

Mr. and Mrs. Lauren D. Hardy (Brainerd photo)

Miss Norma Jean Huffman Bride of Lauren D. Hardy

A ceremony held Saturday, March 10, at First Methodist church wedded Miss Norma Jean Huffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everette Huffman, 412 Benson street, to Lauren D. Hardy, son of Mrs. Eleanor Hardy, 607 Sherman street. The Rev. J. Thomas Dixon read the candle-light ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening in the presence of about 125 guests.

Mr. Huffman gave his daughter in marriage. Her wedding gown was fashioned with bodice of Chantilly lace and skirt of net over satin ending in a train. Her net veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried an orchid with stephanotis.

Miss Judy Manzer, cousin of the bride, from Cottage Grove, Ore., was honor attendant. She wore a frock of turquoise color and her bouquet and headband were of daisies dyed to match the gown.

Mrs. Richard Farrell, Miss Kay Ferris and Miss Sharon Huffman, sister of the bride, were additional attendants. Mrs. Farrell wore green, Miss Ferris blue and Miss Huffman a yellow gown, and their flowers were daisies dyed to match their frocks.

Susan Huffman, sister of the bride, and Barbara Huffman, a cousin, were flower girls. They wore long blue net frocks and carried baskets of petals. Patricia Huffman, another sister of the bride, was ring bearer. Her frock was of lavender net.

Leon Reisinger, cousin of the bride, was best man for Mr. Hardy, and ushers were Paul Weaver, Ken Walker and Owen Thornborough.

Pink and white gladiolus and candles decorated the church for the wedding. Kurt Fiedler and Mrs. Clinton Phelps were soloists, and Douglas Stewart was organist.

The reception which followed was in the church parlors. Mrs. David Doran and Mrs. Lyle White cut the wedding cake and poured. Serving were Miss Susan Brill, Miss Shari Grivas, Miss Donna Mallams, Miss Ann Baker and Miss Emily Masterson. The wedding cake was made by Mrs. Loyal Harper.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue and white with white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a pastel pink dress with corsage of white carnations.

The newlyweds traveled to San Francisco for their honeymoon and are living at 205 1/2

Mrs. Ira Canfield Named Matron of Roxy Ann Court

Sorority Pledges Give Party for Members, Guests

Pledges of Alpha Beta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, were hostesses for a party given for members, their husbands and escorts, at Miss Pat's Dance Studio Saturday, March 3.

Theme of the party was "Television" and a committee headed by Mrs. Paul Garren, chairman, assisted by Miss Joan Pence, Mrs. Herbert Robbins and Mrs. Frederick Kruggel Jr., decorated the large hall with spring flowers, balloons, and television properties. Garlands of daisies circled the room and draped the doorways. Sprays of acacia formed the centerpiece for the buffet table, and cascaded from piano and window tops. Photographs of actresses and actors, famous on television, were interspersed with advertisements for local and national articles.

The stage was set with two blackboards for the popular "Do You Trust Your Wife" show. Chairs were arranged as in a television studio for the audience consisting of eighteen couples.

Mrs. Robert Hubbard opened the show by presenting her own script of "Wide, Wide Medford" which included all those present and touched upon their hobbies and occupations. Miss Alpha Clinkenbeard was mistress of ceremonies for "Do You Trust Your Wife," and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Thompson were winners of this contest.

The program was announced by Mrs. L. K. Morris. The most hilarious event of the evening was the "Pinky Lee Balloon Race" with all present participating.

Miss Joan Pence, chairman, and her assistant, Miss Rita Cardona, conducted games with humorous prizes for the winners. Square dancing was enjoyed the remainder of the evening with Fred Griffith as caller.

Miss Cardona received a prize. The Dutch lunch served throughout the evening was planned and prepared by Mrs. Herbert Robbins, Mrs. Vera Herbert Haglund and Miss Patricia Vail. Mrs. O. A. Eden, sponsor of the chapter, and her husband attended.

Mrs. Kruggel was general chairman of the event.

Miss Virginia Dew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dew, Central Point, was a member of the 1956 Dream Girl court of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity chapter at Linfield college, McMinnville, this spring. Miss Dew is a freshman secretarial science student at Linfield. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Phi sorority and is secretary of the freshman class. She was also a member of the intercollegiate Knights Sweetheart court earlier this year.
