New York—(U.P.)—Undefeated San Francisco, which is rolling toward an NCAA berth at a non-stop clip, was back at the same old stand atop the United Press college basketball ratings today for the 10th straight week.

The Dons, who ran their record victory string to 42 games by licking Loyola of Los Angeles, 69-46, Friday night, received 31 first place votes from the 25 leading coaches who comprise the United Press rating board.

The coaches, who based their ballots on games through Feb. 4, kept San Francisco on top of the heap with a total of 339 points. The Dons, sporting a 16-0 record this season, are favored to make it 18-0 by the end of the week. They meet College of Pacific tonight and Fresno State Friday.

Dropped in Points
Actually, San Francisco received one less first place vote than it did last week and totaled one point less than it did last week also.

Dayton strengthened its hold on second place with 272 points as compared with 238 a week ago. Even without their ace, Bill Uhl, who was ailing, the Flyers registered their 16th victory in 17 starts by beating Loyola of New Orleans, 82-62, over the week end.

Illinois retained third place with 252 points while North Carolina State remained fourth with 208 points.

Louisville climbed from sixth to fifth place in the ratings, trailing places with Vanderbilt, which dropped to sixth.

Kentucky, with a 13-3 record, jumped from ninth place to seventh place while Temple, which suffered its first defeat of the season during the past week at the hands of Muhlenberg, fell from seventh place to eighth.

Southern Methodist (16-2) climbed from 10th place to ninth by winning two games during the week and Duke (13-3) returned to the top 10, gaining the 10th spot after being 11th a week ago. The only casualty among the teams which were

Coyotes Continue March To Crown
By UNITED PRESS
College of Idaho and Pacific notched wins in Northwest conference action last night as the Coyotes continued their seemingly unstoppable march toward retention of the loop flag.

Coach Len Yandle's charges measured Lewis and Clark, 80-62, at Caldwell as R. C. Owens hit 29 points. The win ran the Coyote string to eight-wins and one-loss in counting play.

In the other half of last night's schedule, Pacific trailing by 17 points at the half, rallied to trim Whitman, 82-65. Jerry Kalapus, the leading scorer in this affair, stuffing through 24 counters.

Lewis and Clark took an early 12-6 margin in their battle at Caldwell but by halftime were trailing 39-30. With Idaho hitting an even 400 from the field, the Pioneers were never in contention from that point on.

Whitman had a seemingly safe 37-20 bulge at the intermission in their battle with Pacific but the Badgers came back from the rest period red hot to win going away.

Action Resumes This Week In Southern Oregon Loop; St. Mary's, Talent Battle

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS

Klamath Falls	4	2	.667
Ashland	3	3	.500
Grants Pass	1	5	.167

Prep basketball activity in this section of the state this week end will be highlighted by the resumption of Southern Oregon Conference games after a three week's pause, by Phoenix's efforts to sew up the Rogue League flag and by a crucial conflict among leaders in the Jackson County B League.

Medford's Black Tornado, unmarred in six games of the first round in the Southern Oregon circuit, entertains Ashland Friday and goes to the Grizzly town on Saturday. Grants Pass will play both nights at Klamath Falls.

In the Rogue circuit Phoenix is host to Crater Friday and faces the Comets at Central Point Saturday. Illinois Valley and Eagle Point contend at Eagle Point Friday and at Cave Junction Saturday.

SM at Talent
Friday B league scraps are St. Mary's at Talent, Prospect at Jacksonville and Butte Falls at Rogue River. Prospect is host to Rogue River this evening. The game was postponed from last Friday because of the legal holiday.

Medford needs only a pair of triumphs to assure itself of a state tourney berth from District 6 A-1. That would clinch at least second place for the Tornado and two teams from this district make the Eugene jaunt this year.

The Black Tornado, leading Klamath Falls by two games, is in the best position to go on to the SO title. Ashland and Grants Pass are tied three games behind the Pelicans but are still mathematically in the chase and have indicated that they'll make a tough fight of the second half.

Eye Crater Fracas
Phoenix can tuck away the A-2 Rogue laurels by winning any two of its remaining four games. However, the Pirates have hopes of making quick work of title clinching with a single victory—one over Crater Friday. Rogue League contention has no bearing on a berth in the A-2 state tourney. However, No. 1 and 2 clubs in the final Rogue standings will draw first round byes in the southern division tourney of District 6.

Talent with the advantage of its home court will try to deadlock the race with St. Mary's for

Newell Sees OS Improving Play
San Francisco—(U.P.)—Coach Pete Newell of California thinks that Oregon State's basketball team will pull out of its unaccustomed spin pretty soon.

"Slat Gill has the makings of another strong club," Newell said at yesterday's session of the Northern California Basketball Writers association. "He could win a couple of more games this season and cause some eyebrow raising around the circuit."

Newell's quintet won two from OSC last week end which left Gill's defending Pacific Coast conference champions staggering with a 2-8 PCC mark and 5-15 for the season. But neither win was a pushover, especially the Friday night game which was settled in overtime 65-63.

"Oregon State is a good sophomore team and it will be a solid outfit when the boys stop making mistakes," Newell said. "Look out for Dave Gambee at forward. He is the kind of a guy you have to start guarding as soon as his shoes are on."

By JOHN GRIFFIN
Unite Press Sports Writer

A pair of streak-busting major upsets knocked Vanderbilt out of first place in the Southeastern Conference basketball race and loosened St. Louis' grip on the top spot in the Missouri Valley conference today.

Both high-ranked outfits were looking for their 10th straight wins Monday night, but instead Vanderbilt was dealt a stunning 88-61 defeat by Alabama in Tuscaloosa and St. Louis rallied too late in losing to Oklahoma A&M 65-53, in St. Louis.

As a result, Alabama took over the SEC lead with a perfect loop mark of 6-0, dropping Vanderbilt into a second-place tie with Kentucky at 7-1. And St. Louis' Missouri Valley record was cut to 6-1 for just a one-game lead over Houston.

Fort Wayne Increases Western Lead in NBA

By UNITED PRESS
The Fort Wayne Pistons stretched their Western Division lead in the National Basketball association today to a whopping 5½ games by virtue of a dispute-filled victory over the Syracuse Nationals.

The Pistons held on to win Monday night's fray at Fort Wayne, 99-98, as Earl Lloyd of Syracuse and Bob Houbregs of Fort Wayne were ejected for fighting in the third period and Nats' Coach Al Cervi was banished in the same frame for arguing with the officials.

There was no other action in the league Monday night. In a doubleheader at New York to-night Philadelphia plays Syracuse and Boston meets New York.
