Mrs. Marie Jackson Dies In Portland

Portland — (U.P.) — Mrs. C. S. (Marie) Jackson, 93-year-old widow of C. S. Jackson, founder of the Portland Oregon Journal, died quietly here Friday night at her home.

Mrs. Jackson, active all her long life, had not been reported ill. She apparently suffered a stroke about 10 p.m.

She married C. S. (Sam) Jackson in 1886 when he was publishing the Pendleton, Ore., East Oregonian. Jackson launched the Oregon Journal in Portland in 1902, after taking over a struggling four-month-old paper and changing its name. He published the paper until his death in 1924.

The daily newspaper then passed to the hands of Mrs. Jackson's son, Philip Ludwell Jackson, who died in 1953. Another son, Francis, was killed while serving with American Merchant Marine during World War I.

A grandson, C. S. (Sam) Jackson, died in a helicopter crash in Portland in December, 1947.

Mrs. Jackson, who with her son Philip, were principal owners of The Journal, took a high interest in the paper and its activities. Since the death of Phil Jackson, The Journal has been published by William M. Knight. At the time of her death, Mrs. Jackson was chairman of the board of The Journal.

Dress styles introduced by missionaries some 75 years ago are still used by natives of Windhoek, Southwest Africa, the National Geographic society says.

Grand Rapids, Michigan's third largest city, has the only furniture museum in the world.

Highway Commission Awards Road Bids

Salem — (U.P.) — The State Highway department has awarded a Klamath county grading and paving contract to Warren Northwest, Inc., of Portland on low bid of $364,241.50.

The job involves 7.31 miles of grading, paving and shoulder oiling on the east unit, Crescent Lake junction-The Dalles-Calfornia junction section of the Willamette highway, about 43 miles east of Oakridge and 10 miles south of Crescent.

Roy L. Houck and Sons, Salem, was low bidder at $277,333 for 4.84 miles of grading and paving and shoulder oiling on the middle unit, Pendleton-Pilot Rock section of the Pendleton-John Day highway about 5½ miles south of Pendleton.

Tom Lillebo, Reedspert, was low bidder at $72,675 for construction of a 262-foot reinforced concrete deck girder bridge over the Little Nestucca river at Meda on the Little Nestucca highway.

Hill A. Lind, Beaverton, bidding $47,710, won the contract for 27 miles of grading on the Short creek section of the Cape Meares loop road, about 1.2 miles north of Oceanside.

Three Injured When Explosion Rips House

Longview, Wash. — (U.P.) — A teen-age mother and her two small daughters were recovering Saturday from injuries suffered when a water heater exploded and destroyed their home near here.

The mother, Mrs. Don Maples, 19, and her 8-month-old daughter, DeAnn, were blown through a kitchen wall by the force of the explosion. Donna, 2½, was pinned beneath wreckage. Mrs. Maples suffered leg cuts and multiple bruises; DeAnn suffered severe burns and cuts, and Donna suffered a head injury and cuts. All suffered shock, concussion and burns.

Neighbors said they heard a roar and saw steam coming from the house. They found Mrs. Maples and the baby lying in the snow. The two-bedroom house was wrecked by the blast Thursday. A heavy electric range was blown through the wall.

Cause of the explosion was undetermined.

On The Side

If one should give me a heart to keep,
 With love for the golden key,
 The giver might live at ease or sleep;
 It should ne'er know pain, be weary or weep,
 The heart watched over by me.
 —O'Shaughnessy.

Are women who regularly wear hats more intelligent than those who habitually go hatless? That question is currently being heatedly discussed by many of our countrywomen. I believe the query should be amended to read: "are women who are interested in hats more intelligent than those who are not?" The hat enthusiasts are probably smarter than those who never give headgear a thought. However, I understand the reason many women rarely wear hats at this time is because of the difficulty in acquiring a hat that suits them. One that enhances their appearance rather than handicapping it. In brief, the ladies appear firm in their belief that a hat should do something for a woman, not something to her.

Asking

Queries from clients. Q. When and where did Pearl White die? Am, of course, referring to the star of the classic serial "The Perils of Pauline." A. Pearl died on Aug. 4, 1938, in the American hospital in Paris. . . Q. What kind of a phobia is keraunophobia? A. Fear of lightning. I have it. Especially when in New Jersey in the summertime. That "Jersey lightning" is really something.

Husband Hunting

In what feminine occupation does a girl have the best chance to meet matrimonially inclined men? According to an extensive checking of this angle of the husband hunting situation, the most chances for proposals of marriage are enjoyed by girls in the following occupations in order named: air hostess, hospital nurses, receptionists, secretaries, manicurists, film theater box-coffee cashiers and waitresses.

Coffee
 Do you take cream in your coffee? Do you first pour the coffee in the cup and then add the cream? If so, that's wrong. Cream should go in the cup first. Then add the coffee. On this all the experts on the subject of coffee consuming are agreed.

Among the Married

What was the most difficult year of your marriage? It is generally claimed the first year is the most difficult. After that the sixth year. However, in the United States most divorces take place in the fourth year of marriage. This comment brings to mind that during a discussion as to whether the first year, the fourth year or the sixth year of married life was most difficult. Hedy LaMarr said, "My first year of my first marriage was very difficult! My husband gave me 17 dogs and insisted that I keep all of them."

Passing By

Ann Sheridan. The school-teacher from Denton, Tex., who became the original "Oomph Girl" of the films. Ann's birthday is Feb. 21. Therefore, she is a Piscean. The symbol of Pisces is the fishes—one swimming upstream — the other down. The lives of Pisces people are usually a series of ups and downs. Long series of failure are broken by success and vice versa. Or, so say the stargazers.

This and That

Heavyweight males are usually good ballroom dancers. The best dancer of all Presidents of the United States was "Big Bill" Taft who weighed 300 . . . Seventy-five per cent of women marry the first man who asks them. Young divorcees now get the most marriage proposals but they are not inclined to accept the first one. They shop around a little.

Portland Bidding For Co-Terminus

Portland — (U.P.) — The Portland Chamber of Commerce has been urged to make a strong bid for commercial airline connections between Portland and Europe via the North Pole after air line officials said they hoped to make Portland a co-terminus of the polar flights.

Harold Say, Washington representative of the chamber, has asked the Civil Aeronautics board to hold hearings on the polar route in Portland May 15. The Aviation committee of the chamber voted unanimously to recommend chamber intervention in the hearings to put Portland on the new intercontinental air map.

Both Trans World Airways and Pan American have applied for certificates to serve the route and officials for both told the Aviation committee they planned to make Portland a co-terminus with San Francisco and Seattle.

Westerners now may travel to Europe via the pole only by Scandinavian Airlines from Los Angeles or Canadian Pacific from Vancouver, B. C.

Elderly Couple Burn To Death At Riddle

Roseburg — (U.P.) — An elderly couple burned to death last night in a fire which destroyed their home at Riddle junction, south of here.

State police identified the victims as Forrest R. Ream, 62, and his wife, Marrie, 63. The fire, which was discovered by a passing truck driver, David A. Trudeau, about 11:30 p.m. apparently was caused by a defective flue on a heating stove, state police said.

Norway's Kongsberg silver works, which produced 2,866,500 pounds of silver since 1623, will be closed after July 1, 1957. The Norwegian government has decided extraction of remaining ore is too expensive.
