated the 1500-meter distance in two minutes, 8.6 seconds to share first place in the event. Each will win an Olympic gold medal. This was the fourth Winter Games championship won by Russia, which has an overwhelming lead in the unofficial team standings.

Earlier in the day, Brenden, a 27-year-old Norwegian farmer, had smashed the Soviet skiers' bid for cross country supremacy by winning the 15-kilometer event in a snowstorm.

U. S. Hockey Victory
Renee Colliard, a 22-year-old Swiss girl, was unofficially declared winner of the women's special slalom ski race. All times in the event awaited an official recheck.

The United States team got off to a good start in the six-nation round robin championship hockey pool by scoring six goals in the first period for an easy 7-2 victory over Germany.

Tenley Albright of Newton, Mass., took an early lead after the first of five compulsory figures to be skated today in the Olympic figure skating competition. Miss Albright was awarded 169.5 points for her first maneuver. Carol Ann Heiss of New York was second with 162.9 points.

Andrea Mead Lawrence of Parshall, Colo., who won two gold medals in the 1952 winter games, had misfortune today on both her runs down the 456-meter (about 1,500 feet) slalom course and failed a second time in a bid for a 1956 title.

The 23-year-old Vermont-born ski star hit the base of a gate with her ski pole and nearly fell on the first run. Mrs. Lawrence also missed a gate on her second run and had to climb back, losing 20 seconds.

Fired Coach Levels Blast

Seattle — (U.P.) — Johnny Cherberg, the deposed coach of the University of Washington football team, was scheduled to return to the campus today, but only to get his check.

University Vice President H. P. Dick Everest, a prime target in a blast which Cherberg leveled at the university after he was fired, said yesterday that the school may have a "salary obligation" to Cherberg.

Everet based his statement on the fact that the Board of Regents recommended last month that Cherberg be retained despite a revolt by the football squad which started in the middle of last season.

Warns Successor
"It's a matter for Cherberg and Athletic Director Harvey Cassill to work out," Everest said.

In the meantime, the atmosphere skimmed from Cherberg's denunciation of Everest, Cassill and Roscoe Torchy Torrance, an active alumnus in recruiting.

Cherberg labeled the trio as "the unhappy triumvirate" yesterday and warned his unnamed successor to "beware" of them. He added that the football situation at Washington wouldn't become harmonious until Cassill and Everest are gone.

cap stars in training and already he has been installed as the 3 to 5 favorite.
