Cooper-Robinson Service Held at Episcopal Church

A seven o'clock evening ceremony March 8 at St. Mark's Episcopal church wedded Miss Sandra Jean Robinson and Robert Lee Cooper. The bride, a senior student at Medford High school, is a daughter of Mrs. Ken H. Robinson, 46 Windsor avenue, and the late Mr. Robinson. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cooper, 1916 Elm avenue.

About 100 guests attended the rites which were read by the Rev. George R. V. Bolster.

The bride's ballerina length gown was styled with a lace bodice over satin and her full skirt was of nylon net. A crown of lace and pearls held her shoulder-length veil and she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis. An uncle, C. R. Jester, Grants Pass, gave her in marriage.

Mrs. James Haskins, the bride's sister from Redondo Beach, Calif., was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Miss Valerie Carrell, a cousin of the bride from Crescent City, Calif., Miss Peggy Lydiard and Miss Lee Stark. Mrs. Haskins' and Miss Carrell's gowns were lavender and the others were yellow. Their flowers were violets with yellow carnations and they wore bands of yellow carnations in their hair.

William Cooper, a brother of the bridegroom was best man.

Ushers were Bev Carrell, Crescent City and Edward Croucher, both uncles of the bride, and Donald G. LaBar.

Altar bouquets were of white chrysanthemums and white snapdragons.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad furnished the organ music.

A reception was held in the parish house. Cutting the cake was Miss Shirley Stafford and Miss Emily Masterson poured punch. Mrs. Jack Gardner had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Robert Rae poured the coffee.

For the occasion Mrs. Robinson wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a grey suit with red accessories. Both wore white camellia corsages.

The bridegroom will leave for Germany in May to serve for two years in the Army. He has been stationed with the Third Armored division at Ft. Knox, Ky.

Couple Married In Jacksonville; Bride Honored

Jacksonville — Miss Arlene Fitzgerald, Oakland, Calif., and Airman Jackie Dean McKinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Couch, Jacksonville, were married here March 6. The double-ring ceremony was performed in the Assembly of God church, Jacksonville. The Rev. W. D. Turnbull officiated.

The bride wore a navy blue dress with red accessories.

The couple met in Alameda, Calif., where Airman McKinney was stationed at the United States Naval Air base. He is now home on leave after having been assigned to duty at Barber's Point, Hawaii. Airman McKinney formerly attended Jacksonville High school.

The newlyweds are at the Couch home on Highway 238.

A bridal shower was held for Mrs. McKinney at the home of Mrs. M. W. Couch of Jacksonville. Cakes for the occasion were baked by Mrs. W. L. Couch and by the hostess.

Guests were the Mesdames Ernest Armpriest, Margaret Nussbaum, Ed Flesher, Owen Womack, Lawrence Hackworth, Verna Sutherland, B. J. Hunter, Walter White, William Sutherland; Lester Stephens, Grants Pass; Charles Duval, Earl Best, Walter Couch, and Frank Mitchell and the Misses Janice Couch, Oteka Sheperd and Bonnie Couch. Mrs. McKinney was presented gifts.

Student Spends Vacation Here; Entertains Group

Miss Shirley Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lynch, 139 Kenwood avenue, arrived Friday evening from Eugene where she is a sophomore at University of Oregon. The student also is chapter house manager for Alpha Xi Delta sorority. She is majoring in biology.

Last year she was a student at Lewis and Clark college, Portland, and Friday evening after the choir from that college presented a concert at First Presbyterian church, she entertained five of the group at the Lynch home. Miss Lynch formerly was a member of the choir and the students she entertained were members at the same time. They are Miss Joan Forstrom, Roger Hansen, Miss Mary Jaque Jenks, Miss Gayle Enger and Al Hood.

Jeanene Findley Honored at Party

Miss Ruth Jeanene Findley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dwight H. Findley, whose wedding to Gerald Franklin Bartz of Portland is set for April 8, was honored at a "brunch" and bridal shower Friday, March 16. The event was held at the William McAllister home, 2615 Hillcrest road and cohostesses with Mrs. McAllister were Raymond Fish and Mrs. Bayard Getchell.

About 20 guests attended and the bride-elect was presented miscellaneous gifts. Among those at the party was a sister of the bride, Mrs. Nat Bender Jr. Arrangements of daffodils, acacia and forsythia decorated the rooms.

The Bartz-Findley rites will be held at First Presbyterian church.

Rites Wed Couple in Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Fisk are living at 14 Merriam street, Walla Walla, Wash., following their wedding February 25 at the First Church of Nazarene in that city. The bride is the former Miss Winona P. Varner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Varner, 527 Pennsylvania avenue. The Varners went north for the wedding.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Glen Fisk of Tacoma, Wash.

The double-ring ceremony was read at 8 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. C. L. Rodda.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of white antique taffeta with scalloped bateau neckline Lace insets trimmed the gown and the skirt was made with chapel train. A cap of lace, with seed pearl and sequin trim held her fingertip length illusion veil. She carried a white orchid encircled with white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Janice Fisk, Tacoma, a sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and bridesmaid and bridesmatron were Miss Pat Gongwer and Mrs. Charles Mertsching, the latter of Seattle. The attendants' taffeta gowns were styled identically with princess lines and bustle bows. Miss Fisk wore pink and the other attendants' gowns were spring green. All had headpieces of white carnations and they carried bouquets of the same flowers.

John Corcoran, Oakland, was best man and ushers were Sanford Koonz, Kenneth Hartwig, Lauren Bozarth and Harold Rimbey. Lighting the candles were Miss Galen Davis and Miss Sylvan Rimbey.

The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli and a white ribboned arch. A white window box in front of the archway was filled with white tulips and lighted white tapers. Other decorations included an anniversary candle.

The reception was held at the YWCA lounge with Mrs. Ben Maxson as reception hostess. Red roses decorated the main table at which Mrs. Frederic Davis and Mrs. Delbert Driskell presided. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. A. S. Maxon and Mrs. Orval Rimbey. Mrs. Mary McEvoy served punch.

Mrs. Harold White had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Floyd Ferris received the gifts.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Varner wore a gown of dusty rose lace with light pink accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Fisk chose a gown of beige lace with pink accessories and orchid corsage. Mrs. Maude Bynum, Medford, the bride's grandmother, was dressed in steel gray with pink carnation corsage.

The bride is employed in the office of Dr. Frederic Davis. She is a Willamette university and University of Oregon medical school graduate, with a degree in medical technology.
