

TROUBLE ON THE LABOR FRONT—Strikers and non-strikers clash for the fifth straight day outside the Republic Aviation Corp. plant at Farmingdale, N. Y. Some 300 workers tried getting into the plant through gate from Long Island Railroad but pickets were aboard the same train. Six pickets were arrested.

A Nichol's Worth of . . . Comment On This and That

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS United Press Feature Writer

Washington — (U.P.) — The Smiths are forever popping up in the news, but how often do you hear about the Jones boys?

That's what kicks up the tiger in my new friend, Barry Jones.

"Dad blame it," he said, "the Smith boys are in the papers all the time. But some of them are hybrid. Some spell it 'Smith' and some 'Smythe' and ever which way.

"But there is only one way to spell 'Jones' unless you spell it backward like 'Senoj.' And that way, it isn't proper and also does not make much sense."

Barry would like you all to know that he is among the "un-counted millions" of Jones boys. No Foul Balls

"And there isn't a foul ball or hybrid in the flock," he said. Barry was here to toot a horn for a new picture he is starring in. Produced by United Artists, it is called "Alexander The Great."

Our man plays the role of Aristotle, who was supposed to be Alexander's teacher, before the young man kicked his horse in the flanks and went galloping down the glory road.

But getting back to the Joneses. Barry says he's looked up the family tree "which is considerably way up there."

"Near as I can figure," he said, "is that it used to be spelled 'Jehan' or something like that." On the Move

Barry, a Britisher, is proud to wear the badge of the Jones clan.

Engine Derailed Near Oakridge

Oakridge — (U.P.) — A two-unit diesel locomotive, sweeping the Southern Pacific's main line clear of snow, was derailed about 30 miles east of here yesterday afternoon, blocking passage of trains through the Cascades for nearly eight hours. No one was injured in the mishap.

The derailment occurred near Cirdler Hill at the 4,000-foot level where snow is piled up along the tracks in 15-foot drifts. The engine was one of several that has been working around the clock to keep the tracks open over the Cascade summit, where a snow slide only a week ago nearly engulfed a freight train and forced closure of the line.

Railroad officials said the engine was equipped with a flanger for sweeping the tracks clear of snow. The flanger apparently struck a snow covered stump which in turn uprooted three sections of track and turned the locomotive over. A relief train and crane from Eugene was rushed to the scene.

Electric Trains Said For Boys Over Eight

Madison, Wis. — (U.P.) — If your son got an electric train for Christmas and he's less than eight years old, he would have been better off with a wooden train.

That's the opinion of Viola Hunt, family life specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

She said that a boy "is not ready for an electric train until he's about eight or nine years old. Until then, he'll be happier with a wooden train he can push around by himself."

Miss Hunt said that toys, like clothing, should fit the child who receives them.

Two Klamath Men Get Prison Terms

Klamath Falls — (U.P.) — Two men received 10-year prison sentences yesterday in separate manslaughter cases.

George Dumont, 55-year-old saw filer, was sentenced to 10 years in the state penitentiary and a $500 fine. Dumont was found guilty of killing Jason Charles, 50, during an argument over a proposed deer hunting expedition last October at Lone Pine.

Marcellus John Norwest, 26, also got 10 years and was fined $500 for the Oct. 21 slaying of Jackie Howard Jones, 24-year-old former divinity school student.

Norwest was indicted for second degree murder but later pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of manslaughter. Police said Jones was shot in an argument over a case of beer.

Hartford, Conn. — (U.P.) — From now on, when storekeepers announce going-out-of-business sales, they'd better get out of business. Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff signed into law a bill outlawing phony "close-out" sales by fly-by-night storekeepers and vendors.

Douglas Says Choice Better Than Nothing Hollywood — (U.P.) — Kirk Douglas, picked by the Harvard Lampoon as the worst actor of 1955, said today he considered it better to be named the worst than not to be named at all. Douglas, who "won" his accolade from Lampoon for performance in "Ulysses" and "The Indian Fighter," quoted from the 18th century poet, John Wolcot: "What rage for fame attends both great and small! Better be damned than mentioned not at all." Debbie Reynolds, named the worst actress of 1955 for "Hit The Deck!" and "Susan Slept Here," was unavailable for comment. Providence, R. I. — (U.P.) — George Miller, assistant chef at a local hotel, served a recent weekend "special" that consisted of 450 pounds of shark meat he had hooked himself.

STAYING ON Grand Rapids, Mich. — (U.P.) — Nine out of 10 men and women who have been treated at Grand Rapids' Alcoholics Center since it opened last September have remained "on the wagon" after leaving, clinic officials said. The center is the first municipal clinic for alcoholics in Michigan.
