Quake Rocks Tokyo Causing Minor Damage

Tokyo — (U.P.) — The stiffest earthquake since World War II rocked this sprawling city of 8,000,000 early today, injuring two Japanese and causing minor damage to buildings.

The quake opened a one-inch crack between the main building of the "earthquake proof" Imperial hotel and a recently erected annex and buckled the sidewalk outside one of Tokyo's biggest office buildings. The tremor also toppled several chimneys.

FREIGHT LINE SOUGHT

Omaha — (U.P.) — Pacific Inter-mountain Express Co., Oakland, Calif., has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to acquire Union Freightways, headquartered here.

Governor Has No Governing To Do

Madison, Wis.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Glen Wise became Wisconsin's first woman governor in history but couldn't find any governing to do.

Mrs. Wise, Wisconsin secretary of state, became acting governor when the governor and lieutenant governor both left town for the day. It was Lincoln's Birthday, however, and all state offices were closed.

Cooperation and support of other businesses and organizations seeking to secure flood control in the Rogue basin will be discussed by the Rogue chapter of the Oregon Licensed Beverage association tomorrow night.

Association members, who will hold a dinner meeting in the Sequin club at Grants Pass, will hear a discussion of action needed to obtain flood control by men who have been active in that field.

W. J. Sannes, state president of the OLBA, will speak to the group on plans of the state organization to provide aid for disaster-relief in stricken areas.

A regular business meeting will be held following discussion of flood relief. Edward Dahack, chapter president, has urged all members be present.

BAD PENNY
Beaver Dam, Wis.—(U.P.)—A copper token, given out by the O.M. Hardware store here in 1863, returned home after 93 years. Paydon John, Britton, S.D., sent the advertising token—which could easily be mistaken for a penny—to the chamber of commerce.

GREEN vs RED
Winchester, Mass.—(U.P.)—The five-man board of selectmen debated for a month before voting to paint the town's parking meters green instead of red. The three who voted for green were Dartmouth (Big Green) alumni. The two who voted red were Harvard (Crimson) men.

Portland Airport Allocation Approved

Portland — (U.P.) — Official notice of a $1,000,000 allocation for improvement of Portland International airport was received yesterday from the Civil Aeronautics administration.

John J. Winn Jr., manager of the Port of Portland, said the money—with at least an equal amount appropriated by the port—must be under contract by June 30.

Plans and specifications of the airport must be approved by the CAA before bids can be asked.

Commissioners said this allocation, combined with one they hope to receive next fiscal year, would enable construction of the new airport terminal as a unit instead of in separate projects.

Around Hollywood

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Hollywood is a-flutter today over its newest headline-making beauty—a South American actress who's so rich she makes the local film stars look like paupers.

Aline Mosby into town four weeks ago and dazzled the film colony.

She moved into a $125,000 Beverly Hills mansion. She bought the $10,000 gold-painted car that Judy Holliday drove for the movie, "The Solid Gold Cadillac."

She just whipped back from Paris with a new $100,000 wardrobe. En route she picked up one of Aga Khan's diamond rings for $185,000. And on a dull afternoon she bought an apartment house on swank Wilshire Blvd. here.

Columnist Visits Star

After hearing the grapevine buzz on this mysterious beauty, I visited her home to see what the town's richest star is like. Leonora turned out to be an heiress from a wealthy Brazilian family and the star of 16 Mexican films.

"I would like to act in pictures here. I love to act. If I don't have any good offers, I will produce my own picture," she said calmly.

"I have been offered black-and-white films here but I wish to appear now only in color. And not with just any mans. Only with Marlon Brando or Gregory Pack. High-class mans."

Leonora is from Therezobolas, a small town "like Santa Barbara" near Rio de Janeiro. Her rancher-father, she said, subdivided his large holdings when "a gambling hotel came in and the land price went up."

Actress Makes Records

At 16 she left home to travel. In Mexico City "I met producers at a party and they put me in

Sew-Easy Ensemble

The vivacious actress, who says she's 23, also scored as a popular singing star on Mexican records.

Her business manager says he's swamped all day with requests from various wolves and promoters for her phone call, but he's keeping her under wraps.

"I don't know many people yet," Leonora explained with a sensual shrug. "I haven't gone out at all. I don't want to for a while. In South America a girl who goes out with different men has not a good reputation. I understand here it's different—if you go out with one man you don't!"
