Elaine Williams, Medford; Miss Winnette Andrews, Palm Desert, California; Miss Dalia Kisis, Klamath Falls; Miss Anna May Walters, Grants Pass; Miss Toby Kay Fox, Ashland; and Miss Marcia Houghton, Medford.

Recipe Contest Won by Class of St. Mary's School

The Freshman Living class at St. Mary's high school, instructed by Sister Carol Mary, has been named a third prize winner in Seventeen magazine's second annual recipe collection contest. "Friday Dishes," was the title of the collection of recipes entered by the class and judging was done on the basis of originality, accuracy and flavor. As their prizes the class will receive a Silex Handyhot Juicer and a copy of Mary Meade's "Magic Recipes for the Osterizer." Sister Carol Mary will receive a Westinghouse Cook-N-Fryer.

Those who entered recipes from St. Mary's are Nancy Beaton, Mary Crevier, Carol Depner, Laurene Espey, Janet Fink, Dolores Hartley, Judy Kaiser, Linda Luman, Linda Montgomery, Jeanette Nougier, Molly Reavis, Sharon Roberts, Judy Singler, Constance Sokolowski, Carmen Valentine, Karen Van Dyck, Dorothy Ward, Karen Dunn, Rosemary Tokar and Peggy O'Neill.

Open Your Heart Meeting Theme of Business Women

"Open your heart to the world" was the theme of a no-host dinner meeting by Medford Business and Professional Women's club Thursday evening at Roxy Ann Grange hall.

In keeping with this theme the tables were attractively decorated with valentines and small flags of many nations. This was in charge of the project committee with Mrs. Frances Grant as chairman, Mrs. Frida Burger, Mrs. Cozette Jones and Mrs. Dorothy Elliott, members.

The international relations committee, Mrs. Enid Rankin, chairman, Mrs. Anna Bengtson, Mrs. Bertha Haskins and Mrs. Gertrude Blind, took charge of the program which included two guest speakers, Dr. Clifford R. Miller assistant professor of social science at Southern Oregon college, and Mlle. Michelle Ollivier, exchange student from France at SOC.

Dr. Miller, who spent five years in Africa, spoke and showed colored slides of that continent.

Mrs. Bengtson and Mrs. Gertrude Blind had charge of a souvenir table. This included articles from foreign countries that were brought by the members of the club. Also in keeping with the international theme were the foreign costumes worn by several members.

U. S. Musical Comedy Plays to SRO Houses At West Berlin Theater

Berlin — The first musical comedy (as opposed to operetta or revue) to score a success in Berlin is Cole Porter's "Kiss Me, Kate," which has been playing to SRO houses ever since it opened during Christmas week at Berlin's Komodie theater, according to the Berlin Tourist office.

It is not quite the same show which Americans enjoyed a few seasons back, however, for Berlin has a scarcity of talented players who can both sing and dance—this dual talent has not hitherto been necessary for the kind of shows traditional in Germany.

Therefore it is being presented as a "chamber musical" with accompaniment by two pianos and the scenes arranged as sketches interspersed with songs. German text is by Guenther Neuman, well-known radio and cabaret star.

Ruth Esther Guild To Complete Study

Ruth Esther Wesleyan service will meet Monday, February 20, in the Fireside Room of First Methodist church. Dessert will be served at 7:30 p.m.

During the program hour the guild will complete its study of the American Indian. The study hour will be conducted by Mrs. E. T. Anderson.

Nurses Contribute To Hospital

A contribution to the proposed Rogue Valley Memorial hospital was voted by members of District 4, Oregon State Nurses' association, at the February meeting of the group.

Mrs. Sue Monteith, president of District 4, reported on a president's conference held in Portland. Plans for a nursing forum sponsored by the General Duth Section of OSNA, were outlined by Mrs. Christine Bates, state secretary of this section.

Miss Gertrude Molloy, state chairman of the Office Nurse section, reported on the executive board meeting with the liaison committee of the Oregon State Medical association when policies for office nurses were discussed.

Nurses were urged to attend the nursing forum on diseases of the heart to be held in Portland March 22 and 23. There will also be a one day conference of special interest to operating room nurses on Saturday, February 25, at the Oregon State Medical school library. These events are open to all registered nurses, and any one wishing further information may call 2-8315.

Mrs. Martha Donahue and her committee were given recognition for their "splendid work" on membership. Mrs. Belle Jones gave the report of the goodwill committee and announced a project to raise money. The budget for the year was presented by Mrs. Mildred Richmond. Mrs. Stella Demo reported on a very successful cooked food sale.

Miss Dorothy Collard and Mrs. Demo outlined the program for the coming year, with many interesting meetings planned. Miss Molloy gave a brief outline of a refresher course to be held at Sacred Heart hospital this spring. The course will be open to all registered nurses in the valley.

After the business meeting Miss Dorothy Collard read the address given by Dr. Richard Steiner at the Oregon State Nurses' convention last October. A discussion period followed. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Miss Lotus Eaton, Mrs. Demo, Edith Davis, Miss Collard and Miss Molloy.

Extension Alumnae To Meet on Monday

A meeting of the alumnae of Jackson County committee for home extension service, originally scheduled at the home of Mrs. Fred Middlebush will be held instead at the home of Mrs. C. C. Hoover, Gregory road. The meeting is set for Monday, February 20, at 11 a.m.

Members planning to attend may call TA6-2854 for directions. A potluck luncheon will be served, and members are to take table service.

Military Order Plans Ceremony In Grants Pass

Mrs. Minnie Steele, Springfield, Ore., grand gila monster of the grand swamp of Oregon, Military Order of the Lizard, will install new officers of Cebu swamp. The ceremony will be held at the home of Mrs. Mabel Breitmeyer in Grants Pass Sunday, February 26 at 1 p.m.

A covered dish dinner will precede the meeting and installation. Mrs. Clara Wallis, the present gila monster, will preside at the meeting.

Mrs. Mabel Nicholson of Medford is gila-monster elect.

Grants Pass members are to take hot dishes and members from Medford salads and desserts. Those wishing transportation are to phone Mrs. Nicholson, 2-8922.

FHA Convention Set in Corvallis

Corvallis — Future Homemakers of America chapters in Medford, Talent and Phoenix High schools will be among 99 Oregon chapters participating in the annual state FHA meetings February 24 and 25 at Oregon State college.

FHA is composed of high school girls taking home economics classes. Oregon's membership now totals 4,000.

Theme for this year's eleventh annual meeting is "FHA's Face the Future." One of the highpoints of the meeting will be awarding of state homemaker degrees, the state's top award for high school home economists. They go to outstanding members who meet school, home and community program requirements.

Farm Magazine Features Recipes Of Local Woman

Mrs. Fred Reich, 2944 Stewart avenue, Medford, is the author of three recipes for cherry desserts which are featured in The Farmer's Wife section of the February issue of Farm Journal magazine.

Mrs. Reich considers cooking a fine art, and says she is blessed with an appreciative family. Her cherry dessert recipes came originally from an old cookbook of her mother's, but she has "put her own stamp on them." She has had plenty of cherries to experiment with since the family has a cherry orchard.

Mrs. Reich sent her recipes for cherry custard shortbread, special cherry pie, and cherry upside down cake, to Farm Journal. They were kitchen-tested in The Farmer's Wife kitchens in Philadelphia.

Regina Hannon Named Delegate

Eugene—University of Oregon delegates have been chosen to represent China (Oregon) at the Model United Nations convention to be held in Corvallis April 4 and 5.

Miss Regina Hannon, a junior from Medford, was selected as one of the university delegates to the session.

Miss Hannon, who is majoring in political science, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hannon, 705 West Tenth street, Medford. She is a graduate of St. Mary's High school in Medford.

Miss Shirley Kenner, senior at Medford High school, who will graduate in June, was named queen of National Beauty week by Medford members of Oregon Beautician's association. Miss Kenner was awarded a scholarship by Medford Beauty school and presented gifts from the association. Miss Kenner was named queen when she won an essay contest sponsored by the local association.

Butte Falls PTA Presents Pageant On Founder's Day

Butte Falls — Butte Falls PTA council observed Founder's day, Monday, February 13, by presenting the pageant, "Of Any Child Alive," by Bonaro W. Overstreet. The pageant was directed by Mrs. Bruce Pingle and Mrs. Charles Jenkins.

Participants were Mrs. W. B. Edmondson, Mrs. K. D. Cramer, Mrs. Harry Dalton, Mrs. James Arnold, Mrs. Charles Jenkins, and Mrs. Keith Scott. The pageant reviewed the history of the National Congress and honored the founders, Mrs. Alice McLellan Birney, portrayed by Mrs. Albert Hofman, and Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst, portrayed by Mrs. Harriet Armstrong.

Achievement awards for 4-H first year cooking were presented to Donna Dillard, Joan Riddick and Beverly Mattern. Second year awards were presented to Carolyn Fuiten, Darlene Edmondson, Dorothy Fuiten, Martha Dalton and Wayne Fuiten.

Mrs. Elga Abbott provided the birthday cake, decorated in white with the emblem in yellow. Mothers of children in the third and fourth grades took charge of refreshments.

Secretaries Hear Department Head

Curtis Kinney, head of Medford Senior High school commercial department, was guest speaker at the February meeting of Rogue River Chapter of National Secretaries, held February 10 at Mon Desir. He outlined briefly the new courses offered to commercial students who hope to go from high school directly to work, explaining the more practical aspects now taught as well as simple typing and shorthand.

Mr. Kinney went on to the broader phases of commercial courses, including new "on the job" credits available to students who will be helping out as part-time stenographers for the Chamber of Commerce as part of their commercial course. He stressed the need for more opportunities of this sort for students to make an easier transition from school to actual jobs.

Mrs. Jeanne Rose reported on the status of current ways and means suggestions and the group has made tentative plans for a "Spring Fever" dance to be held in May.

Check the handles on a casserole, before you buy. They should be large enough to hold firmly, and heat-resistant, if possible, to make safe the trip from oven to table.

Sorority Elects Officers for Year

Mrs. Lyman Smith was named president of Alpha Lambda chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, at elections held February 13 at the home of Mrs. Norman Oberst, 1015 Queen Anne avenue.

Her staff of officers also elected at the meeting are: Mrs. Oberst, vice-president; Mrs. William Raymond, secretary; Mrs. Robert Shangle, treasurer; Mrs. Thomas Makris, educational director; and Mrs. Russell Roseborough, parliamentarian.

Several members recently held coffee hours and through this

To Be Honored
