Green-Henderson Wedding Held in Brethren Church

Miss Pauline Irene Henderson became the bride of Donald Edwin Green in a ceremony held February 12 at Medford Church of the Brethren. The Rev. Escil Hiser officiated for the two o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Groth, formerly of Medford and now of Alturas, Calif., and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Green, Alturas.

For the rites the bride wore a gown of white satin with lace bodice and her veil was held by a band of white hyacinths. She carried a white orchid and hyacinths on a white Bible.

Miss Darlene Henderson was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a frock of lime green net and taffeta and carried a heart-shaped bouquet of red and white roses and lilies of the valley.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Coggins, Medford, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Karon Henderson, niece of the bride. They wore gowns of orchid colored net and taffeta and their heart-shaped bouquets matched that carried by the honor attendant. The attendant's headresses were of valley lilies.

Miss Sylvia Coggins, Medford, a cousin of the bride and Kit Henderson, a nephew, lighted the candles. Richard Henderson, nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Mr. Groth gave his daughter in marriage and Howard Willey, Susanville, Calif., was best man for the bridegroom. LeRoy Givens and Dave Knighton, also of Susanville, were ushers.

The reception was held in the church. Serving were Mrs. J. M. Paulazzo, Mrs. Leland Coggins and Mrs. Charles Nelson, Medford, and Mrs. Ernest Groth, Alturas. Mrs. Floyd Evernden, Medford, took charge of the gifts and Miss Janice Burroughs, Medford, the guest book.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue with gardenia corsage and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a gold-colored dress with gardenia corsage.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Green, LaVener, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. George Scrivner, Alturas; Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Green, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Reynolds, Duns-muir; Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Purlengame, Redding and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Henderson, Yreka, Calif.

Henry-Jones Ceremony Held on Valentine's Day

St. Valentine's day was chosen by Miss Lois Maxine Jones and Virgil LaVelle Henry as the date of their wedding, the ceremony having taken place at one o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Aldrich, Jacksonville highway, uncle and aunt of the bride. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jones, 717 West Eleventh street, Medford, and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Claude Henry, Beall lane.

Dr. J. Thomas Dixon of First Methodist church officiated at the double-ring rites and Jerry Smith, Eagle Point, sang. Mrs. R. D. Carnahan played traditional wedding music.

Mr. Jones gave his daughter in marriage. Her wedding gown of white lace and tulle over satin was designed with tiered bouffant skirt and long-sleeved lace jacket. Her finger-tip veil was held by a lace cap trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

The bride carried a white lace handkerchief brought to her from France by Mrs. Aldrich.

Miss Pat Hanson was honor attendant and the bride's two sisters, Miss Carol and Miss Kayleen Jones were bridesmaids. They wore identical frocks of taffeta in pastel orchid, yellow and aquamarine colors. Their bouquets were nosegays of white carnations centered with a red rose, and their headbands were of shattered white carnations.

Gail Jensen was best man for Mr. Henry and the ushers were Walter Fischer and Stan Johnson, the latter of Coquille, Ore.

White wedding bells, sprays of valley lilies, white carnations and potted white hyacinths decorated the fireplace which provided a setting for the bridal party.

The reception which followed was also at the Aldrich home, with about 35 guests attending. Silver hearts, valley lilies and white bells decorated the table from which the heart-shaped wedding cake was served.
