

Ministerial Group Plans Services For Easter Season

The Medford Ministerial association at its Tuesday meeting outlined plans for the Easter season, and completed plans for a directory of churches to be published soon.

The special services committee reported that noon-day services will be held during Holy week from Monday through Friday at 12:30 to 12:55 p.m. at the Craterian theatre.

A Good Friday service from 12 noon to 3 p.m. will be held at the First Methodist church. At 2:15 p.m., two services will be held for students of the junior high schools. For the students of McLoughlin junior high the service will be held at the Church of the Nazarene. For the students of Hedrick junior high the service will be held at the Eastwood Baptist church.

The senior and junior high schools will not be dismissed for the services but all students who wish to attend the services may do so by presenting request from the parents.

The program of the Ministerial association was concluded by a film on marriage counseling and a period of discussion led by Mary Vandenberg, counseling consultant.

Youth Needed for Missionary Fields

Methodist mission projects in many areas overseas will be seriously undermined this year, unless there is a decided response in the next two months by college seniors and graduates as term missionaries, personnel secretaries of the board of missions of the Methodist church announced this week.

The board is seeking 25 young men and 25 young women who will serve three years overseas as missionaries to Japan, Korea, countries of southeast Asia and Latin America. Mid-May is the final date for processing applications and a concerted effort is being made this month and extend into March to fill the vacancies. Only 12 have been obtained to date, seven men and five women, it was announced. Most of the needs are in fields of education, evangelism and social work.

Persons interested in the program are asked to write at once to the Office of Missionary Personnel, 150 Fifth ave. New York 11, N.Y.
