Musicians Contribute To Flood Victim

Two musicians organizations have made substantial contributions to assist a fellow-musician who suffered losses to his property during the late December flood, it was reported today by J. Verne Marshall, business agent of the musicians union here.

He said the American Federation of Musicians has sent a check for $225 and the Chicago local of the AFM a check for $45 to the union here for Frank W. Walker, who lost property valued at $300 during the flood.

Marshall said the AFM and other local unions had spent thousands of dollars in other flood areas. Walker is a band leader.

Fluoridation Subject Of Jaycee Meeting

Dr. Dwaine Nelson, dentist, and Dr. John T. Brandenburg, spoke on dental and medical aspects of fluoridation Tuesday night at a meeting of the Jackson County Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Brandenburg stressed safety factors as shown by statistics in cities which have naturally fluoridated waters. They also brought out the fact that supplemented fluorides show no chemical difference from those occuring naturally in the water.

Other points mentioned included the statement that a number of foods eaten daily contain fluorine and statistics show approximately, 16,000,000 people are drinking artificially fluoridated water.

Obituaries

CHUB HAMLIN

Chub Alfred Hamlin, 75, died at his home, 104 South Laurel st., Wednesday.

Mr. Hamlin was born near Grants Pass, March 15, 1880, and for several years operated a grocery store and meat market in Medford. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamlin, came to Oregon in 1852 in a covered wagon with oxen teams.

He was a member of the Medford Elks lodge for 39 years.

He is survived by his wife, Nora E. Hamlin, to whom he was married for 53 years; one son, Warren R. Hamlin, and two grandsons, William Thomas Hamlin, and John Warren Hamlin, of Medford; two brothers and four sisters.

Funeral services will be held at Perl funeral home at 1:30 p.m. Friday with the Rev. D. Kirkland West of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Entombment will be in Medford Memorial mausoleum.

The family has requested that in lieu of flowers, donations be sent to the American Cancer Fund in care of the local postmaster.

The Medford Elks lodge will participate in funeral services.

SIDNEY STEWART

Sidney Mark Stewart, 57, died last night in a local hospital. Conger-Morris funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Roseburg Men Buy Tiller Property

Roseburg — Most of the property in the town of Tiller has been purchased by S. J. Cooper and B. A. Young of Roseburg, it was reported recently. The two bought 140 acres from Warren Daugherty, Daugherty lumber company, of Cottage Grove.

The purchase includes sugar pine timber holdings, an old mill, the area's water supply, river frontage, bunk houses and land on which seven modern homes are located.

About 75 persons live on the property, but will not be directly affected, they said. The men also own the Maud S. mercury mine and said they expect to have it in full production March 1.

County Students To Eugene Conference

Twenty-two students from Medford and Jacksonville senior high schools left today for an International Relations League conference in Eugene.

About 350 high school students from Oregon are expected to discuss the problem of "Africa in the Modern World" at the conference at the University of Oregon.

The conference is held each year to give league-member schools an opportunity to discuss international problems.

African students attending the University of Oregon will participate in panel discussion periods. Professor James S. Coleman of the University of California at Los Angeles will be among principal speakers.

Those attending the conference from Medford Senior High school are John VanDyke, Bill Isaacs, Marilyn Olson, Deanna Campbell, Nancy McKeown, Tim Boyd, John Reeder, Bill Frake, Kay Christian, Diana Russell, Marilyn Parsons, Sue Donna Doolen, Don Christensen, Myra Frohnmayer, Mary Gants and Janet Perry. They will be accompanied by their advisor, Mrs. Justin Smith.

Those attending from Jacksonville High school are Gregory McKeen, Vicki Tweedy, Romelle Fossen, Clyde Smith, Robert Clark, and Tommy King. Their advisor will be Kenneth Toner, Jacksonville social studies teacher.
