THE REV. J. W. PATTEE
Nazarene Speaker

Missionary Plans Visits in Valley Nazarene Churches

The Rev. J. W. Pattee, returned missionary from the Philippine islands, is scheduled to speak Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the First Church of the Nazarene, Holly and First sts.

He will also speak Sunday morning in the Ashland Church of the Nazarene, and Sunday evening in the Prospect "Chapel in the Pines." The Saturday night meeting will be a Zone rally of Southern Oregon churches, and will follow workshop sessions held in the afternoon by the missionary organizations of the respective churches.

A veteran missionary, Rev. Pattee was formerly active in the work among the people of China until the Communist control of that country forced him to leave. Restricted from China, he moved to the Philippine Islands in 1950. He recently arrived in the United States for his third furlough.

Accompanying Rev. Pattee to the States are Mrs. Pattee and their youngest daughter, Grace Ann. While in this country, the Pattees will make their home in Pasadena, Calif.

First Methodists To Open Classes; Speaker Named

Two new kindergarten classes will open at the First Methodist church Sunday, March 18 to accommodate the increasing enrollment and attendance, according to Mrs. Gordon C. Morris, superintendent of the children's division of the church school.

At 9:30 a.m., a class for six-year-old children will be established under the leadership of Mrs. Riley C. Cook. The 11:30 a.m. Kindergarten class will be for children from 4 to 6 years of age and is established under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Van Dyke. The classes are in addition to the preschool classes already being held, church officials emphasize.

Guest Speaker
The Rev. Darrel Berg, minister of the Ronald Methodist church in Seattle, Wash., will be guest preacher for the Lenten Sunday evening services at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Mr. Berg is a graduate of Garrett Biblical institute, Evanston, Ill. Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb will introduce Mrs. Berg. An informal coffee hour will follow the service. Anthems will be sung by the Youth choir under direction of Mrs. George Sloniger.

Dr. Balcomb will continue his series of sermons on "The Story About Jesus," dealing on Sunday with "His Birth." The Chancel choir, under direction of Mrs. C. R. Adamson, the Youth choir under direction of Mrs. George Sloniger, and the Carols, will furnish music at the morning services.

'Glory of Christ' Is Presbyterian Holy Week Theme

At both services Sunday morning at First Presbyterian church Dr. D. Kirkland West will speak on the theme, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory." This message is the third in a series leading up to Holy week and Easter.

The Chancel choir will sing, directed by Allan Lehle.

About 30 new members were received into the church a week ago by the session of the church, and Sunday at the 11 a.m. service adults will be publicly welcomed. At the Palm Sunday service young people will be received at the first worship hour.

College-age young people are asked to notice that a new group, is being formed for their age named the Geneva fellowship. Young people up to the age of 25 years are invited to attend the 9:45 a.m. worship service, and then make their way to the Chapel mortuary where fellowship will be held. The Rev. John Reynolds will lead the group.

The Senior High Westminster fellowship evening meeting will be held by Virginia Carter on the topic, "The New Look in Missions." During the month of March the group has been studying missions around the world, and this week's meeting will be a discussion of the new strategy for contemporary missions in the ecumenical church.

EVANGELISTS—The Rev. and Mrs. Orvan J. Keller, (pictured above) will be evangelists and singers for pre-Easter services to be held in Pilgrim Holiness church in Central Point, corner of Pine and Sixth sts., beginning Tuesday, March 20. The series will continue through Easter Sunday, April 1. Services will be held daily at 7:30 p.m., except Saturday. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Keller of Logan, Kan., also will furnish instrumental music. The public is invited.

Congregationalists Plan Sunday Dedication Rites

The new Sunday School building which has just been completed at the Congregational church, 300 Oakwood drive, will be dedicated at two brief services Sunday afternoon. Open house will be from 3 until 5 p.m. The first service will be at 3:30 p.m. when the dedicatory talk and prayer will be given by the Rev. Fred G. Plocher of the Ashland Congregational Church. The Junior choir will sing. A welcome will be extended by Henry Padgham, moderator of the local church.

The second service will be at 4:30 p.m. The Rev. Richard Jones, pastor of the Eastwood Baptist church will be the speaker. As minister of a nearby church, organized only a little longer than the Congregational church, he will speak as a representative of other Medford churches. Mrs. Ivan Burton will sing at this service and Richard Henselman, chairman of the board of trustees will give the benediction at both services.

Invitations have been extended to members of other Medford churches to attend this open house. Visitors may come and go except during the two short services.
