

Candidates Quarrel Over Minnesota Primary Backers

Minneapolis, Minn. — (U.P.) — Adlai E. Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver quarreled today over Stevenson's powerful Minnesota primary backers.

It was the closest the two Democratic presidential candidates have come to attacking each other instead of the Republicans. And it was coupled with a sweeping blast against Eisenhower administration "hucksterism" from Stevenson and charges that the President is dodging decisions from Kefauver.

Campaign Strain

Stevenson, his voice cracking from the strain of the campaign, warned Kefauver at Eveleth and Grand Rapids Thursday night that he is risking a party split by attacking the Illinois' top Minnesota backers, Sen. Hubert Humphrey and Gov. Orville Freeman.

Stevenson scolded "my distinguished and respected friend" for his broad hints that Humphrey and Freeman jumped on the Stevenson bandwagon because of "ambitions outside the boundaries of the state."

"I regret that DFL Democratic-Farmer-Labor leaders should be attacked... merely because they saw fit to endorse me," Stevenson said. "I suspect the Republicans want nothing more than to divide the Democratic party. I had hoped we would not divide ourselves."

Avoid Clash

Kefauver sought to avoid a personal clash with Stevenson in a speech at Duluth.

He did not take back his statements about Freeman and Humphrey, but he promised "no word of criticism of Mr. Stevenson will come from my lips. I fought hard for him in 1952 and I would do the same in 1956 if he gets the nomination."

At Eveleth, Stevenson charged the Eisenhower administration with "deadly drift" and "huckstering, melodrama, misrepresentation and merchandising."

Kefauver accused Mr. Eisenhower of standing aside in North Africa and the Middle East "just as he is standing aside in one of the crucial issues at home—that of solving the difference between the races with charity and justice for all."

Allon Says Israel Must Keep Balance

Portland — (U.P.) — Israel must maintain a balance of power in the Near East or war between it and Egypt is inevitable, Brig. Gen. Yigal Allon of Israel's armed forces said yesterday.

Gen. Allon said danger of war has been heightened by the "vast arms" Egypt has received from Russia and other Communist countries. "Egypt already is saturated with arms," he said.

Gen. Allon is not on active duty at the present time and is on a two-month visit to this country to help raise funds for resettlement in Israel of Jewish refugees in North Africa.

SHADY COVE Report Given on Winter Trip

By EVALYN P. WATSON

Shady Cove-Trail—Mrs. Floyd Kelley a few days ago reported some of the highlights of the winter vacation trip from which the Kelleys have just returned. They were gone for three months and were in 19 different states. They spent a week at Sanibel Island in Florida, which is considered to have one of the three best shelling beaches in the U.S.

On their way to Florida they stopped off in St. Louis, Mo., where they visited Mrs. Kelley's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Madsen and family, then on to Roanoke, Va., and down the Atlantic coast. They visited relatives and friends in various places, among them Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stockstill of Picayune, Miss., parents of Mrs. Kelley's niece, Mrs. Ted Jantzer, Trail; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jantzer, formerly of Trail and now of Phoenix, Ariz., and had Christmas dinner with other former Shady Cove residents, the Arley Spain family who are also living in Phoenix where he is associated in business with Louis Jantzer. In Santa Clara, Calif., they visited with Mrs. Kelley's nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Palmer, and in Redding, Calif., with her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hetinger. In Arcadia, Calif., they visited with Mrs. Kelley's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Jantzer. They spent some time vacationing in the Florida Keys and returned home by the extreme Southern route.

Jan Williams, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Johnson of Shady Cove, is now taking piano lessons from Mrs. Lila Bates of Reese Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Davis and son, Hank, of Shady Cove flew to San Blas, Mexico, to spend the week of school spring vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Henry and sons, Chuck and Bill, are spending the week of spring vacation visiting with his mother, Mrs. Katherine Henry, Laguna Beach, Calif. Newcomers to Shady Cove from Anchorage, Alaska, are Mr.

and Mrs. O'Brien who have bought the house across from the Assembly of God church from Mr. and Mrs. George Russell. It is reported that the Russell family have moved to Medford. The O'Briens formerly lived in Shady Cove about eight years ago, staying for awhile at the Roguedale Trailer court.

Mrs. Jacalyn Langston and children, Jolinda and Johnny, will spend part of the spring vacation visiting with Mrs. Langston's cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Walser of Sacramento, Calif.

The HEC of the Shady Cove Grange, held the regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry March 13. Members and guests present were Mesdames Phil Molschenbacher, Edgar Vanderlip, Edward Houston, Cecil Kee, Travis Littlefield, Walter Cross and Isabel Wunderlich of Shady Cove and Reed McKay, Caroline Harding and the hostess, Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry of Trail.

Mrs. Edwin Strother of Shady Cove was hostess at her home on Monday afternoon for the March meeting of the Shady Cove Garden club with Mrs. Edward Houston and Mrs. Miles Williams as co-hostesses. Twenty-four member and guests were present. Guests were Mrs. Adeline Carl and Mrs. Charles Porter, both of Shady Cove. Mrs. Willard Huffman of Prospect became a new member. Plans were discussed for the proposed flower show to be held in the spring. The next meeting will be April 9 at the home of Mrs. Dick Bartuss in Shady Cove. The program for the meeting will be a talk on local birds given by the Rev. Thomas McCamant of Medford.

Mrs. Max Hawks and daughters, Sharon and Sandra, accompanied by Mrs. Dolf Larson of Shady Cove, made a trip to Days Creek March 15 where she visited with her daughter and family.

Chet Pfluke, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Segessenman, has been transferred to Yreka, Calif.

Mrs. Smith to Appeal Court Decision

San Jose, Calif. — (U.P.) — Attorneys for Mrs. Marjorie Evans Smith said yesterday they will appeal a court decision that deprived Mrs. Smith of the custody of her 3-year-old daughter, Susan.

Superior Judge M. G. Del Mutolo awarded Susan to an aunt, Mrs. Ellen Hightower of Los Gatos, Calif., after a hearing last month. The judge ruled Mrs. Smith was unfit to be a mother because her life showed "a pattern of immorality, insecurity and immaturity."

Mrs. Smith's lawyers, Bruce Spaulding of Portland, Ore., and Hugh Center of San Jose said they will appeal the decision on grounds that Santa Clara County Superior Court lacked jurisdiction in the case. Mrs. Smith was acquitted last year in the auto bombing death of her husband, Kermit, a Portland attorney.

French canal boats ordinarily metal arms to swing passengers on and off. A housewife may be swung ashore, shop the main street and rejoin the leisurely barge at the other end of town.
