The guest speaker has had 12 years of experience as foreign secretary, and also served earlier as a missionary to Burma for 18 years. He will speak to several churches in this area before going to Coquille for the 8th annual meeting of Oregon Conservative Baptists, to be held Feb. 16, 17, and 18.

At the 11 o'clock morning worship service of the Medford church, the Rev. James W. Neeley will speak on the subject, "Numbers — It's Living Message."

The Bible Teaches

In the 17th chapter of John, Christ teaches in very simple words how a lost soul can become a christian.

BY BELIEVING AND RECEIVING HIS WORD.

Verse 6-8. The result of which is the forgiveness of their sins. Christ then prayed that God would sanctify them through His word, which would destroy the Adamic nature which everyone inherits from the fall of Adam in the garden of Eden. This experience makes them not only one with God, but also one with one another Verse 21. Some 50 days later these 120 believers met in the upper room all in one accord, proving Christ's prayer had been answered, it also conclusively proves the cause of the many different denominations of today comes about because of man's rejection of sanctification that most needed experience. These same believers continued on with God and were filled with the Holy Ghost. Acts, 2: 1-4. The men who stoned Stephens to death were men who had resisted the Holy Ghost. Acts, 7:51. The world was never plagued with false prophets as it is today. A true minister is called not to lord it over anyone but to PREACH THE WORD IN HUMILITY AND IN FEAR
