Walter J. Pearson, Portland, also filed for at-large delegate to the Democratic national convention.

Anti-Horn Tooting Drive in New York

New York —(U.P.)— New York City sets out at midnight tonight to restore some peace and quiet to its noisy streets with a drive against horn tooting.

The drive comes to a silent climax in two weeks when it becomes a fine or jail offense to nudge the car in front of you with your horn.

An anti-horn honking committee thinks the whole program will silence New York just as a similar campaign eliminated noise from the streets of Paris some years ago.

"It took just two weeks to make Paris a quiet city," said Arde Buliva, chairman of the Bulova Watch Co. and head of the committee.

Italian President Asks US Investments

Washington — (U.P.) — Italian President Giovanni Gronchi planned to urge President Eisenhower at a White House meeting today to encourage greater American investment in Italy's growing economy.

The Italian chief of state also wanted to exchange ideas with Mr. Eisenhower on general world problems. Advance notices indicated some blunt criticism of American policies.

Their meeting was the top event of the second day of Gronchi's historic goodwill visit to the United States. His visit is the first for an Italian chief of state to the United States while in office.

Norblad To Support Federal Road Program

Klamath Falls — (U.P.) — Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.) today assured Klamath County Judge U. E. Reeder he would give his every support" to a federal highway program at this session of Congress.

Norblad, a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, wrote to Judge Reeder in answer to a telegram. The judge had wired Norblad expressing hope that need for the legislation would transcend party lines.

Paris Thief May Get Fatally Wrapped in Work

Paris — (U.P.) — A Paris thief may get fatally wrapped up in his work if police don't find him first.

A citywide search is on for a 12-foot long boa constrictor which had been peacefully sleeping around hot water bottles in a dancer's valise—at least until the suitcase was stolen in the Pigalle area Monday.

The snake was to have appeared with dancer Arlette Peters in her "dance of the serpents."

ROBBER GETS $60

Portland — (U.P.) — A holdup man escaped with $60 from a southwest Portland service station last night.

Peron in New Home Near U. S. Embassy

Panama City, Panama — (U.P.) — Former Argentine Dictator Juan D. Peron set himself up in a new home today one block from the U.S. embassy.

Peron drove here from Colon Monday after being evicted from the U.S.-government owned Hotel Washington. He moved into new quarters in a modern apartment building up the street from the American seafront embassy.

The ousted dictator was asked to move after several U.S. congressmen had protested his living in the Hotel Washington.

Danny Kaye Nominated Ambassador To Asia

Bloomington, Ill.—(U.P.) — Dr. Stanley Spector, far eastern expert, Monday night nominated comedian Danny Kaye as a United States ambassador to Asia.

Spector, an assistant professor at Washington university in St. Louis, Mo., said, "All the Asians want is someone who is human and loves them. I would not hesitate to nominate Danny Kaye as ambassador to any southeast Asian nation."

Marine Engineers Agree On $100 Pension Plan

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Officials of the Marine Engineers Beneficial association and the Pacific Maritime association have agreed on a pension plan for engineers aboard West Coast ships.

The plan, which is retroactive to Jan. 1, affects about 4000 men. It provides a pension of $100 a month for any licensed engineer who retired at the age of 65 after 20 years of service.

Groundwork Laid for Antarctic Station

San Francisco —(U.P.)— Seven Air Force men returned yesterday from a two-month tour of duty in the Antarctic, where they helped lay the groundwork for establishment of a scientific station within 300 miles of the South Pole next fall.

The seven served with Operation Deep Freeze, which is currently establishing bases on the continent.

Capt. Arthur Grafe of Phoebus, Va., tactical operations officer, said giant Globemaster planes will be used to parachute 485 tons of equipment onto the icepack next October.

The equipment will include a 10,000-pound stripped down Caterpillar tractor and prefabricated housing. It will be used by American scientists taking part in a seven-nation observance of the International Geophysical year in Antarctica.

Boys, 15, Admit Starting School Fire

Portland —(U.P.)— Police said two 15-year-old boys admitted yesterday starting fires at the newly constructed Rose City Park primary school Sunday evening that caused damage estimated at $25,000. The boys admitted shooting flaming matches into the building which was slated to be turned over to the school district as soon as minor paving outside was completed.

The boys said they did not intend to start a fire, but admitted seeing matches burning inside the building when they left. Several windows had small holes broken in them through which to fire the matches with homemade "clothespin guns."

Salem, Seaside To Vote On Water Fluoridation

Salem—(U.P.)—The city council last night decided to place before the voters May 13 a proposal to put fluorides in Salem's water supply. The council rejected a suggestion that it enact an ordinance calling for fluoridation. Such a proposal once was beaten here.

Seaside —(U.P.)— Sufficient petitions were filed here yesterday to put the fluoridation issue on the May primary ballot.

Seaside had been the only Clatsop county community not to approve use of fluorides in drinking water to combat dental cavities.

THE All-New RAMBLER/ CROSS COUNTRY •

Yes, come see why everybody wants it—the sensational All-New Rambler for '56! Slip behind the wheel for a demonstration and you'll lose your heart. For never before have you driven a car so responsive . . . so quick and nimble in traffic . . . so easy to park and turn in tight spots. Never have you driven a car with such superb getaway . . . and amazing fuel economy of up to 30 miles per gallon. Never have you driven a car with such head-turning style . . . six-passenger spaciousness with lavish interior luxury you'd look for only in cars costing $5,000 or more.

"You won't find a better buy in the entire world," says Tom McCahill, famed auto expert in February Mechanix Illustrated. And when you see the Rambler . . . drive it . . . and price it, you'll agree because Ramblers cost less to buy, cost less to operate, bring more when you trade or sell.

THE SECRET'S UNDER THE SKIN

No other car in the low-price field can give you Single-Unit Construction.

Rambler construction provides a superior power-to-weight ratio, gives more room inside and offers far better handling and greater safety than any car in its class.
