

Hats Essential For New Styles, Says Designer

Paris—Hats are a "must" this year in order to complete the new fashion costume. This is the word from Christian Dior, who recently revealed his new "Ligne Fleche" (arrow line) apparel silhouette.

"That Hat," he stated, "will again be necessary this year in order to complete the new spring outfits and the woman who desires to be well dressed for all occasions will require a hat wardrobe to complement the variety of new styles of apparel."

"Women," Mr. Dior continued, "who want to be attractive will not go without hats. They are very wrong indeed if they deprive themselves of one of the essentials of charm and seduction."

At the opening of Dior's new spring and summer collection, hats were prominent with the bulky hat look carried over from last year and favored again this year. There is much use of feathers, flowers and veils. Shown were many cloches with deep brims together with deep bloused crowns.

South Dakota Woman Holds Sewing Record
Desmet, S. D. — (U.P.) — Ten thousand aprons sewn in five years is the gigantic record of DeSmet's "apron lady," Mrs. Bernard Peterson.

Mrs. Peterson began making aprons as therapy while recuperating from a serious operation. Most of her work was given to friends. Then purchase orders started coming. Now she has more orders than she can handle.

Mrs. Peterson also is a consistent blue ribbon winner at the South Dakota state fair.
