

Karrick-Robinson Rites Held at Episcopal Church

St. Mark's Episcopal church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Alicia Robinson to Theron G. Karrick Jr., on Saturday, February 4. The marriage ceremony was read at four o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector, with about 200 guests attending.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon J. Robinson, 1917 East Main street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Theron G. Karrick, 1016 Murray street.

The altar vases were filled with white stock, and two tall baskets held white stock and pink snapdragons.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad was organist, and Ward Smith was soloist.

The bride's wedding dress was of Alencon lace, designed ballerina style with long fitted bodice and very full skirt. It was worn with a long-sleeved bolero. The bride's finger-tip length illusion veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

The bride's two sisters, the Misses Delia and Elena Robinson, were her attendants. They wore ballerina frocks of pale green net, with close-fitting bodices and bouffant skirts. Their headresses were of pink velvet trimmed with silver braid and net and they carried pink baby-roses with pink and white hyacinths.

Mr. Robinson gave his daughter in marriage, and Duane Sides was best man for the bridegroom.

ter in marriage, and Duane Sides was best man for the bridegroom. Terry Foster, Edward Zawislak, Daniel Marmo and Claude Morgan seated the guests.

The reception was held in the parish hall of the church. Miss Mary Jo Zawislak took charge of the guest book. Mrs. John Kovenz served the wedding cake and Mrs. Horace Thompson the punch.

The bride's cake was encircled with yellow rosebuds and maiden hair and white candles, tied with yellow rosebuds and ferns, stood at either side. Rosebuds also decorated the punch table, and branches of forsythia and greenery were used to decorate the parish hall.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a black satin coat dress with black accessories and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a navy blue taffeta dress with pink accessories. Their corsages were white gardenias.

The newlyweds traveled north to Portland for their honeymoon, and will live at 20 Laurel street in Medford. The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of Medford High school and the bridegroom is on the staff of the Medford hotel.

Family to Hold Open House for Medford Couple

All friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gebhard are cordially invited to attend an open house on Sunday, February 19, between 2 and 5 o'clock at their home on Merriman road, route 2, box 373, Medford. The event will observe the couple's 50th wedding anniversary. Hosts for the event will be the Gebhard's sons and daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gebhard of Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Quackenbush of Sams Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Lenn Grigsby of Central Point, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gebhard of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Gebhard were married at Long Island, Kansas, February 14, 1906. They have lived in Medford since 1910, and Mr. Gebhard has been engaged in ranching and orchard work for many years. Prior to acquiring his ranch and orchard, he was employed by Copco as a lineman for a number of years.

Nazarene Ceremony Weds Pair

News of interest here is the wedding January 28 at Pasadena, Calif., of Miss Adeline Newcomer and Richard E. Smith. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Newcomer of Phoenix, Ariz., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Smith, 31 Washington street, Medford. He is a student at Pasadena college and the bride is employed there in the registrar's office.

Parents of both the bride and bridegroom were present for the wedding which was held in Bresee Church of the Nazarene. About 200 persons attended the rites, read by the Rev. Richard Graley, of Lake Street Church of Nazarene, Glendale, Calif., a cousin of the bride. He was assisted by the Rev. Dave Sharp, Central Church of the Nazarene, Pasadena.

Baskets of red and white carnations decorated the altar and pew ends were marked with carnations and ribbons.

The bride wore a chantilly lace and nylon tulle gown over satin trimmed with sequins and made with chapel train. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown trimmed with sequins and pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, roses and orchids.

Her twin sister, Miss Madeline Newcomer, was the honor attendant. Miss Betty Tyree was bridesmaid and Mrs. Dean Shaw, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmatron. All are from Pasadena. Their princess style gowns were of red velvet and they carried bouquets of white carnations.

Lee Beaty was the best man and Larry Stamper and David Leech ushered. All are of Pasadena.

Music was furnished by Cliff Curl, organist, and Mrs. Dave Sharp and Jim Carden, soloists.

Both the mother of the bride and the bridegroom wore navy blue suits with white accessories and their corsages were of white orchids.

A reception was held at the church.

The bride is a graduate of Phoenix Union High school, Phoenix, Ariz., and attended Pasadena college. She was a member of her class council and a student body council member.

The bridegroom attended Medford High school and served for three years in the Air Force. He received his discharge in December, 1953, and since has attended the college where he is majoring in social service studies.

The couple is living at 1757 Woodbury road in Pasadena. They plan to visit here in the summer.

Miss Margo Lageson Wed To Robert James Reverman

An event of Saturday, February 4, was the marriage of Miss Margo Elizabeth Lageson to Robert James Reverman, held at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bride is the younger daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Burt L. Lageson, 34 Glen Oak court, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Reverman, Portland.

The Rev. Nicholas Deis, pastor of Sacred Heart church, celebrated the nuptial mass at 11 o'clock in the morning, and a wedding breakfast for 100 guests followed at Rogue Valley Country club.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of traditional white satin. It was fashioned with close-fitting bodice, long sleeves and small collar, and the full skirt ended in a train. Her fingertip veil fell from a cap of lace and seed pearls and she carried white orchids with stephanotis.

Mrs. James Vranizan, Portland, was honor attendant for her sister and the four additional attendants were Miss Sylvia McCabe and Miss Shirley Boitano, Medford students who came from Seattle for the wedding; Miss Jan Williams, Seattle, a sorority sister of the bride, and Mrs. William Herman, Medford, a cousin.

The attendants wore frocks of coral red velvet with matching pill-box hats, and their flowers were shell pink carnations. Gay Kinzel, Portland, was flower girl. Her velvet dress matched that worn by the other attendants.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, and Larry Reverman, Portland, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Don Reverman, Medford, brother of the bridegroom; Henry Carey, Eugene, Robert Luckenbaugh and Dan Peixotto, both Portland.

Bruno Pellegrini was at the church organ, and vocalists were Jack Cooney and Don Reverman, the bridegroom's brother.

The bride's mother wore an ensemble of fawn-colored peau de soie with matching hat for the wedding and reception, and the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of wedgewood blue with pink hat. Their corsages were of orchids.

For the breakfast-reception Mrs. James Vranizan Sr., poured coffee and Mrs. Gerald Kinzel, Mrs. Don Reverman and Mrs. Loren Soderlund poured punch. Mrs. Maude Davis, Klamath Falls, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Nell Holmes, Portland, aunt of the bridegroom, assisted.

Pink carnations and variegated ivy decorated the tables. Here for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents, his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Reverman and children, Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Kinzie, Aimee and Gay, the bride's brother-in-law, James Vranizan, Jerry Cash, Charles Johnson, Dan Harris, Kenneth Matson and Jerry Walker, all Portland; Mrs. Esther Nokleby, San Francisco; Bill Heath and Jack Morse, Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Reverman are living in Portland, where the bridegroom is a sales trainee with the Fairbanks Morse company. The bride attended the University of Washington, where she affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority, and later attended Northwestern Business college, Portland. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and is an Air Force veteran.

Teacher Named President of College Alumni

Ashland—Miss Elayne Leach, formerly of Medford and now a teacher in the school at Condon, Ore., was elected president of Southern Oregon Alumni association for the coming year at the annual meeting. She succeeds Lee Hayes, Eagle Point.

Fellow officers for the coming year are Roland Parks, principal of the Ashland High school, who succeeds Bruce Metzger, Medford, as vice-president; and Arthur Phillips, SOC assistant professor of education, who was voted secretary-treasurer to replace Mrs. Ted Schopf, Talent, who served in that capacity last year.

Miss Leach was graduated from Medford high school in 1950 and enrolled at Southern Oregon college in the fall of that year where she became known for her work in the Student Council, Future Teachers of America, Model United Nations and many other activities.

She began teaching in Eugene in the fall of 1955, and is at present teaching third grade in the Condon school. During the summers Miss Leach serves as a camp counselor and gives swimming instruction. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leach, Jacksonville-Central Point road.
