

Retirement Home Director To Speak

Walter Higgins, executive director of the Rogue Valley Retirement Home, Inc., will speak at the First Methodist church Sunday, Feb. 19 at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

Mr. Higgins, a Methodist layman, was formerly associated with the Willamette View manor in Portland, and he will describe the need for the type of home soon to be constructed in Medford.

The Rogue Valley manor will be built entirely from the fees of those who purchase its services, and no solicitations of money from the community or from church members is made at any time.

Dr. J. Thomas Dixon, associate minister of the church, will preside at the services. The Children's choir, under the direction of Mrs. George Sloniger and the Chancel choir, under the direction of Mrs. C. R. Adamson, will sing and the soloist for both services will be Mrs. George Sloniger.

The first communion service to be held in the newly opened Meeker Memorial chapel will be at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 19 with Dr. J. Thomas Dixon officiating.

Senior CE Members To Conduct Worship

Young people of the Senior Christian Endeavor will conduct the worship service Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the Friends church. Donny Ditch, CE president, will preside, and Kay Johnson will be song leader.

Musical numbers will be a trumpet-trombone duet by Jack and Jim Hamilton, solo by Ken Kumasawa, and a mixed quartet, Pat Leek, Kay Johnson, Gary Smith, and Ralph Waldo. Devotional talks will be given by Donny Ditch, Sonja Hansen, Ken Kumasawa, Nadine Brood, Gary Smith and Pat Leek.

Sunday school will be held at 9:45 a.m. Department superintendents are Dr. Wayne Roberts, adults, Deane Roberts, intermediate, Mrs. R. B. Langston, primaries, and Mrs. Eunice Jones, beginners.

Pastor Clynton Crisman will speak at the 11 a.m. worship. Three Christian Endeavor societies meet at 6:30 p.m. for those in grade school and high school.

Speaker Announced For School Rally

Evangelist William L. Devereaux will speak at a Sunday school rally at 9:45 a.m., Sunday at the Medford Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st.

The rally is being held in conjunction with a revival campaign. A Bible will be given to the person responsible for bringing the most visitors to the Sunday school.

Visitors are invited. Those who need transportation may arrange for it by calling telephones 3-4244 or 2-4292.

The Rev. Devereaux will speak at both the service at 11 a.m. and at the evangelistic rally at 7:30 p.m.

The missionary and his family are in Medford on furlough from their mission field in India. The Rev. Mr. Redding is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Redding of Medford. The family will attend the services and the Rev. Mr. Redding will tell of experiences in their field.

75,220 Oregonians Receive Salk Shots

Portland — (U.P.) — The State Board of Health said today that about 75,220 Oregonians had received the two shots of Salk polio vaccine needed for basic protection.

In the first overall report on the results of the campaign which began last Spring, the department said an estimated 242,440 first, second and booster shots had been administered up to Feb. 1.

Dr. Harold M. Erickson, state health officer, said the figures were compiled for the U.S. Public Health service and were "rought estimates based on apparent consumption of vaccine rather than on reports from physicians.

The report indicated that less than one-fifth of Oregon's 510,000 eligible children under 15 and pregnant women had received their basic protection against polio.

NO MORE SHOVELING — Charlotte Mich. — (U.P.) — The National Bank of Charlotte has listed its cement snow scraper as a "surplus asset" after installing an electric heating system under its sidewalk.
