Merchant Seaman Killed in Portland

Portland — (U.P.) — A 57-year-old merchant seaman was killed last night when he was struck by a car while crossing a Portland street.

Police identified the victim as Dahlem Cuppernall, Portland. Virgil E. Romine, 32, Portland, driver of the car which struck Cuppernall, said he did not see him crossing the street. Police said it was foggy, the intersection was badly lit and the seaman was wearing dark-colored clothes.

He was the seventh traffic fatality of the year.

COMMISSIONER CANDIDATE Portland — (U.P.) — Charles E. Gilbert, Portland construction engineer, announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Multnomah county commissioner yesterday.

California has 17 of the top farming counties in the United States.

Means of Shortening Oregon Ballot Eyed

Salem — (U.P.) — Means of shortening the Oregon ballot were studied yesterday by the Legislative Interim committee on Elections headed by Sen. Pat Lonergan of Portland.

The opinion was expressed by some members that one method of shortening the ballot would be to put several offices now elective under appointive power. Mentioned were the offices of county engineers and assessors. Others thought the offices should remain as they are. The matter will be further studied.

Also up for further study is a proposal to give the voters their choice of a complete slate in a presidential preference primary.

John C. Fremont led three early western exploring expeditions, two of which extended to California.

Buildup of Portland Sewers Being Planned

Portland — (U.P.) — Plans for a $6,000,000 improvement and rehabilitation program to build up Portland sewer facilities were announced yesterday by city commissioner William A. Bowes.

Bowes told the legislative interim committee on local government meeting here that the plan would be financed either by direct levy or a bond issue. The bond issue would be submitted to voters on the May primary ballot.

The commissioner said some old lines "built 60 or 70 years ago" needed to be modernized.
