Medford high's Black Tornado blew up its fighting fury Friday night and guaranteed itself a trip to the Oregon Class A-1 prep basketball tournament.

Spurred by the sparkling all-around performance of Johnny Foust, the Medfordites blazed aggressively to a bulging early advantage, controlled the backboards and shot at better than .500 average for three quarters to smash the Ashland Grizzlies 72 to 59. Victory preserved the Tornado's unbeaten string in the Southern Oregon conference and represented Medford's seventh win in the loop.

The triumph was coupled with Klamath Falls' 51 to 49 nod to assure Medford of its second consecutive state play-off jaunt and its third in four seasons. Friday outcomes left only Medford and Klamath in the league pennant running. But Ashland and Grants Pass still had slim chance to get one of the conference's two state hassle places.

Foust, who has had No. 6 role with the Tornado much of the season, started Friday and played all except the last 2½ minutes of the game. He was the top man in rebounding, second high scorer and teamed with his mates in consistently busting up Ashland's "random" offense.

Dick Copple along with Foust was in the thick of the scuffle under the boards and the two had considerable assistance from Bob Tisdell and Dick McLaughlin. Tisdell topped all scoring with 23 points and paired with steady Lloyd Cearley to lead Medford's ballhawking game.

The Tornado tallied when the tussle was a half-minute old, collected seven markers before Ashland was able to plunk the ball through the hoop, never trailed in the conflict and was in front by 10 points or better most of the night.

Giving the Lithians scant opportunities to shoot while piling in 10 field goals of their own, the Medfordites blazed to a 28 to 11 first quarter spread. Ashland got only two field buckets in the panel. Twenty-three points was the widest spread held by the Tornado and the

Southern Cal Overwhelms WSC 85-54

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Southern California overwhelmed Washington State college, 85-54, Saturday to take a firm hold on second place in the Pacific Coast conference.

It was the second straight walkaway win for SC over the Cougars. The victory, in a regionally televised game before only 600 pan-Pacific auditorium fans, gave Southern California an 8-2 PCC record. UCLA, which played Stanford last night, is undefeated.

Forward Jack Dunne topped SC scorers with 15 points. Larry Beck had 14 for Washington State. Three SC players—Jack Lovrich, Danny Rogers and Ken Pearson—each dumped in 11 points.

After Washington State took a 4-0 lead in the first 20 seconds of play on a field goal and two free throws by Dick Rask, Southern California ran up 16 straight points for a 16-4 lead after five minutes. By halftime SC led 47-24.

Both teams substituted freely in the one-sided game. SC connected on 30 of 79 field goal tries for a 30 per cent shooting average. Washington State made good on 21 of 70 attempts for a 30 per cent average. At the free throw line, however, SC sank 25 of 33 shots.

SC domination of both backboards and its pressing man-to-man defense made up for the team's unimpressive field goal shooting average.

Willamette Gets 100,000 Chinook

Portland — (U.P.) — Mike Hoy, director of the Oregon Fish commission, said Saturday that about 100,000 fall Chinook salmon will be released in the Willamette river in the immediate future.

The fish, from Bonneville hatchery stock, are 14 months old. Hoy said the commission was especially interested in them because of its eagerness to reestablish a Chinook run above Willamette falls.

He said that Portland's new sewage disposal plant had increased oxygen content of the Willamette by 2.2 per cent and that the river should be jammed with returning Chinooks in 1960.

first of these gaps came early in the second period at 34 to 11 and 36 to 13.

Then Medford went without a point for 4½ minutes. The Lithians hit a couple of fielders and the Tornado went into a control game, attempting to pull Ashland out of its zone defense. Medford lost balls and fouls enabled the Grizzlies to get another field goal and five gift shots which hacked the loop leaders' margin to 36 to 24.

Cearley canned a long cast and Lance Locke and Gene Parent came back with goals to shrink the Medford edge to 38 to 28. Copple connected from

CRATER TRIPS PHOENIX IN ROGUE LEAGUE RACE

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Phoenix	5	1	.833
Crater	3	3	.500
Eagle Point	4	5	.444
Illinois Valley	0	9	.000

Crater's Comets rudely jolted the Rogue League basketball title clinching ambitions of Phoenix high by upsetting the Pirates at Phoenix Friday 72 to 54.

The loss was the first in nine league encounters for the Pirates who still maintained a two-game command in the chase for the A-2 circuit flag. Crater, with still a chance for the toga after the Friday brush, bolstered its hopes too of getting at least second position in the final standings.

In the Rogue contention Eagle Point stayed a couple tangles behind the second spot Comets by squeezing Illinois Valley 41 to 39.

Crater overcame a 15 to 25 first quarter deficit to outplay and spill the Pirates. A big night at the free throw line and a defense which stopped Phoenix center Bill Madden were the big aids in the decision. The Comets climbed on top by the half 35 to 34 and pushed away to 57 to 42 in the third stanza.

Getting 46 opportunities on the free line, the Comets made good on 32 while the Pirates, who fouled more and got fouled less, recorded 16 to 28. Crater also had the edge in field buckets 20 to 19.

A four-man zone defense which, however, played Madden man-to-man, paid off for Crater. The Pirate center fouled out early in the third quarter.

Nathan Douthit of Crater was scoring leader with 24 points. Fred Herrman put in 17 and Bob Gray 15. Jim Korth was high man for Phoenix with 13.

The Eagles were behind 22 to 16 at the half as Illinois Valley made a try for its first victory this season. In the third quarter Eagle Point went ahead 32 to 28. IV had the Eagle edge hacked to 40 to 39 in the closing stages but missed a number of free tosses in that portion of

Logart Gets Nod in Bout

New York — (U.P.) — Young Isaac Logart, who wouldn't lead, and veteran Ramon Fuentes, who wanted to wrestle, blamed each other for Friday night's dull welterweight contenders' fight in which Isaac won a split 10-round decision.

Logart, of Camaguey, Cuba, declared that stocky, muscular Fuentes of Los Angeles "held my arms every time I tried to use my punching combinations," during the lack-luster TV-radio bout at Madison Square Garden. Tossed Out Fuentes, who weighed 147 pounds to Ike's 146, charged that "Logart just wouldn't lead. If I hadn't done all the leading, there wouldn't have been any fight at all."

At times it seemed they might suffer the same fate as welterweights Ruby Gwin of Cleveland and Reybon Stubbs of Pittsburgh, who were tossed out of the ring "for lack of effort" in the fourth round of a scheduled six-round preliminary Friday night.

The 10th session was the only torrid one in the bout. Logart's superior speed enabled him to have an advantage in the spotty exchanges. There were no knock-downs although Fuentes' knees were buckled in the sixth.

the corner for 40 to 28 at half-time.

The spread was 40 to 30 when Harry Johnson drove in for Ashland in the opening seconds of the third session. But Medford, with Tisdell getting six, surged for 14 points while Locke put in a fielder for Ashland and Medford's gap was up to 22 points at 54 to 32. Interceptions and fast breaks helped the rally and six of the points were on free shots.

Medford with eight field scores rolled up 22 points in the quarter, while the Grizzlies with only three buckets from the field totalled 11 counters and the chukker ended with Medford

Subdistrict AAU Tourney Plans Change

Revised plans for the AAU subdistrict basketball play-off have been announced by Carl Bengston, district commissioner, and Dick Phillips, president of the Medford Independent Basketball league.

First round games will be contested Saturday, February 18, at Rogue River high and Sunday, February 19, at Medford senior high. Winners in those two sets of contests will play in the second round on the following Monday in the Medford gym. Finals on Tuesday, February 21, will be at Medford, Grants Pass or Ashland, depending on which teams are contending.

Prospect, YMCA and Company A of the National Guard are entries from the MIBL. Three teams from the Grants Pass league, Yellow Cab of Medford and the Ashland Raiders are other entries.

Games at Rogue River on Saturday will match Company A and Grants Pass No. 1 and Ashland and Grants Pass No. 2. In the Sunday skirmishes here Prospect will tackle Grants Pass No. 3 and Yellow Cab will play YMCA.

Plans were altered from an earlier announcement because a Medford court was not available next Saturday night.

Play-off for the southern Oregon region title will be held here on February 25 and 26 with entries from three areas.

Question of eligibility for the AAU play-offs has been cleared up by Bengston.

He said that coaches and professional athletes, except basketball players who have actually played for money this season, are eligible to participate up through the Oregon division (state tourney) finals. Any team which goes to the national tourney will have to adhere to the stricter AAU regulations.

Personnel of the Ashland Raiders club gave rise to the question. A number of coaches are on the squad.

Zilly Appointed Notre Dame Football Coach

South Bend, Ind. — (U.P.) — The appointment of Jack Zilly, former player for the Los Angeles Rams and the Philadelphia Eagles, to the Notre Dame football coaching staff, was announced Saturday by head coach Terry Brennan.

Zilly, 34, will be mainly concerned with tutoring the ends, replacing John Druze who went to Marquette university as head coach a week ago, Brennan said.

leading 62 to 39. Tisdell and Copple were charged with their fourth fouls in the concluding minutes of the canto and bowed out of action then with Ed Reinking and Larry Perkins filling the spots.

Ashland outscored the Tornado 20 to 10 in the last stanza with Johnson getting four of the goals mostly on driver shots. Coach Frank Roelandt dipped into his Medford bench and reserve forces finished the fray.

Dick Puhl, javvee star, entered for his first varsity action. Mike Stearns picked off five rebounds for Medford in the closing quarter.

Foust followed Tisdell's 23 counters with 19. Each had six field goals. Tisdell got 11 and Foust seven free tallies. Johnson was the only Lithian with more than three field goals. He had six for a 12-point count. Locke was Ashland high man with 15 and Dave Woods had 13. Each got nine free points.

The Tornado had 26 field buckets to 16 for Ashland and a night's average of 47.3. Mark for the first three panels was .548. At the free line Medford made 20 of 28 and Ashland 27 for 41.

In board retrieving Foust got 12 and Copple fought for 11. McLaughlin and Tisdell each had eight. On numerous occasions the Tornadoes tipped the casaba until they had control and on other occasions when they didn't get full control they earned at least a held ball. Medford advanced under the boards was 55 to 23. Parent recovered 10 rebounds for Ashland.

Medford's tall Neil Plumley missed action because of his ankle sprain and Ashland's Stuart Baker, who has been on the sick list, saw little service.
