

Butte Falls Couple Honored on Golden Wedding Anniversary

Butte Falls — Many friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stowell, Butte Falls, on February 1 to celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Both are natives of Jackson county.

Mrs. Lee Sheppard and Mrs. Kizzie Edmondson, honored Mr. and Mrs. Stowell at a dinner in the Medford hotel dining room. Mrs. Stowell wore a pale blue suit, with black accessories and a gold colored orchid.

The celebration at home came as a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Stowell. Mrs. Floyd Mattern baked a four-tier wedding cake, elaborately decorated with yellow bells.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mattern and daughter Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogers, Mr.

and Mrs. Keith Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Polk Smith, Mrs. Kizzie Edmondson, Viola Holm and Jerry Price.

The Stowells were married February 1, 1906, in the old Jacksonville courthouse, which now houses the Jacksonville museum, by Judge George W. Dunn.

Judge Dunn, who later became a state senator, now resides in Ashland.

Their children are Arthur Stowell, Concord, Calif.; Mrs. Evelyn Kelly, Eagle Point; Mrs. Myrtle Williams, Grants Pass; Tom Stowell, Grants Pass and Mrs. June Smith, Fort Clayton, Panama.

Mr. and Mrs. Stowell have lived in Butte Falls for 20 years. Mrs. Stowell was born in Applegate, and Mr. Stowell was born near the present site of Dodge bridge.

A family reunion is scheduled to be held in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stowell, Butte Falls, were honored February 1 at a party which observed their golden wedding anniversary. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stowell were born in Jackson county, and they were married in the old Jacksonville courthouse by Judge George W. Dunn, who now lives in Ashland.
