

Chorus Sings At Meeting of Jefferson PTA

Songs from their forthcoming TV program, "The Land of Make Believe" were presented by Mrs. Della Weber's advanced chorus at a meeting of Jefferson Parent-Teacher association last Friday. Selections included melodies from "Hans Christian Andersen" and "The Wizard of Oz." Clifford Hanson, Boy Scout executive, spoke of scout activities in the Crater Lake area and informed the assembly of the purpose of "operation icicle" to be held next month in the Mt. McLoughlin area. He stated that there are only six persons in the Rogue valley experienced in snow survival, and said this would provide an opportunity to train 40 boys and young men in the methods of living in snow.

Mrs. Tom Gerety presented the purpose and activities of the Camp Fire Girls. She told of the crafts program and the aims of the different age divisions. Girls from 7 to 10 are in the Blue Bird group, and those 10 years of age or older are in the regular Camp Fire program. After a girl has completed Camp Fire work she is eligible for membership in Horizon club, a senior activity.

Kenneth Hulbert, Mrs. John Vaughn and Mrs. Walter Olsen were elected to the nominating committee. Kenneth Phipps was introduced as institutional representative to Cub Scout Pack 5, sponsored by Jefferson PTA.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held March 8 in the Fehi building on North Ivy street. Those with rummage to donate are asked to call 2-9840, or 2-7316 or 2-4897 for pickup service. A plant sale will be held at the same time.

Gold Hill Group

Gold Hill—Amethyst Rebekah Past Noble Grands' club will hold a valentine party tonight at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Martin. During the business hour officers will be elected for the coming year.

Plans will be made for the annual past noble grands dinner to be held in March.

Artist Plans Rhinoceros Theme For Royal Pre-Nuptial Ballet

By PAUL MOSCANYI
United Press Correspondent

New York—(U.P.)—Salvador Dali plans to costume an entire ballet in white rhinoceros horns as a "gorgeous parade of chastity" heralding the wedding of Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier. The ballet is to be created for performance at the Monte Carlo Opera House in the gala week before the April 18 wedding. Its backers said the idea came from Rainier's mother, Princess Antoinette.

Horn Motif
The rhinoceros horn motif, however, came solely from the surrealist artist who once leaned to the melting watch face. Dali now feels that "rhinocerosism will catch the soul of our time."

"The horn of the white rhinoceros is the successor to the horn of the unicorn and is, like its ancestor in the middle ages, the symbol of chastity," the mustachioed Dali said. "Nothing could be a better symbol for such a noble occasion as this princely wedding.

"Every dancer will be clad in a costume having the form of the horn of the white rhinoceros. It will be like a gorgeous parade of chastity."

Zoo Rejects Idea

The Bronx Zoo said Dali was off his easel if he thought the unicorn was the ancestor of the white rhino.

"The unicorn was a purely imaginary creature and therefore couldn't leave any offspring," a zoo spokesman said. "The white rhinoceros is a prosaic, living animal, though rare. It is found wild in Africa and in zoos in Europe and Africa."

Dali was not troubled by such zoological considerations. "Our century has been called at times the age of Communism, the age of capitalism, the age of anxiety and the age of jazz," he said, "but if you look beneath the surface you realize that this is the age of the white rhinoceros."

Extravaganza Set By Dance Studio

Students of the Colleen Hope Dance studio will present a dance extravaganza Friday and Saturday, February 24 and 25, on the stage of the Craterian theater. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

First part of program Friday night will feature little girls of the kindergarten class and a variety of group and solo tap and specialty numbers by the tap dance students. Saturday night's program will feature numbers by the beginning ballet class and a group of specialty dances by older children.

Second part of the program each night will be the "Nut Cracker Suite" ballet presented by ballet students. This tells the story of a little girl at Christmas time and her dreams about snow flakes, toy soldiers, sugar plum fairies, oriental and cossack dolls, and other colorful characters from the famed ballet. Music is from the second and third acts of the ballet by Tchaikovsky.

Choreography for most of the ballet is by Miss Hope, and Mrs. Katherine Scott directs the "Sugar Plum Fairy" solo after the original choreography of Ivanov, and the Waltz of the Flowers. Costuming is by Miss Hope and mothers of the students, and scenery is by Steve Bayliss.

Studio assistant is Mary Annette Rentz.

Cookie Sale Set By Girl Scouts

Girl Scouts of Medford, Jacksonville and Central Point will start taking orders for Girl Scout cookies tomorrow. This cookie sale is an annual event of the spring, and the net proceeds from the sale go to the council camp fund and to the individual troops in the form of a 5 cents per box bonus for their treasuries. The camp fund receives 11 cents per box.

Orders will be taken in only the three towns, with deliveries beginning March 10. In all other districts and towns, direct door-to-door selling will also start March 10.

The cookies have been made especially for the sale. They are assorted chocolate vanilla sandwich cookies, with the Girl Scout freitoll stamped on them, and are packed 28 to a box. The price is 40 cents a box.

There are over 23,000 boxes to be sold in the entire council, which would realize a profit to the Council camping program of over $2500. Some of the main projects planned at Camp Low Echo, the established Girl Scout camp at Lake of the Woods, are the addition of three shelters, one in each of the older units, completion of the lodge fireplace, remodeling of the store room to increase efficiency in storage and to provide space to house the caretakers; and completion of metal roofing of the Lodge.

PTA Smorgasbord In Jacksonville Said Successful

Jacksonville — The smorgasbord held last Saturday evening by Jacksonville Parent-Teacher association was most successful, according to the two chairmen, Mrs. Ross Crowley and Mrs. Leonard Wicksten.

Hostesses for the evening, Mrs. Fred Richardson and Mrs. Leroy Mauroni, report that approximately 345 persons were served and that there was much favorable comment on the food and service. In the opinion of the hostesses and chairmen the good management and exceptional cooperation of all the various committees and workers were responsible for the harmonious success of the evening. A variety of card games and a square dance were also very popular with the crowd attending, it is reported. The committee chairmen have expressed their appreciation to all their workers and the community for supporting the event and "making it
