

Accident on Siskiyou—Richard Alonza Nelson, 19, Keys, Calif., and Al Nelson, 29, Ceres, Calif., escaped injury Monday night at the railroad underpass about nine miles south of Ashland, when the car Richard Nelson was driving went out of control and turned over. State police said Nelson was traveling north when he saw ice on the highway, applied his brakes and the car went out of control. The driver said the auto slid sideways about 100 feet, rolled over and came to rest on its top. Al Nelson was the only passenger. Damage to the car was reported to be extensive.
