Daniels, new executive secretary, and other members of the executive staff from Salem will attend. Members of the Jo-Jac chapter and employees of Jackson county also are invited, according to chapter officers.

Fires Reported—Medford Fire department sent trucks to three fires reported Friday. At 11:15 a.m., firemen investigated smoke at the John Selby residence, 507 Haven st., and found the cause to be an overloaded fuse box. Damage was confined to wiring, firemen reported. At 9:42 p.m. a rural pumper was sent to the Donald Butts residence, 1380 Springbrook rd., where an overheated flue ignited the ceiling. Occupants had extinguished the blaze when firemen arrived. At 10:15 p.m. two trucks were sent to the William Jeffery residence, 521 Mayette st. where a house fire was reported when the occupants returned home and found the house full of smoke. The cause was found to be a deep-well cooker that had been left turned on. No damage was reported.

Two Are Injured In Traffic Crashes In County Friday

Two men were injured in accidents in Jackson county Friday, one when a car skidded and rolled over on Crater Lake highway near Eagle Point and another when he was struck by a car that failed to stop on icy ground.

Thomas C. Quail, 29, Shady Cove, was reported in good condition at Community hospital last night, following an accident at 8:45 p.m. Friday when he lost control of his car on Highway 62, near Eagle Point. Quail's car skidded and rolled over once, state police said. He received a broken jaw, and cuts and bruises.

C. F. Milligan, 29, of 149 Wisconsin way, received severe bruises Friday when he was struck by a car operated by Milo Blakely, Ashland, while burning trash behind the N and W Chain company, 3320 North Pacific highway.

Unable to Stop — Milligan said that Blakely had driven up behind him, apparently intending to frighten him, and had been unable to stop because of snow on the ground. Milligan was taken to Sacred Heart hospital by Medford Ambulance service.

A third accident about 8:45 a.m. Friday, also resulted from icy roads when a pickup operated by Lois Fay Kelley, 1629 Thomas rd., skidded at the intersection of Stewart ave. and Newton st.

While Miss Kelley was phoning for a wrecker her vehicle was struck by a vehicle operated by Roger Henry Flagg, route 2, box 13A, Jacksonville, according to state police. Police said damage to both vehicles was slight.

Buyer Returns—Lewis Wayburn, buyer for Mann's department store, has returned from a weeks' stay in San Francisco, where he purchased linens, bedding and fabrics for the store.

Son Born — A son, their first child, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bosworth in Eugene Friday, February 17. Mrs. Bosworth is the former Corinne Wing, daughter of Mrs. Cora Wing, 1020 Queen Anne ave., and her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bosworth Jr., 2425 East Main st. Mrs. Bosworth received her degree in education from the University of Oregon in December, and her husband will be graduated from the university in June, completing a five-year course in architecture.

Collisions Reported — Two drivers were cited to police court Saturday following traffic accidents. Paul Dale Vincent, 325 Effie st., was cited for no operator's license after a coupe he was driving and a station wagon operated by Earl Lionel Schliep, 523 South Ivy st., collided at Fourth st. and Central ave. Jack L. Potter, route 2, was cited for failure to yield right-of-way after his station wagon and a pickup truck driven by Albert W. Woodward, 1480 Ashland ave., collided at Third and Front sts. Also reported to police was a collision at Henry's Drive-in, North Riverside ave., involving a parked car registered to R. Norris, 2710 Connell ave., and another vehicle which failed to stop.

Jaycee Scrap Metal Drive Starts Today

The Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce will tour the city today for scrap metal and returnable bottles as part of a campaign to raise funds to maintain and rebuild the Lake O' Woods summer camp.

Residents are asked to place in front of their homes items containing cast iron, tin, steel, brass, aluminum, lead, copper and automotive batteries.

The camp provides underprivileged children with supervised recreation and summer camp facilities. Wilfred Doody, chairman of the scrap drive, said trucks will tour the city all day, but that any scrap not picked up can be donated by calling 3-4642 or 3-3788.

Area People Place Dogs in Roseburg Show, Other Events

Several local dog enthusiasts attended the first annual all-breed dog show and obedience trials of the Umpqua Kennel club at the Douglas county fairgrounds in Roseburg recently.

Southern Oregon Kennel club members who attended were Mrs. Nancy Siler, Eagle Point, whose Keeshond, Aiker Magic Star, was best of breed and 4th in the non-sporting group; Mrs. Frank Catalano, whose Weimaraner, Catalano's Burt, was best of breed; Mr. and Mrs. George Stacey, whose Collie, Merrie Oaks Knight of Folly, was reserve winner dog; and Mrs. Margaret Jones, whose Fox Terrier, Lucky Rena Pandora, handled by her daughter, Donna Lee Clark, was second in the open bitch class.

Other local dogs in competition were Nel-Top's Scuttlebutt, a boxer, owned by Neil and Thelma Thompson, Grants Pass; and Breatbr's Yankee Doodle Dandy, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morris, Medford.

Obedience Trials — In obedience trials, a Labrador retriever, Bear Ranch Sky Rocket, owned by R. W. Kirsher of Ashland, won first place in the utility dog competition, and placed second highest scoring dog in the trial.

Vigil Lass O'Tingwall Valley, a Shetland sheepdog, owned by Mrs. Margaret Jones of Medford, won first place in the novice B class.

Two Southern Oregon Junior members placed dogs in the novice A class. Patricia Lowery's English cocker spaniel, Hillcrest's Pepper, was second, and Edward Niow's German shepherd, Gretchen v Klugehaus, was third.

Miss Lowery also won the trophy for the highest scoring handler in the trial under 18 years old.

University Students Rescued From Island

Portland — (U.P.) — Three University of Oregon seniors Saturday were reluctant to talk about events leading up to their rescue Friday night on Lemon island in the Columbia river.

Their weak cries for help were heard at the Columbia River Yacht club and they were picked up shortly afterward by Herb Davis, caretaker of the club and by Deputy Sheriff Herb Thomas.

Apparently victims of a traditional "senior ride," the three had been snatched just before noon at Eugene, blindfolded and taken to the tiny island where they were left stranded in light clothing and with one blanket each.

Rescued were Jerry Farrow, David Talbot and Earl Culbertson.
