7 Benefits of PRE-PACKAGED PRODUCE

NO WAITING . . .

Shop quickly or leisurely. Checkout service speeds up because produce is plainly marked and can be handled quickly.

TABLE READY . . .

You pay for no waste. Everything is trimmed and washed, ready for home use.

GREATER SELECTION . . .

Pre-packaged produce takes less display space permitting larger variety. Most items are packed in different size packages for different size families.

LESS SPOILAGE . . .

The wrapping prevents oxidation, thereby giving the item a longer refrigerated life.

CLEANLINESS . . .

No store dust or dirt can enter the package. No "Picking Over" by other customers can soil the product, thereby assuring you of complete sanitation.

TOP QUALITY . . .

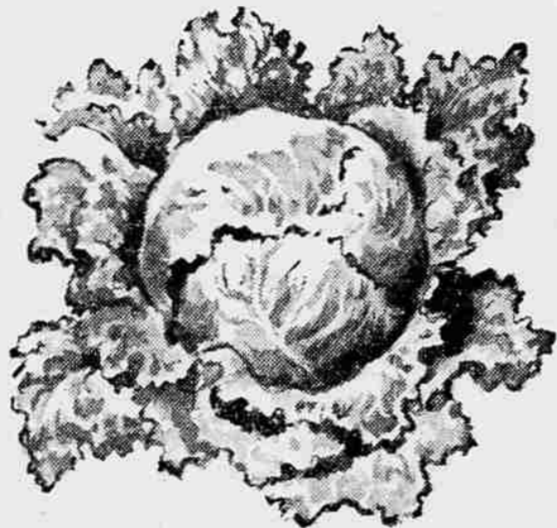

Everything is No. 1 grade merchandise. All merchandise sold at the BIG Y, of course, carries the BIG Y unconditional guarantee. Satisfaction on anything or your purchase price refunded.

NO EXTRA COST . . .

There is no extra charge for packaging; the price is the same as if the produce were sold loose. Of course, if you don't see the size package that you want, we will be happy to break one of the larger packages and let you have what you want.

Laughs of the Day . . .

Santa Monica, Calif.—(U.P.)—A judge fined Farel R. Jones, 48, of Inglewood, Calif., $105 on reckless driving charges Wednesday because he refused to move his car on police orders.

Chicago — (U.P.) — A would-be bogus check passer took the only way out when a suspicious currency exchange clerk pressed a button locking the street door. "I must go now—I've an appointment," the man said, and walked straight through the glass door.

Chicago — (U.P.) — Three masked bandits set out to rob a suburban Elmwood bank Wednesday but because of poor planning never even got inside. The Elmwood bank is closed on Wednesday.

Conshohocken, Pa. — (U.P.) — Conshohocken firemen are having trouble finding fires these days because they can't understand the calls on their radio system. They say they have been getting Spanish voices from Cuba on the fire engine sets for the past week. They blame sunspots.

Fort Worth, Tex.—(U.P.)—Joe Truman Allen's wife testified at their divorce trial that the 33-year-old packinghouse worker did not wait for court action to divide their community property. Mrs. Allen said her husband took their chairs and a sofa apart and put the pieces in two equal piles. When he came to the dining room table he sawed it in half, she said.

Grand Prairie, Tex.—(U.P.)—T. E. Wright of Grand Prairie told investigators that a fire which resulted when his motorcycle backfired not only did $300 damage to his machine and burned a nearby grass plot but set fire to the seat of his pants.

12-Year-Old Girl Weds Laborer, 21

Spartanburg, S. C.—(U.P.)—A 12-year-old girl who still likes to play with the dolls she got last Christmas is now the bride of a 21-year-old pulpwood cutter.

Probate Judge J. William Davenport revealed today that he performed the ceremony Feb. 28 after Mrs. Leonard Coleman swore that her daughter Minnie was 14. South Carolina law permits girls to be married at 14 with parental consent. The bride, nicknamed "Susie," and her husband, Robert Olin Good Jr., are living with Mrs. Coldman in Greer, N. C. The bride will be 13 on July 24.

Drunk Pleads Guilty To Threatening Ike

Gulfport, Miss.—(U.P.)—Police held for observation today a Biloxi, Miss., laborer charged with writing a letter threatening to kill President Eisenhower.

Officers arrested James Winterstein, 31. He admitted writing the brief note to the President which said: "I'll kill you, I'll kill you, I'll kill you." Biloxi Police Chief Herbert McDonnell said Winterstein claimed he was drunk when he penned the note.

He pleaded guilty at a preliminary hearing and was turned over to federal authorities.

Tunnel Explosion Hurts 2 Portlanders

Portland — (U.P.) — An explosion in a tunnel below a downtown Portland intersection yesterday resulted in apparently minor injuries to two Portland General Electric company crewmen.

Cause of the explosion was undetermined. Company spokesmen said there apparently was a short in a 4100-volt primary junction box.

Eugene Wesley Harvey and Gordon C. Williams, the two workmen who were inside the tunnel were taken to a local hospital with flash burns about the face and hands.

TAX TROUBLE — Massachusetts Democratic Rep. Thomas J. Lane (above), who once criticized the U. S. Internal Revenue Department's probe of tax delinquents, faces charges of tax evasion. He was indicted by a federal grand jury in Boston on charges of evading $38,543 in income taxes from 1949 through 1951.
