

Mrs. Peter Frederick Purdum
—(Brainerd photo)

Ripperger-Doty Ceremony Held in Camp White Chapel

Miss Marilyn Mae Doty became the bride of Lewis Albert Ripperger Sunday, January 29 in a 3 o'clock afternoon ceremony read at the Camp White veterans administration chapel. The Rev. Albert S. Feller, chaplain, performed the rites. Only members of the two families and close friends attended.

The bride, until recently employed in San Francisco as a secretary, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ralph Doty, 1815 Prune street, and the bridegroom is assistant manager at the F. W. Woolworth company store in Roseburg. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clemens Ripperger, 112 South Keenway drive.

The bride wore a white wool jersey street length dress with shoulder-length veil which was held by a crown of pearls. She carried a fan with violets and a green orchid.

The diamond earrings which the bride wore had been given her by her late grandmother, Mrs. Mary A. Doty, who had had them for 50 years and who gave them to her granddaughter to wear first for her wedding day.

Mrs. Anna Lou Marrs, a sister of the bride, and honor attendant, wore a deep blue velvet street length frock. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums with yellow centers, bordered with acacia.

Miss Shirley Lynch, Medford, came from Eugene where she is a student at the University of Oregon, to serve as candle lighter. Miss Barbara Cook, organist, also attends the university.

William Hercher, Eugene, was best man.

Mr. Doty gave his daughter in marriage, and ushers were Charles Plummer and James Hollowell.

Violets were used to decorate the altar and were entwined on the candlesticks.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Sims were hosts for the reception at their residence at Camp White. About 60 guests attended. Mrs. Marrs cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Floyd Barnes, aunt of the bridegroom, served the punch.

Miss Lynch registered the guests and in charge of the gifts were Mrs. Howard Watkins and Miss Jean Johnson.

The bride's mother wore a hyacinth blue dress and her flowers were salmon colored orchids with white hyacinths. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in navy blue and her corsage was a white orchid with pink hyacinths.

The bride attended Medford schools and is a graduate of Medford High school. She also attended Southern Oregon college and Oregon State college.

The bridegroom attended Roseburg schools and until the wedding was employed by the Woolworth company at Eugene. He received a transfer to Roseburg and will begin his new duties February 6. The couple left Saturday for their new home there at 1156 N.E. Fremont street.

They made their wedding trip to eastern Oregon.

Recent Rites Of Interest In Medford

Of interest here is news of the wedding of Miss Edna Jean Driscoll and Lt. Robert Bruce McKay which took place December at Long Beach Navy station chapel, Long Beach, Calif. The couple is living at Carmel-by-the Sea while the bridegroom attends the Navy post graduate school at Monterey.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Driscoll, Long Beach, Calif., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McKay, 1025 Reddy avenue, who went south for the wedding.

The bride wore a nylon tulle and Chantilly lace gown with full skirt trimmed with panels of the lace. The bodice was trimmed in sequins and pearls and her lace-edged nylon tulle veil was held by a juliet cap, also with jewel trim. She carried a white orchid with lilies of the valley on a Chantilly lace covered white Bible.

Mrs. Paul Wicorek, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Margaret Marshall was bridesmaid. Both wore ballerina length dresses of azalea rose delustered satin, and matching juliet caps with face veils. Their bouquets were nosegays of garnet roses and pink carnations backed by rose nylon lace.

The best man was Lt. (jg) Brian Jarchow. Paul Wicorek and Edward Keller were ushers. The reception attended by about 100 guests was held at Allen center.

Mrs. Driscoll wore a black suit with pink pearl-trimmed hat and gloves, while Mrs. McKay selected blue with matching accessories. Both wore pink camellia corsages.

The bride was graduated from Wilson high school and Long Beach City college where she was active in SFO and Sigma Phi Gamma sorority. Her Bachelorette membership is relinquished with her marriage.

The bridegroom received his early education in Medford and later attended Willamette university. He was graduated from the University of Washington and the USN language school in Washington, D. C. His fraternity is Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Episcopal Ceremony Weds Pair

Miss Phyllis Merrick became the bride of Peter Frederick Purdum in a ceremony held Saturday, January 28, at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Medford. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson P. Merrick, Plaza apartments, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Ray Purdum, Corvallis, Ore., and the late Mr. Purdum.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster read the marriage ceremony at 10 o'clock in the morning, and Mr. Merrick gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a ballerina length wedding gown of embroidered chrysaline and net and her shoulder-length veil was held by a cap of lace and pearls. She carried a prayer book with sweetheart roses.

Miss Madeleine Wetten, Canby, Ore., was maid-of-honor. Her frock was of rose colored chrysaline and she carried pink carnations arranged with tulle.

Patrick Gaffney, Bellview, Wash., was best man for Mr. Purdum and Edgar R. Barton, La Grande, Ore., seated the guests.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad was at the organ, playing Bach's "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" for the wedding processional. The altar flowers were white chrysanthemums and the seven-branched candelabrum held candles.

A reception for about 40 guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hammond, 131 Highland drive. The bride's table was decorated with pink and white carnations. The ornament atop the wedding cake was first been used for the wedding cake of the bride's parents and has been used at several weddings since. Mrs. Robert G. Quickenden, Eugene, Ore., poured, Mrs. Howard Merriam, Goshen, Ore., cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Ethel Walker, Eugene, assisted. All three women are aunts of the bride. Also assisting with the reception was Mrs. George Gates.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a pale green knit suit with pink accessories and her corsage was of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a dark blue shantung suit with pink carnation corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Purdum will live in Corvallis where the bride is on the staff of Good Samaritan hospital as a medical technologist and the bridegroom is a student at Oregon State college. The bride was graduated from Medford High school and Mills college, Oakland, Calif. The bride's father has lived in the valley 50 years, and the bride was born and reared in Medford.

Preceding the wedding rehearsal the evening before the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Merrick were hosts for a dinner at Rogue Valley Country club. Twenty-three attended.

Among the wedding guests were Howard Merriam, Goshen, and Miss Suzanne Smith, Corvallis.

Shipmates class of the Methodist church will meet for a potluck dinner and party, Friday, February 10 at 6:30 p.m., at the church. Members are invited to take guests.

Family Arrives Here from Seattle

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Legas and children, Rosanne, Bruce and Laurie, have moved to Medford from Seattle, Wash., and are living at 220 North Barneburg road.

Mrs. Legas is a graduate of Whitman college, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and the PEO sisterhood. Mrs. Legas is a member of a north-west pioneer family. Captain Henry Roeder, founder of Bellingham, Wash., was one of them.

Mr. Legas is a sales representative for Monsanto Chemical company, a graduate of the University of Washington and a member of the Bellingham Yacht club.

Miss Doris Drost Honored at Party

Miss Doris Drost was guest of honor Saturday, January 28 at a coffee hour at the home of Mrs. Russell Roseborough, 151 Highland drive. Miss Drost, a former president of Alpha Lambda chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, is now attending San Jose State college in California, where she is taking elementary teacher's training.

She was presented a corsage from her sorority sisters.

Other guests present were Mrs. J. D. Barney, Mrs. John Benson, and Mrs. Chester Lind, inactive members of the local chapter, and Mrs. Joe Whitsett formerly of Alpha Kappa Chapter, Ashland.

Extra Special Gifts FOR YOUR Valentine

Any woman loves Towle Sterling

For Valentine's Day—Any Other Occasion

Six piece place settings, from $29.75
3-light, low candelabra $65.00 pr.
3-pc. jam jar and saucer set $13.95

We can suggest so many ways to make your loved one happy with Towle Sterling: fill-in the pieces that make her set complete—or start her treasure with a modest Towle piece, or a very impressive one... in every case the lady of your heart will treasure gift and giver for all the years to come.

CONVENIENT TERMS IF DESIRED!

LAWRENCE'S
YOUR SILVER STORE

Specializing in Fine Diamonds and Watches, Too!

130 EAST MAIN ST. EST. 1908

Adrienne's

new Spring dresses

By... Nelly Don

Go anywhere in gingham—handsome embroidered plaid, dark enough for town... smart and simple at home. Neat narrowed collar is convertible. Crease-resistant. Pink, grey or yellow with black, 10 to 20, $14.98

See Our Collection of New Spring Dresses By Nelly Don

SIZES: 12½ to 24½ 8 to 44 FROM $10.95 UP

Adrienne's

214 EAST MAIN PHONE 2-7169

Mrs. Lewis Albert Ripperger
—(Landis-Shangle photo)

Shirley Mae Turk Becomes Bride of Laurel E. Krause

Shirley Mae Turk and Laurel E. Krause were married January 15 in rites read by the Rev. Leo Hamilton at the Methodist church in Sparks, Nev.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darold Garman, route 2, Box 377L, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Krause, route 3, box 169AA, Medford.

For her wedding the bride wore a pale lavender suit.

She is a 1952 graduate of Medford Senior high school and is employed at the Big Y market.

The bridegroom is a bookkeeper for Rogue Valley Country club.

The couple is living at route 3, box 233, on Fern Valley road. On their arrival January 19 from their wedding trip members of the Medford Trail Riders met at the couple's home to charivari them. About 20 persons attended and music and dancing were diversions of the evening. They presented the couple gifts for their new home and refreshments were served. The bride and bridegroom are members of the club.

Lady Elks Plan Leap Year Dance Salad Luncheon

Lady Elks have planned a "Leap Year" dance Saturday, February 11, for Elks and their invited guests. Once every four years the ladies entertain the men at this special event. Favours and decorations in the Leap Year theme have been prepared for the occasion.

John Lusk and his orchestra will furnish the music for the dance and special entertainment is also planned.

Lady Elks will meet for a salad luncheon Tuesday, February 7 at 1:30 p.m., and the remainder of the afternoon will be spent in playing cards.

Mrs. Van Gilbert, Mrs. George Howard and Mrs. Larry Juniper will be hostesses. Wives of all Elk lodge members are invited.

Mrs. Maurice Tuttle To Conduct Program For Mission Society

Mrs. Maurice Tuttle will conduct a program Tuesday, February 7 for Woman's Baptist Mission society of the Eastwood Baptist church. The meeting will open at 1 p.m. and will be at the home of Mrs. Don Tucker, 854 Stewart avenue.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Mae Eaton and Mrs. Lora Strahn. Devotions will be given by Mrs. S. D. Earhart.

Women who attend are to take love gift offerings which will be dedicated by Mrs. Don Tucker, chairman.

Anyone who needs transportation may telephone Mrs. J. T. Johnson, 3-2576.

Initiated

Robert Sevcik, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Leo Sevcik, 26 Willamette avenue, recently was initiated into Pi Kappa Phi, fraternity, a national social fraternity. He is a sophomore student in the school of business at Oregon State college.

Pledges

Eugene—Miss Flori Sloniger, Medford, has pledged Gamma Phi Beta sorority at the University of Oregon during the winter term open rush period.

Miss Sloniger, a freshman majoring in liberal arts, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sloniger, 398 Stewart avenue, Medford. She is a recent graduate of Medford High school.

Gold Star Mothers will meet for a potluck luncheon Tuesday, February 7 at 12:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Lottie Tiede, 645 Pine street, Medford.

We Have Lowered Our Winter Tuition Rates at

MEDFORD BEAUTY SCHOOL

TOTAL TUITION LESS THAN $80.00

1955 High School Graduates—Ask about our SCHOLARSHIP PLAN! Enroll now for this class

NEW PHONE 2-6155

Adrienne's

clean Sweep

SALE

Hurry! Hurry! Hurry!

IT'S A STORE-WIDE CLEARANCE SALE!

SURPRISE

What's More Fun Than a Surprise?

Savings!

Everybody loves a surprise and so do we! And we're delighted to think you'll be surprised at the Terrific Values you'll find! Hurry in for biggest selection!

Our Entire Stock of Fall and Winter Merchandise

- COATS • SUITS • DRESSES • LINGERIE
- SKIRTS • SWEATERS • BLOUSES
- ROBES • JEWELRY

CLOSE-OUT of ALL SURGICAL and MATERNITY GARMENTS

Adrienne's

214 EAST MAIN STREET PHONE 2-7169