William Prentice Elected President Of United Crusade

William H. Prentice was elected president of the United Medford crusade at the annual dinner meeting March 8. Robert J. Cunningham, past president, was elected first vice-president; Edward Branchfield, second vice-president; and Ray M. Sorenson, treasurer.

Directors elected were T. K. Oliver, Alvin E. York, Tom G. Polk, M. Miller Huggins, Vincent P. Bevis and Merle Folland, M.D. Representatives of agencies served by the UMC and of UMC chapters in the larger firms attended the meeting.

The Rev. Charles A. Epple, pastor of the Eugene United Lutheran church spoke to the group concerning "What makes a good community." Discusses Contribution

Mr. Epple discussed Albert Schweitzer's contribution in helping others and concluded his talk with the statement that "it is the spirit of giving and the desire to contribute to the needs of others that is the real source of community greatness."

Cunningham was presented an award by the board for his "devotion to community service." Huggins, campaign chairman, presented awards to the following fall campaign workers:

Prentice, Russ Brown, Edmund E. Hass, Lon Skinner, Brad Pritchett, Frank Benesh, Ray Johnson, W. C. Degerness, Tom Shepard, Chuck Baucum, Joe Brooks, Dick House, Guy Hayes, Elliott Becken, Bob Duncan, Dr. Folland, Mrs. Scott Davis, and Mrs. E. A. Littrell.

B. L. Nutting was presented an honorary board member award. Also honored was the late Tracy Crum.
