

Mrs. Joseph Allen Braden, the former Leora Marie Andrews, was married to Dr. Braden in a nuptial mass at St. James Catholic church, Denver, Colo., February 4. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Andrews, 216 Laurel street, Medford. —(Paul's-Denver)

Rites Wed Couple In Denver

Miss Leora Marie Andrews became the bride of Dr. Joseph Allen Braden at a nuptial mass at St. James Catholic church, Denver, Colo., Saturday morning, February 4. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Andrews, 216 Laurel street, Medford, and Dr. Braden is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Braden of Hondo, Tex.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a chapel length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white satin. The fitted bodice had a dropped waistline, and a portrait neckline outlined with heart shaped motifs of seed pearls and white sequins. The matching lace cap with the same motif held a finger-tip illusion veil.

She carried a white orchid and white hyacinths and wore a single strand of cultured pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Colleen Page, Oakland, Calif., and Miss Jann McCord, Berkeley, Calif., were attendants for the bride. They wore street-length frocks of cornflower blue velvet and powder blue taffeta with matching accessories. Miss Page carried yellow roses and Miss McCord pink roses.

Best man was Conrad Hopperstead, New Braunfels, Tex., brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Following the double-ring ceremony a wedding breakfast was held in the Rose room at The Tiffin.

After a two-week honeymoon by auto and plane the newlyweds are at home in Houston, Tex.

Mrs. Braden attended schools in Portland and Gold Beach, Ore., and San Diego State college where she was a member of Alpha Phi. Dr. Braden is a graduate of A&M college of Texas.

The bride's parents and Mrs. Eda Richardson of Medford were in Denver for the wedding.

Parents Attend Wedding of Son To Kentucky Girl

Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Schoenberg, Camp White, returned by plane Thursday from Louisville, Ky., where they attended the wedding of Miss Mary Louise Flynn of Louisville to the Schoenbergs' son, Richard A. Schoenberg.

The ceremony was held February 24 in the chapel of Highland Methodist church at 8 o'clock in the evening. Dr. Edward Fisk Norton performed the rites.

Mrs. Allene Lynn was matron of honor and Willis Weber served as best man.

Only relatives of the two families and close friends of the couple attended.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gies, also in Louisville. They made their honeymoon trip to Cincinnati, Ohio, and the couple is living at 714 Hazel street in Louisville.

The bride attended schools in Louisville and also the University of Louisville.

The bridegroom, a graduate of University of Oregon and American Institute for Foreign Trade in Phoenix, Ariz., now is engaged in an executive training program with Brown and Williamson Tobacco corporation, Louisville, Ky. He is scheduled for a foreign assignment in the near future.

On the return trip Dr. and Mrs. Schoenberg stopped in Chicago and visited with friends from Rockford, Ill. Dr. Schoenberg visited the Veterans Administration Training center there. At Lincoln, Neb., they visited relatives.

Daughters to Meet

Elta Deuel Hubbs tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, will meet Tuesday, March 13 at 8 p.m., in the county courthouse auditorium.

Society Announces Annual Luncheon

First plans for the 26th annual Easter Monday luncheon sponsored by St. Anne's Altar society of Sacred Heart church have been made. The event will be held April 2 at 12:30 p.m. at Rogue Valley Country club and reservations should be made now by calling Mrs. W. F. Cowling, telephone 3-2974.

Mrs. James C. Miller Jr., president of the society has also announced the names of her committee heads. They are Mrs. Fred T. Burdick, Mrs. Paul Haviland, Mrs. W. F. Scruggs, Mrs. Raymond Wise and Mrs. Cowling. The first four are members of the general committee and Mrs. Wise has charge of decorations while Mrs. Cowling is receiving the reservations.

Cards will be diversion of the afternoon with choices of bridge, pinochle or canasta.

Attendance at this spring event is a tradition with many Medford women.

Margaret Huson Receives Honor At Willamette

Miss Margaret Huson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Huson, 45 Lindley avenue, was chosen coed of the month by Associated Women Students cabinet at Willamette university, Salem.

The student is a past president of AWS and a past president of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary society. A senior and a music major, Miss Huson was vice-president and song leader of her sorority, Delta Gamma, and was 1954 Betty Coed.

Plan Party

Degree of Honor lodge will conduct a public card party Monday, March 12 at 8 p.m., in the Redman hall. It will follow a business session.

Democratic Women To Give Series of Teas in Valley

Women of the Democratic party in this area have begun a series of teas to raise money for their party's campaign funds. The first in the series was given Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert A. Boyer, 649 South Ivy street. Democratic candidates for national and state offices are expected to attend some of the events.

Mrs. Mark Norton, Phoenix, and Mrs. Larry Sheehan, Rogue River, will be hostesses for teas during the week of March 12 to 17. Mrs. Sidney Ainsworth and Mrs. L. P. Wilmett, Ashland, and Mrs. Robert B. Duncan and Mrs. Harlan Bosworth Jr., will entertain the week of March 19 to 24.

Mrs. George Watson and Mrs. W. G. Werner plan similar events the following week and others who will participate at later dates are Mrs. Scott Hamilton, Mrs. Edward C. Kelly, Mrs. William V. Deatherage and Mrs. Moore Hamilton.

Charles O. Porter and David Shaw, candidates for Democratic nomination for the United States Congress, fourth district, have been invited to attend some of the events.

Also teas are planned at which Robert A. Boyer and Robert B. Duncan, Democratic candidates for the Oregon state legislature, will be guests.

Mrs. Bosworth is chairman of the teas and Mrs. Deatherage has charge of scheduling the out-of-town political guests.

A Cappella Choir To Give Concert Here on Friday

The 60-voice a cappella choir of Lewis and Clark college of Portland will present a concert in Medford Friday, March 16, at 8 p.m., in First Presbyterian church. Said to be one of the outstanding choir of the west, the group is on its eighth annual tour of cities in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and California.

Director of the choir is L. Stanley Glarum, member of the music faculty of Lewis and Clark, whose compositions are played and sung in many churches of the United States. Critics, pleased by the tonal quality and technical skill of the choir, have greatly praised Mr. Glarum, the church states.

With "Music in the Finest Choral Tradition" as its motto, the choir interprets the music of outstanding composers of choral works.

Miss Dorothy Wymore, a member of the choir, is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hon. 213 Crater Lake avenue. Miss Wymore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Wymore of Portland, is attending Lewis and Clark on a scholarship when she was a senior at Grant high school in Portland.

Adarel to Honor Mrs. John Pond

Mrs. John R. Pond, member of the endowment fund committee of the grand chapter of Oregon, Order of Eastern Star, will be honored by Adarel chapter at a reception this week. It will follow the chapter's stated meeting Thursday, March 15, at the Masonic hall in Jacksonville at 8 p.m.

The committee in charge will be Mrs. Harris M. Olson, chairman, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Conley, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gregory, Mrs. Fred Offenbacher, Mrs. Kershaw Miller and Mrs. Herslof.

Adarel Past Matrons' club will hold the March meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Coggin, 1329 Beekman Avenue, Medford, Monday, March 12. It will be preceded by a 12:30 p.m. luncheon. Mrs. Ed Pease will preside at the meeting.

Wisconsin Couple Visitors in Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Wood, Clear Lake, Wis., are visiting in the valley this week end. They arrived Friday and first visited with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Olson, Winchester avenue, and now are with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blank at Phoenix. The Woods are former Bend residents but have lived in Clear Lake for a number of years. This is their first visit to the Rogue valley.

Krows Traveling South by Motor

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Krows, 1215 East Main street, left last week for an automobile trip to southwest states and Mexico. They plan to return about April 10 and their travel route includes Tucson, Ariz.; Mazatlan, Tepic, Guadalajara, Morelia and Mexico City. En route home they will visit at El Paso, Tex.

Rosella Theesfeld Becomes Bride of Frank E. English

Mrs. Rosella L. Theesfeld, and Frank E. English, were married in a small ceremony Saturday, March 3, in the Fireplace room of First Presbyterian church. Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated for the double-ring service.

The bride, a daughter of Mrs. Leda Durand, 1431 East Main street, wore a plum purple suit with lavender orchid corsage for the ceremony.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at Newport, Ore., and are living at the East Main street address for the present.

Four Generations Guests at Party

Four generations were represented at a party March 7 which observed the birthday anniversary of twin sisters, Mrs. E. B. Van Horn and Mrs. Delores Young. The event was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cox at Grant acres, Central Point. A potluck dinner was served.

Mrs. Lily Lay, mother of the twins was at the event, and others who made up the four generations there are Mrs. Van Horn, and her daughter, Mrs. Lee Lucas, and Mrs. Lucas' daughter, Mary Lucas.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lucas, and Bill Lucas; Roy Lay and Vernon Lay, Mrs. Boyd Klien Jr., Cathy and Curtis; Lee Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Van Horn, Alan Young, Nancy Young, E. V. Van Horn, Julie Van Horn, Susan Cox and Pamela Cox.

Traveler Honored At Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Will Summers, Coleman Creek road, who are spending a part of the winter in southwestern Arizona, were honored at a surprise gathering of other mobile home owners March 4 at Organ Pipe National monument, Arizona. The occasion observed the 73rd birthday anniversary of Mr. Summers.

Over 50 persons attended and the Summers were presented a gift. A lunch also was served out-of-doors.

Blue Star Mothers Plan Business Session

Blue Star Mothers will hold a business meeting at Carpenters' hall, 123 1/2 West Main st., at 1:30 p.m., Thursday, March 15. Mothers of men or women who have served in the armed forces of the United States are cordially invited to attend.

Medford Women To Travel Abroad

Among Medford residents traveling in Europe this spring and summer will be Mrs. W. A. Thompson, 135 North Holly street, and Mrs. William H. Fluhrer, Lyman avenue.

Mrs. Thompson, who left Medford some time ago, is now visiting a sister, Mrs. C. B. Drake, Norfolk, Va. She will sail from New York April 25 on the S.S. United States for Southampton, England. Mrs. Thompson plans to travel in France, Italy, Germany, Holland and Switzerland before returning home in June.

Since arriving in the east Mrs. Thompson has visited the cities of Richmond and Williamsburg and also spent some time in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Drake attended sessions of the United States senate on passes supplied by Senator Byrd of Virginia.

Mrs. Fluhrer will leave Medford about the middle of this month and will sail March 20 for Italy. There she plans to join Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Aldrich, former Medford residents now living in the Hawaiian islands and who are on a round-the-world trip.

The three will take delivery of a car and tour Europe by motor.

Medical Student Visits Parents

Howard Huenergardt left Saturday evening after visiting for a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huenergardt, 51 South Stage road. He is junior student at the College of Medical Evangelists, Los Angeles section.

The student attended Rogue River academy at his pre-medical work and did his missionary college near Chattanooga, Tenn.

Miss Hope Harriott (Landis-Shangie photo)

Hope Harriott, Thomas To Wed in June

A June wedding is planned by Miss Hope Harriott and Thomas J. Tilton, whose engagement was announced last week.

The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Harriott of 25 North Peach street. She is an art major at Medford Senior high school and is to be graduated in June.

Her fiancé, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Tilton, 1032 East Jackson street, is a 1949 graduate of Medford Senior high school. He recently re-enlisted in the Air Force.

Nancy Jennings Contest Winner

Miss Nancy Jennings, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Jennings, 218 Saginaw drive, was awarded a $25 Raider scholarship at Southern Oregon college as winner of a contest in sales coverage for this year's yearbook at the college.

She is a major in elementary education and is member of the "Siskiyew" staff, and the Drama club at the college.

Central Point Women Plan Luncheon Meeting

Central Point — A potluck luncheon will be served Wednesday, March 14, at noon for Navy Mothers club of Central Point. The all-day session will open at 10 a.m., and will be held at the home of Mrs. Floyd Ditch, North 10th street. Mothers or wives of Navy personnel are invited.

Students Named To All-State Group

Thirteen Medford Senior high school orchestra students have been selected to play with an all-state high school orchestra in Portland, March 14, 15 and 16. Jacob Avshalomov, conductor of the Portland Junior symphony, will direct the 150-member orchestra and the group will appear in concert Friday afternoon, March 16 at the Portland civic auditorium.

They will perform before members of the Oregon Educators association meeting there in convention. Radio broadcasts and telecasts will be made in the Portland area.

Those who have been selected from here to appear with group are Sonja Peterson, Nancy Walstead, Molly Walker, Ruth Phillips, Freda Rawstern, violinists; Deanna Campbell, Betty Hershiser, Dorin Ryn, Shirley Stafford, Karen Lytle, violists; Terry Breerton, Carol McKinley, and Pat Kahle, string bass players.

John Drysdale, director, will accompany the group. They will leave at 3 a.m., Wednesday, March 14, by bus.

During the first two days they will participate in rehearsals.

Earl Days Home From Trip South

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Day, Blue Moon ranch, have returned home after spending six weeks in California and New Orleans. The Days were guests of Mr. Day's son-in-law and daughter, Comdr. and Mrs. Thomas Durkin in New Orleans, and attended the Mardi Gras.

The commander will be transferred soon to a new Navy assignment at the Naval Air base, Olathe, Kan., where he will be a jet flight instructor.

Before returning to Medford, the Days spent some time in Mississippi and in various California cities.

Blossom Time Show Set By Nevita Club

Central Point — Plans are being completed for Nevita Social club's annual Blossom Time luncheon and fashion show to be held Friday, April 27, at 1 p.m. The event will be held at the Junior High school gymnasium on Pacific highway, Central Point.

Mrs. Wyles E. Berry, general chairman, will be assisted by two co-chairmen, Mrs. Melville Harsh and Mrs. Frank Ward.

Knife-Fork Club To Meet March 26

Cy Radcliffe, owner of a small business and a former newspaperman, will speak before Rogue Valley Knife and Fork club Monday, March 26 at Rogue Valley Country club. Dinner will be served at 6:45 p.m. Reservations should be made with remittances not later than Saturday, March 24 with Mrs. O. A. Eden, 211 Genessee street.

An advance release of the speaker's subject, "Big Government vs. Small Business," explains that Mr. Radcliffe challenges the combined powers of labor and government in operation of a small firm.

Family Arrives For Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Smith and family, Eureka, Calif., former local residents, arrived Friday evening to visit with Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Gertrude Winningham, and other relatives and to meet Mr. Smith's mother, his sister and brother-in-law.

The latter group is arriving here this week end from Jacksonville, N. C. They are Mrs. Louise Smith and Master Sgt. and Mrs. P. F. Folz. The Folz family is in transit from Jacksonville to Oceanside, Calif., his next station.

The Smiths moved from here about five years ago.

GIFT Ideas!

That Are Different You'll find them here at prices you want to pay.

See Our Gay, New Collection of Italian

Straw Baskets

to lend fresh charm and distinctive beauty to flower arrangements and plants.

Phone 3-1733
Ginn's
Flowers • Gifts
26 SOUTH CENTRAL

Frisky, little shoe with stitched tucks on the high riding vamp. Feel its gentle softness... see how flexible it is... little wonder it's such a joy to wear!

$11.95

- Desert Sand
- Absinthe Green
- Sorrell Tan
- Pink

Johnston and Stewart

SHOES
HOSIERY
HANDBAGS

The Corner Shoe Store
Main at Central Medford

It's wonderful to be in love... wonderful to give an Artcarved* Diamond Ring. Beloved by brides for over 100 years, each Artcarved ring is registered and guaranteed by its famous maker — and by us. We are confident that you are getting the finest when you select Artcarved.

TOP — EDMONT SET
BOTTOM — BRIDAL SET

Convenient Terms

LAWRENCE'S

YOUR SILVER STORE

Specializing in Fine Diamonds and Watches, Too!

130 EAST MAIN EST. 1908

We are proud to announce that

Mr. Oscar

Internationally Famous

Hair Stylist

will be in our salon

Monday thru Saturday

MARCH 12th — 17th

MR. OSCAR is Famed For his personalized Hair Styles

and New

WAVING TECHNIQUES

No Charge for Consultation

BEAUTY SALON

Mann's
MEDFORD

Second Floor