

Prospect Women Plan Annual Show As Event of May

Prospect — Plans for an annual style show and luncheon were made by St. Martha's guild women at their last meeting held at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Leo Hoag. The event will be held Friday, May 4 at the high school auditorium in Prospect.

Child care will be provided without charge and the styles will be spring fashions furnished through Mann's Department store of Medford.

Style show chairmen are Mrs. Lewis Clevenberg and Mrs. O. E. Stone.

An oriental theme will be used.

Mrs. Donald Vaughn will again be mistress of ceremonies. A regular guild meeting set for March 15 was postponed until March 22 in the church. Women will make puppets for children who will be patients at Rogue Valley Memorial hospital. There will be no charge for this service as it was inadvertently reported earlier in a news release.

Church Rites Wed Couple Wednesday

Miss Darien Phillips became the bride of Donald W. Moody at 7 o'clock evening rites read at Pilgrim Holiness church Wednesday, March 14.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Phillips, Wrangell, Alaska, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moody, 6121 Crater Lake highway.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Sherman Moore.

Miss Deanna Mitchell, Jacksonville, was bridesmaid and Thomas Rupp, Central Point, was best man.

For her wedding the bride wore a powder blue suit with white accessories and her flowers were a white orchid with hyacinth blossoms. She was given in marriage by Joe Fosser, family friend.

Miss Mitchell wore a blue suit with white accessories and her flowers were pink hyacinths.

Miss Elaine Cox sang, accompanied by Miss Emma Jean Davis.

A wedding dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fosser, attended by 10 guests.

The bride was graduated from Jacksonville high school in 1954 and the bridegroom is a student at Southern Oregon college. Both young people have lived in Jackson county for many years, and have known one another since childhood.

Skating Party

A skating party at Rogue Valley Ballroom is planned for Wednesday, March 21, by Medford Jaycettes. The party will replace the regular meeting.

Lady Elks

Lady Elks will meet Tuesday, March 20, at 1:30 p.m. for a dessert luncheon and afternoon of cards.

Mrs. A. Watten and Mrs. Z. N. Agee as Mrs. Everett Gillespie will be hostesses. Wives of Elk club members are invited.

Methodist Choir To Give Oratorio On Palm Sunday

The 50-voice chancel choir of First Methodist church will present the oratorio, "The Holy City," on Palm Sunday evening, as the opening of Holy Week observance at the church. This major choral work has not been presented in Medford since 1947, at which time it was sung by the Rogue Valley chorus.

The oratorio includes four major choruses, including the thrilling double chorus for divided choirs, and many fine solos, quartets and smaller ensemble numbers. Soloists for this presentation include Mrs. Howard Bush, Mrs. Jack Harris, Mrs. Keith Krambeal, Mrs. Archie Pierce, Mrs. Lylee H. Soppert, Dr. G. A. Dierdorff, H. S. Daniels, Dr. J. S. Heatherington, and Dr. and Mrs. Milton Snow.

The oratorio will be directed by Mrs. D. R. Adamson, with Mrs. R. A. Schuchard at the pipe organ and Mrs. Jerry Sherman at the piano. The public is invited to attend. Doors will open at 7 p.m.

Players to Give AAUW Program

The March meeting of Medford branch, American Association of University Women will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Burich, 2303 Hillcrest road, Wednesday, March 21 at 8 p.m. "Drama" will be the program subject for the evening according to Miss Jeraldyn Jerome, chairman. A group of players from the Footlighter's Work Shop conducted this winter at St. Mary's High school will produce a one-act play under the direction of Mrs. Stan Zapell to illustrate the theme.

Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. Jack Lewis, chairman assisted by Mrs. Harry Chipman, Mrs. C. H. Herman, Mrs. Tom G. Polk, Mrs. John Dellenbeck and Mrs. Jeffery Shute.

The nominating committee appointed by Mrs. Emerson Anderson, president, will report their slate of officers.

On the committee are Mrs. William Knope, chairman; Mrs. Dorothy Dowson, Mrs. John Carnegie and Mrs. Fred Rankin.

Olive Rebekah Lodge Plans for Ceremony

Plans for initiation ceremonies will be made by Olive Rebekah lodge members Monday, March 19 at 8 p.m., and pictures also will be taken at the meeting.

Officers and members are asked to wear formal attire.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Jennie Hensler, Mrs. E. D. Scripser, Mrs. James Wicker and Mrs. Blanche Robinson.

Central Point Club To Meet Tuesday

Central Point—Central Point Lady Lions will hold a business meeting Tuesday, March 20 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Wendell Panter, the president.

The nominating committee will present the first reading of the candidates for the new term.

Mrs. Don A. Faber and Mrs. E. Roy Bashaw will be co-hostesses for the evening. Mrs. Panter and the secretary, Mrs. Art Rupp, visited the Phoenix Lions auxiliary March 8.

Faculty Member Now in Who's Who

Ashland—Miss Irene Hollenbeck, SOC faculty member and vice-president of the National Association of Biology Teachers, has received notice of her inclusion in the 1955-56 edition of Who's Who in American Education which will appear in May.

Miss Hollenbeck has long been active in professional circles. She was a charter member of NABT, helped prepare the biology courses for the secondary schools of Oregon, and has written a number of professional articles and publications.

Jacksonville PTA To Hold Meeting

Jacksonville — The nominating committee of the Jacksonville Parent Teacher association will report at a meeting of the group set for Wednesday, March 21 at 8 p.m., in the school music room.

The program will consist of a panel discussion on "Report on Report Cards." The panel members will be Mrs. Jean Long, Francis Guidry and Leland Harter.

Mothers of first grade students will be hostesses.
