Mental Test Slated For Young Slayer

Wheeling, W. Va. - (U.P.) - The confessed 14-year-old slayer of a nine-year-old Cub Scout was scheduled to undergo a mental examination at Weston State Hospital today in an attempt to learn why the twin son or a Wheeling steelworker bludgeoned a young playmate to death. Tommy Williams, who confessed last week he killed David Power Feb. 9, was ordered to take the mental tests after his defense counsel, William Callahan, withdrew legal action to have the defendant's identical twin, Joseph, freed. Tommy's confession exonerated Joseph, but the twins' parents agreed to allow Joseph to take the examination with the understanding he would be liable to bond afterwards.

Boating Excursion Results in Tragedy

Cobb Island, Md. - (U.P.) - A gay boating excursion ended in tragedy Sunday when a high-powered speedboat sank, drowning five of its occupants, including a girl who was to be married this week. The red and white boat hit a sandbar and sank in the lower Potomac river. One of the two women who survived the tragedy said "it felt like the whole bottom of the boat was ripped out."

The dead were identified as P. C. Woodzell, Warrenton, Va
