History, Accomplishments Of PTA Reviewed by Group

Three skits were presented at the Founder's day meeting of Lincoln Parent-Teacher association February 9.

The first skit dramatized the first parent-teacher organization in Oregon, started before Oregon was a state. Organized by six mothers, all connected with the Whitman mission, it was founded in 1838, and by 1842 seven others had joined.

Named the Columbia Maternal association, it emphasized, in the preamble to its constitution that "sensible of the evils that beset the young mind," that they, the founders, "agree to form ourselves into an association for the purpose of adopting such rules as are best calculated to assist us in the right performance of our maternal duties."

Taking part in the skit were Mrs. J. J. Jones, Mrs. Austin Caldwell, Miss Anna Laura Honts, Mrs. Kenneth Bramhall, Mrs. Roland Hogue and Mrs. Jack Edmonds.

The second skit presented the work done by Miss Viola Orschild, a teacher of the Couch school, Portland, to aid in the passage of the crippled children's education law. Passed in 1923, this bill provided for the education of mentally normal, physically handicapped children, through the visits of certified teachers to the homes of these children. Mrs. John Lusk and Mrs. Bernice Viles took part in this skit.

The third skit depicted the arguments aroused over the "Safe and Sane Fourth" legislation. Presented in the form of a PTA meeting, the audience was included in the participants. Starting in 1911 the Oregon Congress of Parent-Teachers worked for 39 years to see the passage of this legislation. Taking an active part in the skit were Mr. and Mrs. John Benson, Kenneth Bramhall, Roy Gilbertson, S. J. Fagone, Mrs. Mary Coffin, and Mrs. Hi Martin.

Mrs. Eric de Place spoke briefly on other legislation supported by the Oregon Congress since 1905. Listed were federal aid for kindergartens and elementary schools; a pure food law; better juvenile courts, and more educational facilities for people interested in this work; laws to protect working children under 16 years of age; a Bureau of Public Health and a Bureau of Education; the mother's pension bill; education of the adult blind; loan textbooks for grammar schools; better pay for teachers; a minimum of four years college work and a bachelor's degree for regular certification of teachers in elementary schools; safe operation of school buses; and the basic school support bill.

Mrs. Dee Newton introduced the past presidents present and lighted a candle representing the accomplishments of the Lincoln PTA while each one was in office. Introduced first was Mrs. E. E. Wilson, a charter member of Lincoln PTA, although she was not in office until 1931-32. During her term of office the trees around the school were planted.

Mrs. Hi Martin, in office in 1951-52, said that was the year the PTA first started buying musical instruments for the school. Now one is added each year by the unit. Mrs. John Benson, 1952-53, stated that the PTA during her term worked to erect a fence around the playground. S. J. Fagone, serving two terms, 1953-54, and 1954-55, spoke of the effect of safety committee put forth to secure stop signs and stop lights near the school.

Mrs. Newton was president for 1936-37 and 1937-38 when the Lincoln unit was not affiliated with the Oregon Congress, and she looks upon the unit's reaffiliation as her biggest accomplishment while in office.

Elected to the nominating committee were Miss Anna Laura Honts, Mrs. William Johnson, and Mrs. Virgil Stickley. Revision of the unit by-laws was completed.

John Weber reported on the work being done to secure a site for the new juvenile detention home. Kenneth Bramhall, cubmaster for Pack 2, announced that more den mothers were needed.

Mrs. Austin Caldwell announced that the annual carnival will be held in the school gym February 17. Plans have been made for 24 games and booths, and also planned is a sideshow featuring can-can girls. Miss Anna Laura Honts room was the room count.

Hospitality committee was Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. Ed Bartolomei and Mrs. Walter McMahan. Serving were Mrs. Jack Fletcher, Mrs. E. V. Hurt, Mrs. Howard Pierce, Mrs. Bartolomei, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Jack Edmonds.

The flag was presented by Girl Scout Troop 72, and the invocation was given by John Weber.

School Announces Classes in Clothing For Rogue River

Rogue River — An adult education class in clothing problems is being offered in the grade school library of the Rogue River schools. The class will be taught by Mrs. Orma Farnham under the auspices of the Vocational Educational department of the State Department of Education and is a general sewing class. The hours will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Fridays, starting February 17.

The fee for the course is prorated according to the number enrolled so it cannot be definitely announced. However, it will probably be not less than $6 for the course, it was said, and the cost of materials used will be in addition to this fee.

Prospective enrollees who desire additional information may call Mrs. Orma Farnham at her home in Grants Pass, Greenwood 6-5131.

The grade school library is located on the second floor of the old elementary building in Rogue River.

If sufficient interest is shown in a cake decorating class, one may be offered evenings in the home economics room of the high school. Those interested should contact Mrs. Farnham at the above phone number.

Mrs. Albert Hofman Hostess for Meeting Of Butte Falls Group

Butte Falls — Mrs. Albert Hofman was hostess for a meeting of Butte Falls Home Extension unit February 3. Mrs. Joanne Weatherford, county home extension agent, gave the lesson on "Identification and Care of New Fabrics."

Mrs. John Rodgers was a guest.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Don Smith, March 1 at 10:30 a.m. The meeting will be in connection with a lampshade workshop for March.

Members will receive letters concerning the meeting and others interested are asked to contact Mrs. Earl Remsen or Mrs. Don Smith, project leader.

Unit Plans Study Of Constitution

Mrs. Ogden Kellogg, Gold Hill, will be discussion leader for a meeting of the morning study unit of Medford League of Women Voters to be held Wednesday, February 15. It is set for 9:45 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Fred Carr, Florence avenue.

The topic will be "Revision of the Oregon Constitution" with special attention given to county governing bodies in the frame work of state government.

Central Point Unit To Hold Meeting

Central Point—Central Point Home Extension unit will meet Wednesday, February 15, at 10:30 a.m. in the Grange hall.

Members are asked to wear hats made out of kitchen utensils, and these will be sold to provide funds for improvement of Bigham hall.

The "eye opener" will be a 4-H club demonstration on how to wash sweaters. This is also the month of "pennies for friendship" it is announced.

The project will be "The Art of Dressing" and will be given by Mrs. Maynard McKay and Mrs. Arthur Strauss. Mrs. Arnold Bohnert will demonstrate how to wear a sari, the national dress of women of Ceylon. Hostesses for the meeting are to be Mrs. Paul Snook and Mrs. Glen Branch.

Grace Kelly's Wedding Gown To Be Simple But Elegant

By ALINE MOSBY United Press Writer Hollywood — (U.P.) — Grace Kelly's wedding dress will be "simple but elegant," long, white with high neckline and long sleeves — and made by a tiny, brown-haired woman who's the most spotlighted dress designer in the world today.

MGM's famed gownmaker, Helen Rose, was chosen over the world's top couturieres to fashion the wedding gown Miss Kelly will wear when she marries Prince Rainier in mid-April in Monaco.

Miss Rose has had other accomplishments that may seem more worthy. She won an Oscar for "The Bad and The Beautiful." She designed costumes for the Ice Follies for 16 years.

Dinner Dance Set for March By Ruch PTA

Ruch—A dinner dance to be held in early March was planned by Ruch Parent-Teacher association members when they met February 3. Mrs. Boyd Gibson was named chairman of the dance committee with Mrs. Robert Webb, Mrs. George Sample and Mrs. Buford Wells to assist her.

President Rex Davis expressed appreciation to the group for assistance in a March of Dimes project and also extended appreciation to those of the Applegate community for their support. The amount of $248 was taken in through ball games and concessions provided by the combined efforts of the two communities and was given to the March of Dimes fund.

Because games sponsored to raise the money were popular it is planned to have further ones. Applegate and Ruch women played volleyball at Applegate February 10 and basketball and volleyball games between the grade school children of the two vicinities also were played.

The Footlighters, civic theater group, will supply the program for the April Parent-Teacher association set for April 5. The play which they will present is entitled "Random Target," which deals with the aggressive behavior of an 11-year-old child.

Eagle Point Club Has Dinner Party

Eagle Point — Members of Eagle Point Federated Garden club entertained their husbands at a no-host dinner at their last meeting held in the Grange hall. Mrs. Ted Flury had charge of table decorations which were in the Valentine theme. Mrs. Glenn Hale was chairman of the dinner committee.

Mrs. Eve Prentice, Medford, presented the Eagle Point members of her accordion band in several selections and Earnest Dahack, showed colored slides of different varieties of flowers from his gardens near Tiller.

Mrs. Jessie Tycer, Mrs. J. N. Fortin and Mrs. Jake Brown were special guests for the evening.

The meeting for March 7 will be at the home of Mrs. John Huffman. Members are asked to take a favorite catalog.

Arrangement of the month will be prepared by Mrs. Wilford Davies.

To Meet

Roxy Ann Home Economics club will meet Wednesday, February 15, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. O. Myhre, 1070 Spring street. Cohostess will be Mrs. Ellis.

Shady Cove Group Announces Dance To Benefit Hall

Shady Cove—A St. Patrick's dance is planned by the auxiliary to the Steelhead post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and proceeds will go toward a new floor for the VFW hall at Shady Cove.

The decision was made at a meeting February 3 when several reports were made by committee women. Mrs. Jim Cassal reported on visitations to Camp White and said that 497 hours had been spent there by auxiliary members during the past year.

An article on membership was read by the chairman, Mrs. Jim Hopkins, and a civilian defense report was made by Mrs. Dale Sawyer who announced that volunteers for sky watch duty are needed.

A discussion was held on possibilities of a course in either home nursing or first aid.

The annual poppy day is scheduled for May 25 and 26 and Mrs. Cassal named captains for the sale. They are Mrs. Harry Birch, Mrs. Frances Miller, Mrs. Jim Cassal and Mrs. Russell Stelle.

It was voted to award a three-year pin to Mrs. Ed Leaming for three years' service as treasurer of the auxiliary.

Several members of the post joined the auxiliary as guests during a part of the meeting and refreshments were served.

If you are planning to spruce up a room with new wallpaper you should be interested in a pre-pasted type that does everything but apply itself to the wall. The wallpaper, to which paste has been previously applied, is fitted into a specially designed folding carton with a metal rod, which holds the roll of paper and feeds it out as needed. The carton is filled with water and the householder merely rolls the paper out and applies it to the wall.

Scholarship Fund Topic for Zonta; Donation Voted

Zonta club members heard a report by Mrs. Hazel Platz on the Amelia Earhart scholarship winners at their noon lunch on Thursday at the Jackson hotel. The Amelia Earhart scholarship is the service project of Zonta international to which most clubs contribute. It is named for the famed aviatrix, a Zontian of New York, who disappeared somewhere in the Pacific while on a flight around the world.

The scholarship has been granted annually since 1938 to a woman for advanced graduate study in the field of aeronautics.

The club, during the business session, voted to give $300 to the Rogue Valley Memorial hospital for equipment.

The next meeting will be a treasury dinner at the home of Mrs. Pearl Robinson.

Valentine Party Set for Tuesday By Duplicate Club

Medford Duplicate Bridge club will hold a valentine party Tuesday, February 14, as part of the club's weekly session at Moose hall. Members will invite guests, and anyone interested in playing duplicate bridge is invited to attend.

Mrs. Richard Milestone and Miss Isobel Stuart were hostesses for last week's meeting.

Last week's north-south winners were H. J. Boyd and Roy Pruitt, first, 85½ points; Miss Stuart and John Solheim, second, 80½; B. L. Sanderson and George Rode, third, 75.

East-west winners were Don Reverman and James Polski, first, 73½; Mrs. Bernard Hughes and Mrs. Boyd, second, 72½; Asa Kimball and John Schwartz, third, 66 points.
