Sociologist Declares Women Now Neglectful of Freedoms

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
United Press Correspondent
New York — (U.P.) — Are young women neglecting the freedoms their grandmothers crusaded to win?

Are young wives eyeing cobweb-covered pedestals, minimizing their equal rights and looking to men to become lords and masters once again?

There are signs that they are, a qualified woman observer says.

The word "feminist" has gone out of fashion and earning a living in a man's world has lost some of its Gibson Girl charm.

The two most publicized romances this year involve talented brides who leave no doubt that their husbands can cut off their careers with a word.

Margaret Truman said, "He hasn't put his foot down yet," when she was asked if she would continue her career after she married E. C. Daniel Jr. Grace Kelly said, "Whatever the prince wishes is all right with me," when Prince Rainier III announced her movie career was over.

Trees and Birds Discussed for Jacksonville Club

Jacksonville — Mrs. Dee Hendrickson spoke on deciduous trees and Mrs. Paul Janney, Oak Grove district, spoke on native birds last Thursday at the March meeting of the Jacksonville garden club. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Otto Heckert.

During her talk, Mrs. Hendrickson showed dried specimens of leaves and berries of deciduous trees. Mrs. Janney explained that a great number of birds came to her feeders during last winter's bad storms. During the last snow storm a purple finch came in, evidently from a long distance. Mrs. Janney timed the bird and reported that it ate for 20 minutes. The following day it left with the rest of the flock.

Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Mrs. Paul Godward, Mrs. Lawrence Luy and Mrs. L. L. Stone were hostesses at Thursday's meeting. Mrs. Harold Reed and Mrs. Adla Gwin poured.

The annual plant sale will be March 22 in the Fehl building, 106 North Ivy street. The sale will be open to the public at 9 a.m.

Latin Club To Hold Annual Event

Medford Senior High School Latin club will hold the annual classical dinner Thursday, March 22, 11 days before the "kalends of April." Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

The theme for this year's dinner is "This Is Your Life" or "Hos Esta Tua Vita." Famous characters of Roman history and literature will be on hand and, as a part of the entertainment, the guests will guess the identity of these "illustrious people."

Students from Hedrick and McLoughlin Junior High schools will be the slaves. As the guests arrive, the slaves will bid them enter the banquet hall "right foot first," for luck. Food will be served, Roman style, on golden plates. Between courses, water and towels will be passed; and before the "secunda mensa," or dessert course, small gifts will be given to the guests.

As the dinner entertainment is concluded, the entire group will sing in Latin "God Bless the Romans," a song adapted to the tune of "God Bless America."

Those in charge of the event this year are Miss Vicki Robertson and Miss Jane Barker, consultants; Miss Jane Barker, Miss Gladys Beddoe and Miss Carolyn Carr, entertainment; Miss Ramona Baugh, programs; Miss Maralee Chisholm, Miss Barbara Cox, and Edna O'Connors, decorations.

Mrs. Harold Stewart is advisor of the club and is supervising the plans.

Special guests will include Miss Dorothy Wilson, head of the Foreign Language department, Miss June Wheaton and Mrs. Maxine Smith.

Past Presidents Meet Recently At Kindred Home

Past Presidents' club of Elta Deuel Hubbs Tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, held the last meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter C. Kindred, on Grand View avenue. Dessert preceded the business session, the table being appointed in the St. Patrick's motif. Those present responded to roll call with appropriate quotations and verse.

It was reported that Albert Woolson, senior vice-commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, had been hospitalized. Commander Woolson is the sole surviving veteran of the Union Army of 1861-65, and as a youthful drummer boy stood with the Union forces at the tide-turning battle of Gettysburg. He recently celebrated his 109th birthday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Kubos, Duluth, Minn.

Poston as chairman and the group works with Mrs. Chris Zink, a volunteer liaison with the Oregon State Commission for the Blind, and Mrs. Vera Thompson, the commission's home instructor for the blind.

Materials for the course were supplied from funds raised by duplicate bridge clubs of Medford. The purpose of the project is to not only supply a hobby source for these handicapped persons but it is hoped that finished articles may provide some income for the workers.

Instructors for the class are Mrs. Zink, Mrs. Guy Nelson, Mrs. Eric de Place and Mrs. Russell Killingsworth. Attending the first class were Mrs. Susie McDonald, Mrs. Vera Nelson, Mrs. Harriet Peters, Mrs. Lydia Harris and Mrs. Ella Lance, Robert Ronfort, Ned Jefferies, Howard Chilso and Fred Ross.

Anti-Fluoridation Topic of Speaker

J. Vern Shangle, vice-president of Natural Foods Associates, was guest speaker for Alpha Lambda chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority March 12. Mr. Shangle spoke against fluoridation of the Medford water supply, presenting statistics from the towns that have tried fluoridation. Mr. Shangle declared that water naturally having fluoride also has much calcium, and it is then assimilated by the body without ill effects. Artificial addition of sodium fluoride, an aluminum waste product, to water that is without calcium, could be harmful, Mr. Shangle stated.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William Raymond, 728 Beekman avenue.

Mrs. James McDaniel, Ashland, and Mrs. E. H. Rosacker, Portland, were guests.

Mrs. George Ice and Mrs. Warren Scott received their pins at a recent meeting. Mrs. Melvin Underwood was transferred from Zelta Delta chapter, Brawley, Calif., at the same time.

Mrs. Chester Jines and Mrs. Lyman Smith installed Gamma Rho chapter at Grants Pass early this month. The dinner and ceremony was held at the Rogue Food shop.

Grange

Shady Cove Grange
The Shady Cove Grange met March 14 with a good attendance.

Ed Houston stated the Shady Cove-Trail fire department has purchased six coats and six helmets. The progress on the hall has been progressing slowly due to the bad weather.

Marie Larson gave another of her interesting gardening and flower culture reports, emphasizing rock gardening and the culture of the cacti, planting and their care.

The lecture hour was turned over to Reed McKay, the chairman for the evening.

Mrs. Walter Cross sang three selections accompanied by Mrs. Cecil Kee on the piano.

A short skit was presented by Mr. and Mrs. McKay and Marie Larson. Guessing quiz and other games were enjoyed.

Cecil Kee read a humorous poem.

Agness Brown reported some of the schools in California are trying out a method of teaching Spanish in the lower grades. If this proves successful it can and probably will be added to the regular classes in the future.

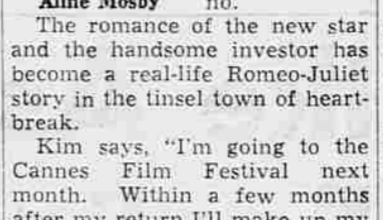

Marie Larson was elected as an executive committee member and installed.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Littlefield and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kee served refreshments following the meeting. The tables were decorated with Oregon grape, wall flowers and narcissus.

A potluck supper at the new time, 6:30 p.m., will precede the next regular social meeting March 28. Ladies are asked to bring a main dish and salad or a dessert, and their own table service.

Around Hollywood

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Kim Novak has decided she'll make up her mind about marrying wealthy Mac Krim by the end of summer. But her friends are betting those old cupid-killers-career and a big movie studio — are conspiring to make her say no.

Aline Mosby

The romance of the new star and the handsome investor has become a real-life Romeo-Juliet story in the insel town of heart-break.

Kim says, "I'm going to the Cannes Film Festival next month. Within a few months after my return I'll make up my mind about Mac."

But the story behind this has a better plot than some of her pictures.

Family Approves
Kim, a quiet, sweet girl from Chicago, met Krim, a fellow Chicagoan, in Hollywood when she was an unknown. The couple, both Catholics, fell in love with family approval. Then her career blossomed when an agent got her a contract at Columbia Pictures.

The beautiful blonde was given star billing in her first picture, "Pushover." Then came "Phiffi." Recently a true star was born when she splashed across the screen in "Picnic" and "The Man With The Golden Arm."

Kim is an example of a star manufactured by a studio, as opposed to one who makes the grade first on Broadway or TV. The studio wants to protect its investment. And young females rise faster as single girls.

Studio Disapproves
"As far as publicity is concerned, it's better she's single"

Long Extinct Siberia Volcano in Eruption

London — (U.P.) — A long extinct Siberian volcano erupted suddenly last October in a roaring explosion that has lasted ever since, Moscow Radio reported.

The broadcast said scientists at the volcanic study station in the desolate Siberian Kamchatka peninsula reported last Oct. 22 that clouds of smoke had been arising from the "extinct" Kamchatka volcano.

"Kim did that to needle the studio," a friend chuckles. "But recently a new obstacle has complicated the problem. Since 'Picnic,' Kim has discovered she's a big star."

"She's beginning to enjoy this new world," her pal sighs. "Now I think she figures it might be wise if she didn't marry him."

Last Soviet Ship Leaves Antarctic Winter Base

London — (U.P.) — The last Soviet ship in the Antarctic was en route home today, Radio Moscow reported.

The broadcast said the motorship Lena left Soviet Russia's Antarctic base during the weekend after "moving farewells" between the crew and sailors and scientists who will spend the winter near the South Pole.
