

Days' Activities Scheduled Here By Milo Students

Students of Milo academy, Milo, Ore. will be in Medford on Feb. 25 with a full schedule of events planned. The Academy is the boarding academy of the Seventh-day Adventist church, representing southern Oregon.

Worship services on Feb. 25, will be held at 11 a. m., in the auditorium of the McLoughlin Jr. High school to accommodate the anticipated large attendance. The academy will be in charge of the service which will feature their choir under direction of W. R. Wheeler.

The Missionary volunteer meeting will be held at 4 p. m., in the McLoughlin Jr. High school under the auspices of the visiting group.

Secular music will highlight an evening program starting at 7 p. m. in the McLoughlin Jr. High school auditorium. The academy band will be featured in concert and vocal music has also been arranged.

EVANGELIST—The Rev. Forman Lincome of Gary, Ind., will conduct evangelistic services at the Free Methodist church, West 10th and Ivy sts., commencing Tuesday, Feb. 28 and continues through March 11. The meetings will be conducted at 7:30 p. m., daily except Saturday.

Mission To Be Topic At Friends Services

The Rev. and Mrs. Leland Hibbs, missionaries on furlough from the Friends mission in Bolivia, will speak at the Friends church during the opening assembly of Sunday school, Feb. 26 at 9:45 a. m.

At 7:30 p. m., they will have charge of the entire service, and show pictures of mission work in Bolivia and tell of their experiences. They have served one 4-year term as supervisors of the 3,000 acre farm on the shore of Lake Titicaca. The farm is used as a training ground in agriculture for the Indians attending the Friends Bible school, and serves to support the Bible school financially from the sale of products raised. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hibbs have been teachers in the Bible school, which offers a 3-year course in training Bolivian national Christians to be pastors of the local churches and teachers in the day schools.

Morning worship will be held at 11 a. m., with message by Pastor Clynton Crisman and duet by Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Roberts, Christian Endeavor societies will meet at 6:30 p. m.

Assemblies Set Attendance Goal

A goal of 1,000 in attendance at Sunday school has been set by the 10 Assemblies of God Sunday schools here in the Rogue valley for Sunday at 9:45 a. m.

Churches cooperating in the concerted drive for Sunday school attendance are the Assemblies of God at Jacksonville, Ashland, Talent, Phoenix, Shady Cove, Eagle Point, Gold Hill, Four Corners and the Bethel and Medford Assemblies in Medford. At present there are 200 Assembly of God Sunday schools in Oregon, one for each 8,000 of the population. Officials plan to achieve a proportion of one church for each 5,000.

A program will be presented in each Sunday school. Plans will be revealed for the Easter season. The Rev. Homer Thompson, pastor of the Ashland Assembly of God, is the Sunday school representative for this section of Oregon.

Filed by Dr. Ralph M. Johnson, director of the Council of Missionary cooperation of the American Baptist convention, the film depicts mission work around the world on American Baptist fields. The public is invited to a snack supper at 6 p. m., and to the study classes for primary, Junior-junior high and adults age groups prior to the showing of the film.

The pastor, Richard M. Jones, will speak on the theme "World on Crutches" at the 11 a. m. service. Music will be featured and nursery care is provided.

Activities Listed At Congregational

At the Congregational church Sunday morning the Rev. Thomas McCamant will continue a series of sermons on, "The Commands of God." The topic will be "Repent."

The Couples club will meet Sunday at 7 p. m., at the parsonage with the Austins and McCamants as hosts. All couples interested are invited.

At a meeting held last Monday the church council considered a proposal that two church services should be held with one of them at the same time as the Sunday school. It was decided not to adopt the plan regularly before sometime next fall when it will again be considered. However, double services will be planned for Palm Sunday and Easter. A recommendation will also be made to the congregation regarding unified services to be held during the summer period.

SCHOOL CONTEST

A contest is being conducted between the Medford Foursquare church and the Grants Pass church of the same faith. Object lessons are given each Sunday and the contest will close on Easter Sunday, April 1. The winning team will be guest at a Sunday school picnic next summer.

First Christian Church 9th and Oakdale - Medford

Have You Read THESE WORDS FROM GOD'S WORD?

"There is none righteous, no, not one." "There is none that doeth good, no, not one." "There is not a just man on the earth that doeth good and sinneth not." "ALL have sinned and come short of the glory of God."

"The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men." "Warned . . . to flee from the wrath to come." "The day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God." "These shall go away into everlasting punishment." "God now commandeth all men everywhere to repent: because he hath set a day in which he will judge the world."

"And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many." "God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." "Christ hath once suffered for my sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God." "Who his own self bore our sins in his own body on the tree (cross)"

"He became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him."
