Many Houses Damaged By Quake in Turkey

Istanbul, Turkey (U.P.) — Authorities estimated today that 1500 houses were damaged in an earthquake that rumbled 150 miles through Western Turkey from Istanbul to Ankara last night.

Two men and some 100 farm animals were killed in Istanbul by stones shaken loose from the ancient city walls.

A complete list of casualties and damage was not available yet but Eskisehir Province was reported hardest hit. The quake lasted only a few seconds.

Gasoline Dealers — There will be a meeting of the Southern Oregon Gasoline Dealers at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Jackson hotel. Business will include establishing a price medium for all service charges. All dealers in the area are urged to attend.

Ike May Request More Johnson Creek Funds

Washington (U.P.) — President Eisenhower was reported today to have decided to ask Congress for an additional $50,000 for flood control on Johnson creek in Portland, Ore., and northern Clackamas county.

Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.) said he had "every reason to believe" that Mr. Eisenhower would ask for the additional funds in a supplemental appropriations bill to be forwarded to Congress this week.

U.S. Balloon Blamed For Czech Plane Crash

London (U.P.) — Communist Czechoslovakia charged today that an American balloon caused the crash of a Czech airliner last Jan. 18 which killed 22 persons.

Radio Prague made the accusation in a broadcast heard in London.

San Diego Group Plans Mardi Gras

San Diego, Calif. (U.P.) — Business and professional men of this area have formed a corporation to present a Mardi Gras type of pageant as an annual event to start in 1956.

The organization is to be known as Fiesta del Pacifico, Inc. Backed by a budget set at $300,000, the corporation will present the fiesta each year as a measure designed to attract tourists to San Diego.

Wayne Dailard, internationally known showman and formerly executive manager of the California Pacific International Exposition of San Diego in the 1930s, has been chosen executive director of the fiesta.

Central theme of the pageant will be a showing of "The California Story," an extravaganza depicting the history of California and first staged under Dailard's direction in Hollywood Bowl in 1950.

Other events tentatively planned are a Spanish-type fair, water carnival, horse show of champions, and street pageant parades.

"Local celebrations also are anticipated," Dailard said. He said no date for the initial opening had been set.

Deputy Describes Stolen Auto Hubcaps

St. Joseph, Mich. (U.P.) — Berrien County Deputy Arthur Johnson wrote the following report after investigating theft of 10 hubcaps from 1956 model cars at an auto agency.

"These hubcaps are really beautiful. To describe these caps for anyone to identify is nearly impossible. The best thing is for the guys (other deputies) to go down to the garage and see them."

Johnson, by the way, is a part-time salesman for another auto dealer who handles another make of car.
