Future Teachers Honored By Chapter; Officers Named

Members of Future Teachers of America clubs of Jackson county were guests of Epsilon chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, at a potluck dinner held in the Medford Senior High school cafeteria, Tuesday evening. Presiding over the meeting was Mrs. Kathryn Standcliffe, Phoenix, president of Epsilon chapter.

Theme of the meeting was "Teaching is Fun." Mrs. Mabel Winston, registrar of Southern Oregon college, welcomed the future teachers as a representative of higher education. Miss Yvonne Click of Ashland High school sang two numbers. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Swift.

Mrs. Una B. Inch, speaking on the topic, "Teaching is Fun," pointed out to the future teachers that there is more action, drama and enthusiasm in children than in people of any other age. In teaching one always meets the unexpected, she said. She ended her talk with a poem on "Understanding." It illustrated that understanding of the people the teacher teaches is one of the greatest of his assets.

Miss Ina Freeman, librarian and dean of girls of Talent, emphasized that teaching is working together with others for something that is larger than ourselves. This makes for worthy and lasting friendships, the speaker declared. "Freely ye have received, freely give"—that is teaching, Miss Freeman said.

Miss Freeman is sponsor of the Florence Allen chapter, Future Teacher of America, and with her from Talent were Miss Julie Hansen, president, Miss Priscilla Welch, Miss Doris Bench, Miss Kathleen Kerns, Dwight Smelzer, William Grant, and Frank Long.

Clair Gurwell, sponsor of Una B. Inch chapter of Medford was present with the Misses Dana Ragsdale, Nancy Adams, Delora Dunn, Shelia Spence, Carol Risher, Vickie Robertson and Maralee Chisholm; Walter Humphrey, Miss Linda White, Miss Beverly Casler, Miss Carol Ballard, Fred Baker, Miss Sharon Wyomere and Miss Sandra Buxton.

Miss Florence Allen, sponsor of the Southern Oregon college chapter was present with Jack Stuckey, Miss Sharon Buckley, Miss Donna Sunberg, Mrs. Nancy Stuckey and John Stuckey.

Following dinner members of Epsilon chapter remained for a business meeting. Plans for the state convention to be held in Medford in April were discussed and officers were elected to serve for the next two years. They are president, Mrs. Alice Otis, Grants Pass; first vice-president, Mrs. Alice Willits, Ashland; second vice-president, Miss Anna Laura Honts, Medford; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Merle Woodward, Grants Pass; recording secretary, Mrs. Gladys Sloan, Phoenix and parliamentarian, Mrs. Esther Fliegel, Medford.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Virginia Wait, chairman, Miss Gladys Owen, Miss Grace Lytle, Mrs. Bertha Baughman, Mrs. Mabel Sims, Mrs. Ivah Murray, Mrs. Bertha Haskins, Miss Annette Gray and Mrs. Mabel Hundley.

Cotton Lingerie Said Bewitching

Spring caters to the pretty, romantic look in cotton lingerie. It's the little touches that makes these delicate cottons so feminine and charmingly gracious... tiny ruffles, fine lace, miniature flowers, high round necklines and little-girl puff sleeves, reports the National Cotton council.

Very enchanting are the flat-surfaced little or no-iron cotton batistes in a bouquet of floral colors... crocus yellow, blue, clover pink, mint, and lily of the valley white.

Travelers can pack a complete lingerie and sleep-wear wardrobe with one theme. One of the prettiest and frothiest sleep and lingerie sets in sheer batiste is exquisitely trimmed with beading and with pastel ribbons laced through. All the pieces have round scoop necklines and deep old fashioned hems. Included in the set is a waltz gown, full length gown, short baby doll nightie, nightshirt, and a full and half slip.

Cotton slips are now beautifully styled to suit a particular figure, silhouette or taste. For the skinniest of sheath dresses, there are slim half slips with slashed sides. Under the full-skirted cottons there will be charming long torso bouffants with eyelet trim and ribbons.

The baby doll sleep sets blossom forth in many tempting new styles. For a nautical look there's a sailor-collared middy top banded in blue and with bloomers to match.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—SEVEN

Evening Frocks Both Slim Full

For gala evenings, the new resort cottons bring on the party spirit, reports the National Cotton council.

Cottons are "putting on the Ritz" in date frocks, glittered with gold embroideries. Recreating the magic of India is a party dress in Madras plaid, re-embroidered with gold and shaped with a surplice neckline and full skirt. Other date dresses are rich with the drama of the Orient and are styled as tea-timer sheaths, harem-skirted dance dresses, and minaret sheaths tied in rows of ruffles. Evening dresses go to any lengths to dazzle. This year there are two approaches to long-skirted evenings. The first is a long narrow "dress shirt" gown that has a covered-up look. For less-than-formal dates, this type gown goes all out in plaid gingham.

The second is the traditional evening silhouette: bare shoulders, sleek bodice, sweeping skirt.
