Rites Held At Home For Couple

A home ceremony January 18 wedded Miss Shirley Ann Riggs and Edmund R. Setzler. The couple made their wedding trip to Los Angeles and returned here last week. The bride will continue living in Medford and the bridegroom will leave the middle of the month for overseas duty. He has been with the Army for the past year. The bride is an operator for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Both the wedding and reception were held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Riggs, 1104 East 11th street. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Setzler, 2114 East Jackson street. Both young people attended Medford Senior high school.

The Rev. Raymond E. Balcomb of First Methodist church read the double ring rites at 7 o'clock in the evening. About 35 guests attended. White stock and blue iris decorated the rooms.

Mr. Riggs gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a light blue suit with navy blue accessories and her bouquet was of small white roses.

Mrs. Ronald Bean, matron of honor, wore a gray-blue suit with blue and white accessories. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Mrs. Paul Hanlin and Miss Charlene Cook served coffee and cake for the reception held after the ceremony at the Riggs home. Mrs. Richard Riggs registered the guests.

White and pink carnations provided the decorations. The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress of taffeta and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in rose lace and both wore white carnation corsages.

Before entering the service the bridegroom attended Southern Oregon college. He serves as an instructor in the Army.

Bruner-Williams Wedding Held at Methodist Church

An event of Saturday, January 28, was the wedding of Miss Irene Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Williams, 121 Ashland avenue, to Harold Bruner of San Jose, Calif. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bruner of that city.

The ceremony was held at First Methodist church at eight o'clock in the evening, with 150 guests attending. Dr. Raymond Balcomb officiated, and Mr. Williams gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Gerald B. Sherman was organist, and Howard Bryan, San Jose, and soloist. Baskets of white flowers and white candles decorated the church.

The bride wore a gown of white lace over slipper satin which she had made herself by hand. Her veil was shoulder length and she carried red roses.

Mrs. Clifford Crites was honor attendant for her sister, and additional attendants were Miss Marjorie Sandfort and Mrs. Rex Kellogg, San Jose, sister of the bridegroom. Their princess-style frocks were of watermelon red, street length, and they carried white carnation bouquets.

Sally McKay, Central Point, was flower girl. She wore a white sheer dress and carried red carnations.

Elmer Gene Bruner was best man for his brother and seating the guests were Raymond Bruner, another brother and George Williams, brother of the bride.

The reception which followed was held at the Williams' home and attended by about 100 guests. Miss Mary Vandenberg and Miss Doris Drost cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Kenneth Barger, Ashland, poured.

Here for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents and other members of his family including Mr. and Mrs. Jene Bruner, Rex Kellogg, Raymond Bruner and Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, Eureka, Calif., the bridegroom's grandparents. Others coming from a distance were Jim Peterson, Tom Taylor, George Kay Williams, all San Jose, and Mr. and Mrs. Blythe S. Hirst, Eugene, friends of the bride.

The newlyweds will live at San Jose, where the bridegroom is with the California Pacific Tile Insurance company. He attended San Jose High school and San Jose State college. The bride also attended the same college after graduating from Medford High school and is employed by a firm of doctors in San Jose.
