Mr. Stinson was born May 7, 1897, in Medford, near Roxy Ann. He was the son of the late Edward and Rose Stinson who came to Medford in 1891. He first went to work for Copco at the first dam site on the Klamath river in 1915. He attended Oregon State college and enlisted in the Army, Jan. 9, 1918, in Vancouver. He served with the AEF from May 3 through December, 1918. He was discharged Dec. 28, 1918, at Camp Lewis, Wash.

After his discharge in 1918 he worked for a time in the Prospect area, then moved to Grants Pass. From 1928 until 1934, when he returned to Medford he lived in Crescent City. In 1947 he moved to Roseburg where he was superintendent for Copco until October, 1954, when he moved to Fall Creek, Calif., as chief operator, because of illness.

He was a member of Central Point Lodge, AF&AM; Medford Scottish Rite, Hillah Temple, AAOONS, Ashland and Douglas Court, Order of Amaranth, Roseburg.

Survivors include his wife, Lucy M. Stinson; daughters, Mrs. H. J. Wright, Medford; Mrs. S. O. Gibson, Springfield, Ore.; Mrs. R. P. Jensen, Central Point; Mrs. D. J. Lockett, San Leandro, Calif.; Mrs. P. F. Wagner, Santa Monica, Calif.; a son, Edward Stinson, Lawndale, Calif.; a brother, Frank Stinson, Medford; a stepson, Perry Skeeters, White City, and 10 grandchildren.

CHARLES ASKIN
Graveside services for Charles G. Askin, 81, of Gold Hill, who died Tuesday, Jan. 24, in Costa Mesa, Calif., will be held in the Rock Point cemetery at 3 p.m. Thursday. The Rev. H. A. Dierdorff of the Sams Valley Community church will officiate. Conger-Morris funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Askin was born Jan. 15, 1875, in Newport, Ky. He was a member of the Gold Hill Grange, and a member of the Elks Lodge in San Pedro, Calif.

Survivors include two sons, Richard R. Miller, Grants Pass, and Charles E. Askin, Arcadia, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Charles Russell, Hollywood, Calif.; and Mrs. Jack Keelan, Costa Mesa, Calif.; a niece, Mrs. Hugh Winning, Burbank, Calif.; nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

FRED TURNER
Fred G. Turner, an uncle of George Turner, Coleman Creek rd., died Monday in the Roseburg Veterans' hospital. Funeral arrangements are being made by Perl funeral home.

Two Youths Arrested In Burglary Cases
Two more county youths, who gave their ages as 17, were arrested by sheriff's officers yesterday in connection with a number of county burglaries.

Deputies said the two, with three others jailed Saturday, admitted burglaries of Becker's drug store, Gold Hill, and the Gold Hill, Rogue River and West Side schools. Not all the youths took part in every entry, however, they said.

The five have been remanded to juvenile authorities and are held pending juvenile court hearings before Judge H. K. Hanna.

HENRY LEACH

Funeral services for Henry L. Leach, will be held at Perl Funeral home at 1:30 p.m. Friday. The Rev. C. W. Frost, pastor of the Apostolic Faith church, will officiate. Interment will be in the Medford IOOF cemetery. The Medford Lodge, IOOF, will participate in the services at graveside.
