The stalwarts who carry the Medford high Black Tornado standard on the map to court today reviewed a highly successful regular season and looked forward to the Oregon A-1 tournament at Eugene with only one bit of apprehension. They hope they don't come down with the measles.

Medford's high spirited hoopers, a surprise aggregation to pre-season prognosticators, completed their Southern Oregon Conference campaign with an 11-win 1-loss standing Saturday night with their sparkling 67 to 54 victory over the Grants Pass Cavemen at Grants Pass. They finished with a 17-5 mark for the state's allowable 22-game slate in pre-tournament schedule.

Sharpshooters from long range and almost two to one command under the backboards were the keys to the win as the Tornado regulars, loose and relaxed, played a sharp game. Medford came out ahead in a nip and tuck first quarter, broke away in the second and continued to pile up its margin the third. The Black Tornado was 25 points on top early in the final period.

Fear that illness might hurt state tournament possibilities came when Chuck Nevi of the Cavemen broke out with measles Saturday. The Tornado players were "exposed" to him in the Friday scramble here.

Medford margins at the intermissions Saturday were 18 to 14, 35 to 20 and 55 to 34. Reserves took over after the Tornado built its widest bulge in the final stanza. The lead had shrunk to 10 points with three minutes to play and the regulars went back to finish out the game.

Frick Tells Plan For TV Presentation

Phoenix, Ariz. — (U.P.) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick disclosed plans today for a gigantic television "spectacular" which will develop "the story of baseball as an American institution."

"I want this to be one of the finest things that the American people ever have seen on their TV screens," he said. "I have been in Los Angeles and Hollywood discussing plans for the show which will come shortly before the opening of the major league season, possibly on the Sunday night preceding the openers."

The show, which will be televised by the National Broadcasting Co., will run an hour and a half. Top script writers, actors and actresses, and production men are involved in putting it together.

"It will also be in color TV and there will be a narration, something along the lines of what was done in the play 'Our Town' with flashbacks, pictures of the old great stars," he said. "The show probably will originate from Hollywood but baseball personalities in various cities will come into the picture."

Frick said he wanted the spectacular to "tell a story" and that it is designed for the enjoyment of both youngsters and old timers.

"And we're going to have both youngsters and old timers in the script, too," he said. "We want some Little Leaguers and kids from the Babe Ruth league in it, along with some of the members of the Hall of Fame."

Frick, relaxing in the brilliant sunshine by the swimming pool at his resort hotel here, said the TV show would climax the second annual "Baseball Week" which he instituted last year.

Swaps Could Have Won Handicap, Owner Says

Arcadia, Calif. — (U.P.) — The runaway victory of Bobby Brocato in the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap failed to impress Swaps' owner, Rex C. Ellsworth who said today that his horse would have won the race had he elected to run.

"But we weren't going to risk a million dollar horse on that kind of footing," Ellsworth told the United Press. "Every horse that ran in the race took a chance and we didn't want to take the risk with Swaps. It was a big disappointment to us not to run him. Had he run, he would have won."

Ellsworth said there was nothing wrong with Swaps' foot which had been operated on and the horse can handle any sort of going. But he said he and trainer Mesach Tenney felt all along he was behind in his training and the slow, sticky track that prevailed Saturday could have hurt the horse.

Bob Tisdal paced the Medford scoring with 20 counters and Neil Plumley got 16. But Tom Bernet, slick Caveman forward was high man with 12 field goals and four free shots for 28 total.

Under the backboards Medfordites picked 44 rebounds and GP got 24. Plumley had 16 re-trives for the Tornado and Dick McLaughlin 12. Bernet and Larry Walker plucked eight each for the Cavemen and Larry Henderson six.

The Tornado field goaling mark on 27 for 75 was 360. Ability to work the ball well through the GP zone defense boosted the

Eugene Sure Of Spot in State Tussle

Berths in the 16-team state class A-1 basketball tournament are rapidly filling up with four more clubs making the cherished circle this past week end. Two clubs had spots already notched going into the week end's activities.

Eugene and Central Catholic assured themselves they would be in the thick of the five-day battle which opens March 13 at McArthur court in Eugene. Also gaining spots for their past week end's performances were Beaverton and McMinnville of the TVV league.

Medford and Klamath Falls already had taken up spots earlier.

In addition to the half-dozen already in, three other clubs moved up into positions where they are assured no worse than a tie for a berth. Jefferson of Portland and Pendleton and Mac-Hi of the Blue Mountain conference all can finish no worse than tied for spots and all appear to be good bets to make the trip without a playoff enroute.

Only two teams have qualified for the Class A-2 meet, scheduled to start at Salem March 12. Ontario captured a berth a week ago and Redmond joined it this week as the second entry.

Quints End OCC Season

The Oregon Collegiate Conference put the wraps on another season Saturday night with the five-team stacking up at the finish pretty much as pre-season dopesters had predicted they would. Portland State, assured of no worse than a tie for the title a week ago, came through with its second undisputed crown, splitting a pair with Eastern Oregon at La Grande over the week end.

The Vikings won the Friday night opener, 93-92, in an overtime period to make the finale just an anti-climax. Eastern Oregon, the second place finisher in the circuit, took the Saturday night verdict with a 95-83 score.

The Vikings ended the counting campaign with a 12-win and 4-loss record while Eastern Oregon had a 10-win and 6-loss campaign.

In the other half of the week end's schedule, Oregon Tech twice bounced Oregon College, winning Friday night 86-56 and then rounding out with a 84-61 decision Saturday.

Tech finished in fourth spot in the league, just below Southern Oregon. Oregon College held down the cellar.

Schmidt Cops Indoor Tennis Championship

New York — (U.P.) — The U.S. indoor tennis championship belonged to a Swede today for the second time in the last three years and this quickly brought predictions of trouble for the United States in this year's Davis Cup competition.

Ulf Schmidt, 22-year-old Swedish star, captured the crown in Sunday's finale by beating fellow-countryman Sven Davidson, 6-1, 6-3, 8-10, 6-3. Davidson won the title in 1954.

Seixas and Sam Giammalva of Houston, Tex., won the doubles crown with a 6-4, 18-16, 6-3 victory over Larsen and Robert Howe of Australia.

Lump on Head — (U.P.) — Arlene McCollum had a lump on her head today as a reminder that she is an avid fan of golfer Ted Kroll, who won the $30,000 Houston Open. Miss McCollum, who bought a ticket for the tournament finals expressly to see Kroll play yesterday, was knocked unconscious by a 140-yard drive by Kroll on the 17th fairway. She went to the hospital for treatment and never did get to see Kroll play.

Humboldt Tops Raiders

Ashland — Humboldt State college basketball team made it two in a row over Southern Oregon college by tripping the Red Raiders 66 to 58 on Saturday at Arcata, Calif.

The Lumberjacks led 34 to 28 at the half but SOC tied up the game at 34-all. Humboldt then got 10-straight tallies to take command again.

Relations between the two schools were near the breaking point after Humboldt won Friday 55 to 50. Coach Ted Schopf of the Raiders threatened not to play on Saturday but then went ahead. He called the officiating the worst he'd ever seen Friday and said that he wouldn't take another team to Arcata unless capable referees from outside the area were secured.

Chuck Crandall suffered a bad cut over his eye in the melee.

Kroll Victor At Houston

Houston, Tex. — (U.P.) — Ted Kroll, the chunky little New Yorker playing out of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., took over the lead in winter tour money earnings today in the wake of his $6,000 first prize in the Houston Open Golf Tournament.

By pulling down a fifth of the $30,000 prize pot with his 11-under par 277 at Memorial Park, Kroll soared from 10th to first in earnings, with $8,380, although he's played in only four tournaments. He also won the Tucson Open.

Kroll and most of the name pros moved on to Port Arthur, Tex., for a $3,500 pro-amateur today en route to the Baton Rouge Open.

Jack Burke, a hometown product now playing out of Kiamnesia Lake, N. Y., and thin Dave Douglas of Newark, Del., wound up with second money of $2,700 each as they finished at 280.

Jimmy Demaret, another Houstonian with a Kiamnesia Lake golf address, also found the home course to his liking and led a quartet of 283 scorers that earned them $1,425 each. The others were Art Wall Jr., Pocomo Manor, Pa., Don Fairfield, Casey, Ill., and Jimmy Clark, Los Angeles.

Bob Bell Picked To Beat Berrios

New York — (U.P.) — Veteran Bobby Bell of Youngstown, O., is favored at 7-5 to beat Miguel Berrios, New York's newest featherweight sensation, tonight in their TV 10-rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

Bobby, 27, is favored because of his experience in 63 fights. Twenty-three year old Berrios, whose career was curtailed by a two-year hitch in the Army, has had only 19 bouts. But he was terrific in his last two.

LAST BROADCAST

Saigon, Viet Nam — (U.P.) — Radio France-Asia made its last broadcast in Indochina Sunday night. Listeners heard the voices of the beleaguered garrison of Dien Bien Phu recorded over the crash of gunfire, the battle reports of the late Marshal de Lattre de Tassigny and Gen. Paul Aul announcing the Indochinese armistice.

PATTY CHAMPION

Nice, France — (U.P.) — Budge Patty, Los Angeles' "gift" to Paris beat Jaroslav Drobný of Egypt, 15-13, 6-2, 6-4 to win the men's crown in the Cannes Indoor Tennis Championships Sunday while Althea Gibson of New York won the women's title with a 6-1, 6-2 triumph over Shirley Bloomer of Great Britain.

Medford cause.

Coach Frank Roelandt said he would call a squad meeting today to map plans for future practices. Only two actual drills were contemplated by the mentor this week but work will resume full scale next week. Tournament games begin on March 13.

Ashland spilled Klamath 63 to 62 Saturday to end in a third place tie with Grants Pass, in the final standings. Klamath, second place team goes to the state meet along with Medford.

Measles danger for the Tornado lies in the fact that a number of the players could come down with the disease just before the big tournament. Ron Davis of the Cavemen missed both week end games because of the illness.

Archer Nabs Pin Crown

Portland — (U.P.) — Warren Archer of Eugene bowled a three-game total of 655 last night to capture the class A men's singles title in the 15th annual Oregon men's bowling championships.

Team winner in the seven-week tournament was Gerlinger Carrier Co., Dallas, with 2918. Doubles winners in the A division were Kely Allen and Clayton Gross of Portland with 1309.

Malin Wins In Klamath

Klamath Falls — Malin won the Klamath-Lake county B basketball tournament Saturday night and will meet St. Mary's of Medford at Ashland next Friday and Saturday for the championship of District 5B.

The Mustangs whipped Chiloquin 68 to 54 in finals for their third straight Klamath-Lake title. They are defending district champions and were runners up last year for the state mantle.

W. Hileman Trapshoot Class Victor

Walter Hileman, Cottage Grove, Gilbert Smith, Vern Moore, Klamath Falls, and Martin Clogston, Medford, won top honors yesterday in the second day of the early spring trapshoot at Medford Gun club.

Hileman led 16-yard shooters and won Class A with 98 out of 100. Smith won a three way shoot-off with Clogston and Joe Brooks, Medford, in the handicap after each broke 94. Moore and Clogston had 44s to take Class I and II doubles trophies, respectively.

In 16-yards Dr. J. Martin Adams, Klamath Falls, won Class B with 97, Gene Hunt, Medford, took Class C with 94 and Luke Biden, Prospect, won Class D with 87.

Smith busted 23 in the handicap extra and Clogston and Brooks each 22. Clogston took the coin toss for the runner-up trophy.

PGE Signals Plan To Go Ahead With Pelton Dam Project

Portland — (U.P.) — Portland General Electric company, faced with considerable opposition to its plans for construction of Pelton dam on the Deschutes river, has authorized a $173,000 contract for the project, signalling the company's intention to go ahead with construction of the controversial project as one of Oregon's most popular fishing streams.

The initial contract announced was granted to Fred H. Slate and E. C. Hall company of Portland for construction of some four miles of access road into the project site, west of the city of Madras.

Fishing Interests Object — The major opposition voiced against construction of the dam has come from sports fishing interests and others who contend the construction would harm the wish runs on the river.

The company's request for a license to construct the dam was denied by the Oregon Hydroelectric commission. The U. S. Supreme court over-ruled the state body in a decision last June, however.

PGE Board Chairman Thomas W. Delzell said that in a bid call and specifications issued early last week for major dam structures, general details of a fish ladder almost three miles long, having a gradient much less steep than the successful ladders at Bonneville dam and other large projects were included. The single ladder would bypass both the main Pelton dam and a smaller re-regulating dam 2½ miles downstream.

Delzell described the proposed ladder as a "unique and exciting contribution toward the solution of the fish vs. power controversy that has plagued and badgered the economic progress of the Pacific Northwest for so long."

Russian Titlist — Helsinki, Finland — (U.P.) — Yevgei Grishin, who won two gold medals for Russia in the recent Winter Olympics, Sunday won the European speed skating championships with a score of 190.692 points to 190.788 for second-place Knut Johannesen of Norway.

SKIER INJURED — Lenzerheide, Switzerland — (U.P.) — Marvin Melville of Salt Lake City, Utah, 21-year-old member of the United States Olympic ski team, suffered a double fracture of the right leg Sunday in an international meet. Melville was treated on the scene by a local doctor and then removed to a hospital at nearby Chaire.
