

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eugene Faber
(Brainerd photo)

Afternoon Marriage Ceremony Weds Ellen Brown, Ralph Faber

Ellen Mae Brown became the bride of Ralph Eugene Faber in 2 o'clock afternoon rites February 4 at the parsonage of the Apostolic Faith church. The Rev. C. W. Frost performed the ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Brown, 421 West Bartlett street, and Mr. Brown gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white knit suit with avocado green accessories and her corsage was an orchid.

Both had white rose corsages. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reid, Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Hien, Cold Beach.

The bride has lived her entire life in this vicinity and attended Medford schools. She has been employed at Nu Way cleaners.

The bridegroom is an electrical engineer with California Oregon Power company and is a graduate of the University of Colorado.

The couple honeymooned at Carmel, Calif.

Rites Held At Home For Couple

Prospect — Miss Evelyn Kitzmiller and Mel J. Hornbuckle, both of Prospect, were married February 3 at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Francis Hornbuckle, 811 East Jackson street. They made their wedding trip down the coast to San Francisco and now are living at the Jackson street address.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McCollum, Prospect.

The double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. D. E. Millard at 8 o'clock in the evening and was attended by members of the two families.

Mrs. Fred Bruegger, Eagle Point, a sister of the bridegroom, was the honor attendant and Mr. Bruegger, was best man for his brother-in-law.

Miss Barbara Bruegger, a niece of the bridegroom lighted the candles.

For her wedding the bride wore an imported wool beige cashmere suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

The honor attendant wore a knit suit of avocado green with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pale pink carnations.

The rooms were decorated with candelabra holding tapers and bouquets of daffodils and white stock.

Songs were furnished by the Rev. Mr. Millard, accompanied by Mrs. Carol Clymer.

The reception, given by the bridegroom's mother and his sister, Mrs. Fred Bruegger, also was held at the home. The refreshment table was decorated with white and yellow flowers.

The bride is employed at the Whistle Stop cafe and the bridegroom is employed at Timber Products corporation. Both attended Prospect high school.

Miss Jane Spradling
(Landis-Shangle)

Announce Trothal Jane Spradling And Rex W. Slye

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Spradling, 2680 Connell avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jane Spradling, to Rex W. Slye. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Slye, 1980 Table Rock road.

Miss Spradling is a Crater High school student and Mr. Slye is a former student of the same school. He is now in the United States Navy, and is stationed at Bainbridge, Md.

Guests Attend Valentine Party Of Bridge Club

A valentine party for members of the Medford Duplicate bridge club and their invited guests was held during a guest night observance of the group February 14. Red candles and hearts decorated the serving table.

Many former members and a number of new players to duplicate bridge attended.

Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain and Mrs. Dick Watson, visitors, scored 145½ points to win first place in the east-west position. Budd Gail, guest of Roy Pruitt, with Mr. Pruitt scored 141½ points for first place in north-south position.

The Mitchell movement was used and 12 tables were in play. Others to win in the north-south position were Mrs. George Coddling and Mrs. R. J. Conroy, 140; Mrs. H. J. Boyd and Raymond Wise, 132½; and Mrs. William Kennedy and Dick Finch, 128½.

Second place for the east-west position was taken by Miss Isabel Stuart and Mrs. W. L. Stark, 133; third, by Mrs. H. F. Nordwick and Mrs. Fred Purdin, 120, and fourth, Mrs. Leticia Kunz and T. J. Fuson, 113.

Farewell Party Held Last Week

A farewell party was given last Tuesday evening for Mrs. Reta Webb at the Ralph Clemans home, 105 Vancouver ave. Mrs. Webb now has left for Dallas, Tex., where she will engage in church work. Hostesses for the party were friends from Bethel Assembly of God. Mrs. Webb lived in this vicinity for nine years. She was presented a shower of handkerchiefs and about 25 attended the event.

Mrs. Lawrence Krause and Mrs. Joe Gossett assisted Mrs. Clemans.

Civic Music Concert Set Thursday

An advance program of the Winged Victory chorus, which will appear in concert Thursday, February 23 at 8 p.m., at the Medford Senior High school auditorium, indicates that the group will sing a full range of selections. Included will be religious and classical numbers as well as songs from popular Broadway productions.

This will be the fourth concert in the 1955-56 series of the Jackson County Civic Music association.

The group will include "Hallelujah" from the oratorio, "The Mount of Olives," by Beethoven in the first section of the program, and in that group also will be Schubert's "The Ompo-ten-ten" and others.

Their second group has selections composed by Jean Sibelius, Harvey Enders, Jean Villard and Rossini; and after intermission they will sing Part 4 of the "The Testament of Freedom," by Randall Thompson. The latter is taken from passages of writings by Thomas Jefferson, written during the American Revolution and the words are applicable to the world situation in 1943 when Mr. Thompson composed the works.

The latter part of the program continues with spirituals and closes with numbers from "The Desert Song," "South Pacific," and compositions by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

The fifth and final concert of the association series will be Tuesday, March 13 when Maurice Wilk, violinist, will appear here.

Oak Grove PTA To Hold Party

Oak Grove Parent-Teacher association has planned a dessert card party as this year's money making project. The party will be held Wednesday, February 22, with dessert to be served at 7:30 p.m.

Contract bridge, auction bridge, whist, pinocle and other games will be played. Each table will receive a prize, and each prize will be awarded on a "jump-about" basis. Some tables will receive a prize, and each prize for high score, some for low score and some on other points.

All PTA members and their friends are invited to attend.

Room representatives, headed by Mrs. Charles H. Ward, are in charge of the event.

Special Election Held by Bethel

Miss Bernice Skoog was named senior princess and Miss Glenda Kaye was appointed junior custodian in a special election held by Medford Bethel 14, Order of Job's daughters, Wednesday night in Medford Masonic temple.

Installation ceremonies were conducted by Miss Emily Masterson, queen.

The Misses Susan Hubbard and Sharon Blickenstaff were elected delegates to grand session to be held in Eugene.

Bethel members discussed organization of a drill team and all interested girls are asked to contact Mrs. Blickenstaff, telephone 2-8509.

Refreshments followed the meeting, and tables were decorated in the George Washington theme.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Harold Hubler, Mrs. Frank Salyers, Mrs. E. P. Atterbury, Mrs. Cecil Davis and the Misses Charlene Hubler, Lana Salyers, Mary Ellen Atterbury and Suzanne Davis.

Union Daughters Honor Member On 93rd Birthday

Mrs. Maude Holmes, who observed her 93rd birthday February 14, was honored at a card shower that day during a meeting of Elta Deuel Hubbs tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, of which she is a member. Refreshment table decorations were in keeping with Abraham Lincoln's birthday anniversary.

At the business session it was decided to place GAR markers on graves of all Union soldiers buried in local cemeteries and a practice was held for a visit of the department instructor, Mrs. Alma Klapotz, Albany, who is to be here in April.

College Players Plan Production Of "Kind Lady"

Ashland — "Kind Lady," a British thriller by Edward Chodorov will be presented by the SOC Players Friday and Saturday, February 24-25 in Churchill Hall auditorium. Dr. Dorothy Stolp, director, states that curtain time, is 8:15 p.m. for both evenings. She emphasized the importance of being prompt because of the nature of the play and the importance of the action at the beginning to the enjoyment of the production.

"Kind Lady," a successful stage play and motion picture by Chodorov, is based upon a story by the eminent novelist, Hugh Walpole.

The role of Mary Herries, the "kind lady," will be taken by Miss Audrey Russell, Myrtle Point, and the leader of the "undesirables" who invade the privacy of her home is Henry Abbott, played by Howard Cain, Klamath Falls.

Abbott's cohorts are Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, depicted by Miss Nancy Jennings, Medford; and Dan Dollarhide, Butte Falls; their daughter, Aggie, enacted by Miss Mary Elliott, Ashland; a doctor in league with the criminals, played by Thomas McCauley, Coquille, and Ada, Abbott's wife, who will be portrayed by Miss Elizabeth Ronsee, Talent.

Others appearing in the chiller are: Miss Joyce Payte, Grants Pass, as Rose, the housekeeper in Miss Herries' mystery-haunted domicile; Ruedi Vest, Ashland, as Gustav Rosenberg, picture dealer, and Jim Womack, Klamath Falls, as a bank employee. Miss Patty Read, one of the assistants to the director, will play a servant's role.

Supper, Dancing Planned Tonight By Ladies' Troop

Members of Ladies' Mounted Troop and their guests will gather at the Posse clubhouse on Sage road tonight at 6 p.m. for a Sunday evening potluck supper. Square dancing will follow.

Everyone attending is asked to take a record of either square dancing or popular music to build up the troop's collection.

Last evening members of Jackson County Sheriff's posse and the troop met at the clubhouse for a dance. An orchestra played for dancing, and refreshments were served.

Chapter AA

Charter members of Chapter AA, PEO, will be hostesses to other members of the group Wednesday, February 22 at 12:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Grace Collins, 1810 East Main street.

Banquet Planned For Young People

The annual sweetheart banquet for the young people of Medford Church of the Brethren is planned for Tuesday, February 21, at 8:30 p.m. by Friendship circle, one of the women's groups of the church.

The pastor will serve as master of ceremonies, and the Rev. Willis Neff of Grants Pass will be guest speaker. His topic will be "The Mathematics of Life."

The banquet will be prepared by women of the church and served by the men.

Sams Valley Extension To Meet on Tuesday

Sams Valley — Sams Valley Home Extension unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Straus Tuesday, February 21, at 10:30 a.m. Project lesson is "Art of Pressing." Women attending are to bring a small magazine and scotch tape.

Luncheon will be served by a committee and all women of the community are invited to attend.

Scottish Rite Women's Club Holds Annual Valentine Party

Scottish Rite Women's club held the annual valentine party Monday at Medford Masonic temple. Preceding the evening of cards a potluck dinner was served to all club members and their escorts and to members of all Scottish Rite bodies and their ladies.

About 135 guests were served. Tables were decorated with red pots of pussy willows trimmed with small valentines; ivy streamers the length of the tables were intermingled with red hearts and red candles added a final festive touch to the tables.

Faculty Member To Be Speaker

Ashland—Dr. Phyllis Plichta, professor of education at Southern Oregon college, will speak on the "Principal's Responsibility for In-service Training to His Teachers" at the western regional conference of Oregon elementary school principals scheduled for February 25 at Fullerton school in Roseburg.

Sponsored by the Department of Elementary School Principals of Oregon Education association, and the State Department of Education, the conference has on its agenda discussions concerning the statewide study of elementary education for the past year; an overview of the national picture in relation to the elementary schools; and the state dental health program.

Dental Assistants To Meet Wednesday

Southern Oregon Dental assistants will meet Wednesday, February 22 at 8 p.m. at the Dr. Milo Kubalek office, 1320 West Main street. A program is planned and refreshments will be served. Members are invited to take dental assistants who are interested in the group's activities.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT CAPSICUM ANNUM MEANS?

Probably not. It's one of almost countless pharmaceutical ingredients necessary in filling Doctors' prescriptions. Our Registered Pharmacists quickly read your Doctor's Latin writing on the prescription he writes for you or one of your loved ones. We fill that prescription with 100% accuracy, thus your attending Doctor knows that it is exactly what he called for. Whenever you have a prescription to be filled, bring or send it to us.

We've been serving this community for many years and are held in high esteem by the Medical Profession!

Medford Pharmacy, Inc.
We Are Open Today — 11 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.
PHONE 2-6253 127 EAST SIXTH

So MUCH CONVENIENCE... In SO LITTLE SPACE!

THE REVOLUTIONARY, NEW
Amana
FREEZER plus
REFRIGERATOR
WILL FIT RIGHT WHERE YOUR REFRIGERATOR NOW STANDS!

CHECK THESE
Amana FEATURES!

REFRIGERATOR: • Egg, Cheese and Butter Compartments • Beverage Pitcher, Crisper, Roll Out Shelves, Meat Keeper • Large Fruit-and-Vegetable Fresheners • Automatic Defrosting

FREEZER: • 5 Generous Ice Cube Trays • Amana-Matic Freezing Surfaces • Automatic Food Dispensers • Frosty-Fruit Juice Rock, Dessert Bar • Leftover Shelf

PLUS MANY, MANY MORE!

BACKED BY A CENTURY-OLD TRADITION OF FINE CRAFTSMANSHIP
TRADE IN YOUR PRESENT REFRIGERATOR NOW
COUEY'S
APPLIANCE STORE
225 East 6th St. Phone 3-5433

See PHIL SILVERS "YOU'LL NEVER GET RICH!" CBS-TV Network Tues. Eve.

JEWEL CASE FASHIONS...

Making headline news when the biggest news is at the head... tiny chalk beads encrusting silhouettes so new, so varied and so flattering that your whole approach to fashion '56 starts with your hat. From an exciting new collection by the famous MARCHE.

Other exclusive MARCHÉ hats 10.95 to 18.95

Left: dramatic dome with chalk beads on perle visca straw...15.95
Right: an off-the-brow shell with a halo of delicate flowers...15.95

Exclusively ours

Mann's
MEDFORD

Second Floor