

Oldfield Collects First Money In Three-Day Pro-Amateur Mix

Eddie Oldfield, professional at Roseburg Country club and ex-all-state linksman for Medford high school, pocketed top money in the southern Oregon progressive pro-amateur tourney which concluded yesterday with competition on the Rogue Valley Country club links here.

Oldfield tabulated a three-day 54-hole total of 221 to get the $90 first place money. Harold West, Laurelwood club, Eugene, finished a stroke behind with 222. Second place earned him $65. Al Williams, Rogue Valley, grabbed third with 224.

The tourney opened on Sunday with 18 holes on the Laurelwood course and moved to Roseburg for the Monday round.

Three duos tied in yesterday's pro-am best ball race with 68 scores. They were Al Williams and Justin Smith Jr., Rogue Valley; Glenn Spivey, Rose City, Portland, and Larry Butler, Rogue Valley, and George Harrington, Rogue Valley. Bunny Mason, Salem, and Bob Reor, Rogue Valley, had second low count with a 69.

Harrington Tops Day
Harrington, an amateur, led a field of 15 pros and 57 amateurs, who played over the local course yesterday. He recorded a one under par 71. Joe Moez, Lloyd's of Portland, was the low pro with even-par 72. Williams followed with a 73.

Oldfield fired 73-74-74 to get the top three-day prize. West had 68-77-77. Williams had a 74-77-73 for the tourney.

Other scores among the pros who went the full route were Wendell Wood, Eugene Country club, and Spivey, Rose City, Portland, each 226; Moez 227; Mason 228; Dave Killen, Eastmoreland, Portland, 231; Ron Caperna, Astoria, 233; Harvey Hixson, Laurelwood, 234, and Bobby Litton, Royal Oaks, Vancouver, Wash., 239.

McKeown Low Amateur
Los gross among the amateurs for three days was Bob McKeown, Riverside, Portland, with 236. Ed Hall and Wendell Wixler, Rogue Valley were next with 240s. Dr. John Wood, Salem, was low net with 219 and Hugh Roberts, Cottage Grove, took second low with 220. Gross amateur scores included Roberts and Marvin Clark, Grants Pass, 244 each; Dr. Wood and Clayton Lewis, Rogue Valley, 246; Lee Flink, Rogue Valley, 256, and Buck Pierce, Riverside, 258.

Larry Butler got the low net prize for Tuesday play with a 68 count. He had a 74 gross but under the tourney award play second low gross prize went

11 SOC Hoopmen Receive Letters

Ashland — Eleven Southern Oregon college Red Raiders have been awarded basketball letters for the 1955-56 season. Two earned their fourth year awards. There was one three-year award. Four earned second year letters, and four got their first varsity monograms, according to Coach Ted Schopf.

Heading the varsity list was Lloyd Hoffine, OCC all-conference forward from Coos Bay the past two seasons. The other four-year award went to Hal Titus, pivot man from Stayton.

Dale Bates, cagy guard from Creswell, was the only three-year letter winner.

Bill Hollingsworth, forward from Ashland and second team all-conference OCC, was one to pick up his second-year letter. Other two-year awards were earned by Chuck Crandall, sophomore guard from Coos Bay; Don Lowrance, junior center from Junction City; and Gene DePuy, sophomore forward from Rogue River.

Campbell Told To Lose, He Testifies at LA

Los Angeles —(U.P.)— Ex-lightweight boxer Tommy Campbell testified at a Los Angeles boxing probe yesterday that he was told to lose to Art Aragon at the Olympic Auditorium May 16, 1950.

He said under oath that the agreement to throw the bout was arranged between his manager, George Moore, and matchmaker Babe McCoy before the fight.

to Bob McKeivitt, Ocean Lake with a 77. Hall, Flink, Roberts and Frank Maize, Astoria, knotted for second low net with 73s. Five combinations had 70 best balls in the pro-am yesterday. They were Wendell Wood and Harry Kendall; Wood and Roy Smith, Rogue Valley; Hixson and Roberts; Williams and Bob Rasmussen, Rogue Valley and Williams and Russ Heysell, Rogue Valley.

Brooklyn Dodgers Hurting But Seem Class of League

(This is another of a series on the 1956 prospects of the major league clubs.)

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor
Vero Beach, Fla. — (U.P.) — The world champion Brooklyn Dodgers are "hurting" this spring, but they still look like the class of the National league. They are hurting because Johnny Podres, their World Series pitching hero, is Navy bound; pitcher Karl Spooner is having more arm trouble, and their captain and sparkplug, Pee Wee Reese, has a back injury.

But they are loaded with talent and even Walt Alston, their tactician manager, agrees "We are the club to beat."

Podres will be the only key player missing from their first world championship team. The rest of them are back, and both Spooner and Reese are confident they will be all right.

They'll have Gil Hodges at first, Duke Snider in center, Carl Furillo in right, Roy Campanella behind the plate and such pitchers as Don Newcombe, Carl Erskine, Billy Loes, Don Bessent, Roger Craig and Clem Labine out there on the mound.

Backbone of Club
They, together with Reese — and in the series, Podres — formed the backbone of the club in 1955.

For the positions open, there are plenty of candidates. For instance, Randy Jackson, obtained from the Cubs and Jackie Robinson are battling for the third base spot. No matter which one makes it, the Dodgers do not figure to be weak there.

The same is true of second base, shortstop and left field. If Reese should come to the end of the road, Brooklyn has spunky Don Zimmer and rookie Chico Fernandez, who hit .301 at Montreal last year, ready to take over.

At second, Junior Gilliam, who also can play left field; Zimmer, and rookie Charley Neal, another Montreal graduate, are available. And for the left field spot there are Sandy Amoros, whose catch saved the Dodgers in the series; rookie Gino Cimoli, a .306 hitter at Montreal in 1955; and Gilliam and Robinson — if they should be beaten out of their infield posts.

The Dodgers have depth in every position except first and that isn't much of a worry when you have a durable guy like

Wes Santee Returned To Sidelines

New York —(U.P.)— Wes Santee's suspension from track was back in effect today as State Supreme Court Judge Walter A. Lynch prepared to receive further evidence in the suit brought by Santee against the Amateur Athletic Union.

Judge Lynch put Santee on the sidelines yesterday when he discontinued, at least temporarily, the Supreme Court injunction that Santee had obtained against his suspension.

That means that, as matters now stand, Santee won't be eligible to run in the Chicago Daily News track meet in Chicago. Under the injunction, Santee had competed in three meets during this indoor season. But Charles P. Grimes, Santee's attorney, said the Marine Corps mile star had not intended to compete at Chicago, anyway.

AAU Scores Victory
The AAU scored another, probably more significant, victory over Santee yesterday when Judge Lynch tossed out the third part of Santee's complaint, namely, that violations of the amateur code for track stars had been permitted so often in the past that the rule now is unenforceable. The dismissal came when attorney Grimes admitted he was unable to proceed on arguments on this point now.

The dismissal wiped out any chance of a parade of track stars, former track stars, and meet officials to the stand to testify on how well the amateur code has been adhered to in the past.

Hollingsworth, Hoffner Ring Up Raider Records

Ashland—Bill Hollingsworth, sophomore from Ashland, became the first Southern Oregon college Red Raider to score 500 or more points in a single basketball season since Keith Wade set the all-time season's record in 1949 with 575 points.

Hollingsworth, who has two more seasons of eligibility at SOC, headed the Raiders in several departments in addition to total points scored, including the highest average per game, most free shots made, field goal accuracy, and in rebounding. The Ashlander rolled up 502 points for an average 19.3 per game. He got 182 free throws and from the field shot a remarkable .525 per cent.

Lloyd Hoffine, all-OCC first string forward from Coos Bay, was the number two man in scoring with 481 points, an average of 18.5 per game. His 481 points helped to establish a four-year scoring record at Southern Oregon with 1652 points.

PARILLI DISCHARGED
Cleveland —(U.P.)— Babe Parilli, former Kentucky T-formation star and regarded as the successor to Otto Graham, signed Tuesday with the Cleveland Browns for an estimated $12,500. Discharged from the air force last week, Parilli was acquired from the Green Bay Packers two years ago in exchange for Stanford's Bob Garrett.

The eyes are among the first organs to develop in the human embryo.

REINFIELD MAY PLAY
Philadelphia —(U.P.)— Hal Reinfield, Temple co-captain who is recovering from a back injury, is expected to see action Thursday night when the Owls play Iowa in the semi-final round of the NCAA Basketball tournament at Evanston, Ill.

Ed Furgol of St. Louis and Jack Fleck of Davenport, Ia., both of whom fired second round 73's, also shared third place with 141 totals.

Total Entry of 141 Slated for Retriever Trial Opening Friday

Rogue Valley Retriever club's fifth annual licensed field trial, one of a series on the Pacific coast circuit, will have a total of 141 entries. Trial Chairman O. R. Middlekauff announced today.

The trial, under American Kennel club license, is scheduled Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 23, 24 and 25, with most of the events on the Oregon Game Commission management area along Rogue river in the vicinity of the military bridge.

Middlekauff said that 33 dogs will be entered in the derby stake, 38 in amateur all-age competition, 38 in the qualifying stake and 42 in the open all-age rivalry. Some of the best retrievers in the country will be in contention for honors with local entries.

One of the most interesting entries to watch, Middlekauff reported, will be Marion's Timothy, owned and handled by Mrs. Marion McPhail. Tim is rated as one of the top 10 retrievers in the United States. The dog, runt of a litter but the best of the lot, was runner-up for the national championship in 1952 and 1953.

Zeke To Defend
Hal's Spi-Wise Zeke, owned and handled by Hal Shidler, Klamath Falls, will return to defend the 1955 open all-age championship of the Rogue Valley trial. Among the top entrants of the RVRC are Princess Black Belle, owned and handled by Earl Westcott, and Kip of Geneva, owned and handled by Kenneth G. Denman.

Three well-qualified men will judge the trial, Middlekauff reported. They are James W. Bryan, Bremerton, Wash., attorney; Dr. Dean Parker, Seattle neurosurgeon, and C. Weldon Kline, local club secretary and a manager for W. H. Daugherty Lumber company. Kline will assist Dr. Parker with the derby judging.

Judges were to go over the trial grounds today and are expected to have the various series of tests planned for the stakes by Thursday. Some of the tests will be at Hoover lakes.

Amateur Stake Opens
The field trial will begin on Friday at 8 a.m. with the amateur all-age event. Derby stake could follow and could be completed Friday. If not it will carry over into Saturday. The qualifying stake will be next and the open will wind up the trial.

There will be land and water series in each stake. Pigeons will be used in the derby, shackled ducks in all stakes and "live-shot" pheasants in qualifying, amateur and open stakes. Pheasants shot in the competition will be sold for $1 each. The pheasants cost $7 a pair.

The public is invited to watch the handlers put their dogs through their paces. Signs will mark the way to the trial sites. A lunch concession on the grounds will be operated by Women of the Moose.

Gold. Gloves Tourney Set

Portland —(U.P.)— The Northwest Golden Gloves championships will be held in Portland Friday and Saturday of this week. Officials report most of the top amateurs in the Northwest already are entered.

Action in the program will get underway with better than a 20-bout card lined up for Friday night. A Saturday afternoon card will cut the field still further before Saturday night's semi-finals and finals.

National AAU champion Jackie Puscas and State AAU champion Larry Lewis of Medford Police Athletic league are definite entries in the Northwest Golden Gloves tourney at Portland. Loren Christean will make the Portland trip. He has a cold and will fight if he recovers sufficiently. The boxers will head north Thursday evening.

Rhodes Raps Three Hits For Giants

By JOE SARGIS
United Press Sports Writer
Giant Manager Bill Rigney hardly ever mentions Dusty Rhodes as a left field candidate, but the hitting hero of the 1954 World Series appears today to have a "lock" on the job.

Rhodes, one of former Manager Leo Durocher's favorite characters and a legitimate long-ball threat, got three hits in all Tuesday, two of them homers, to lead the Giants to a 9-5 victory over the Baltimore Orioles. The homers were his fourth and fifth of the spring and he's been up only 31 times.

Cubs Winners
The homer-hitting Cubs made it two straight over the Cleveland Indians, 14-7, with Ernie Banks, Hank Sauer, Walt Moryn and rookie Ed Winceniak supplying the jackpot pokes. Early Wynn, Art Houtteman and Ray Narleski absorbed the punishment.

The Cincinnati Redlegs gained their second win in as many days over the Pittsburgh Pirates, 10-3 with a crowd of only

GAMBOLD ASSISTANT
Pullman —(U.P.)— Bob Gambold, former star quarterback at Washington State college, was named assistant football coach today by WSC head coach Jim Sutherland. Gambold's selection completes Sutherland's staff of assistants. He joins Lloyd Torchio, Leon McLaughlin, Dan Stavelly and A. B. (Buck) Bailey.

575 looking on in chilly Tampa, Fla. The Redlegs bunched eight hits in the third inning for seven runs.

Max Lanier, attempting a comeback in the major leagues at the age of 40, hurled three fine innings as the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Washington Senators, 7-1. Stan Lopata poled a long homer over the center field fence for the winners.
