Flyers Have Close Call In National Invitational

New York — (U.P.) — The top-seeded Dayton Flyers still were alive in the National Invitational tournament today but their role as title choice was badly shaken by their poor performance in Tuesday night's 72-68 triumph over Xavier of Cincinnati.

The quarter - final victory moved Dayton into a semi-final berth Thursday night against St. Francis of Brooklyn, a smaller but scrappy outfit that must be given a chance to whip the Flyers.

Third-seeded St. Joseph's of Philadelphia spurred early in the second half to win Tuesday night's other quarter-final by a comfortable 74-65 score over Seton Hall. But the Hawks probably will be underdogs in Thursday's semi-final against second-seeded Louisville.

Xavier was in charge most of the way and drove to a 44-35 lead early in the second half. At this point, sub Al Sicking replaced 7-foot Bill Uhl at center for Dayton and ran off a string

LA To Be Tough If Rest Of Play Matches Hitting

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — If Los Angeles can get the rest of its team to play up to the abilities of its hitters, the Angels think they will be tough this year.

Bob Scheffing is starting his first full season as manager and the former Cub coach thinks he will have a contending ball club that could prove better than the 1955 team which finished in the first division.

In Steve Bilbo, Buzz Clarkson, George Freese, Bob Coats and Gene Mauch he has a "murderer's row" that should make opposing pitchers tremble.

"But we need some help on the mound ourselves," Scheffing said as he drilled his squad at Wrigley Field. "You can't lose three pitchers like George Frosman, Don Elston and Turk Lown without it hurting. We hope the Cubs can provide that help."

Still unanswered was the question of why the coach whose Seattle U. teams won 180 victories against 68 defeats during his 8-year tenure stepped down from the job yesterday afternoon.

The Rev. Robert Rebhahn, S.J., the school's athletic director, denied Brightman's arguments on the sidelines at Corvallis last Saturday with John Wooden, UCLA coach, precipitated the resignation.

Brightman leaped off the bench and charged Wooden when the UCLA coach objected to the play of Ken Fuhrer as the two teams battled for third place in the western regional NCAA playoffs. Father Rebhahn moved in and helped settle the discussion.

No Pressure
"There was no pressure," Brightman said. "This is something I had planned for awhile. When I leave I want everyone here to know that it has been eight wonderful years. I have no complaints."

He said he was in the market for a coaching job and suggested Steve Belko, coach of Idaho State, as a "terrific" guy for Seattle university to land.

Brightman said he was going to the college basketball coaches convention in Chicago next week.

Al Brightman Resigns Post At Seattle
Seattle — (U.P.) — Horace Albert (Al) Brightman insisted today "there was no pressure" involved in his resigning as head basketball coach at Seattle university.

Freese was drafted by the Angels, who think he could prove their best all-around player capable of working both the infield and outfield, as he did at Hollywood. Casey Wise has been impressing Scheffing at shortstop and Gene Mauch has second base sewed up.

Sam Brown, Too
In the outfield the Angels have Jim Bolger from Chicago; Coats, George Haas and Prentise Browne to start with. UCLA football star Sam Brown also is trying for an outfield berth, while Tom Loprete was signed as a free agent.

"We should get off to a good start," Scheffing says. "The outlook is better than it was last year. But so is the competition this year in the league. We've got a better bench this time and if we get the help we need, we'll be right up there."

Museum Display May Displease Soviet Heads

London — (U.P.) — Madame Tussou's famous wax works apparently has not received the latest word from the Kremlin.
